In the mission life of Mrs. Ingalls, in Burmah, is well told in the Baptist Messenger, relating how she was sent for to visit one of the Buddhist high priests, who had been nearly killed; and how, while in the most holy place in their temple, where none but priests had ever befor been admitted, she was permitted, un rebuked, to use for him the sacred vessels, which none but the high priest dare touch, and to even ov erturn and sit on one of their gods to rest; all through the magic influence of the Pain Killer, called by them the "God medicine," so successfully had them considered heretofore fatal in that climate, among which were cholera, liver complaint, dyspepsia, the bites of venemous reptiles, &c. Rev. J. E. Clough, missionary at Ongole, Southern India, writes :- "We esteem your Pain Killer very highly for scorpion stings, cholera, &c., and cannot very well get along without it."

Rev. I. D. Colburn, missionary at Tavoy, Burmah, writes :- " I shall be happy to assist in extending a knowledge of a remedy so speedy and effectual."
