Constantinople.

A despatch from London, of Dec. 20th, says:-The latest news from the East is more pacific. The government at Athens, which has hitherto been swept along by the popular eagerness for war with the Turks, is now disposed to listen to the protests of the European Powers. This disposition, strengthened by a rapidly growing sentiment in favor of peace, may avert war if the Sublime Porte will grant ime for further negotiations.

It is understood that the Western Powers sustain the Sultan's ultimatum to Greece, while Russia, in the interest of the Greeks, will seek to modify its
