APONIA CURED!

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP.

Aphonia, or Loss of Voice, is remedied in a short time, whether the cause be from inflammation of the living membrane, from cold, or from nevous derange-

Dear Sir, -Some three months ago one of my daughters lost her voice, and for a long time was unable to speak above a whisper; it continued so long that we became very anxious, and resorted to every means we could hear of, but without any good effect. She was advised by a friend to use your Compound

Syrup, and strange to say, one hour after taking the first dose her voice was completely restored.

Yours truly, J. S. Armstrong. Greenhead, N. B. January 1868.

A THRILLING INCIDENT

In the mission life of Mrs. Ingalls, in Burmah, is well told in the Baptist Messenger, relating how she was sent for to visit one of the Buddhist high priests, who had been nearly killed; and how, while in the most holy place in their temple, where none but priests had ever befor been admitted, she was permitted, unrebuked, to use for him the sacred vessels, which none but the high priest dare touch, and to even overturn and sit on one of their gods to rest; all through the magic influence of the Pain Killer, called by them the "God medicine," so successfully had she used it in curing their many diseases, some of them considered heretofore fatal in that climate, among which were cholera, liver complaint, dyspepsia, the bites of venomous reptiles, &c. This speaks volumes for the Pain Killer. - London Times.

Rev. J. E. Clough, missionary at Ongole, Southern India, writes:—"We esteem your Pain Killer very highly for scorpion stings, cholera, &c., and cannot very well get along without it."

Rev. I. D. Colburn, missionary at Tavoy, Burmeh, writes :- "I shall be happy to assist in extending a knowledge of a remedy so speedy and effectual."

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP

St. John, N. B., January 1868.

Wolfville, March 20th, 1867.

To MR. JAMES I. FELLOWS, Manufacturing Chemist, Saint John, N. B. We, the undersigned, have much pleasure in recommend ing your Compound Syrup. After a fair and protracted trial of the same, we consider your preparation a very valuable nervous tonic, far surpassing many others of considerable repute, and well worthy the confidence of the profession generally.

We beg to remain, yours, very truly,

A. H. CHANDLER, M. D. H. A. JACOBS, M. D. Moncton, N. B., November 9, 1867.

MR. JAMES I. FELLOWS, Manufacturing Chemist. SIR-For several months past I have used your Compour Syrup in the treatment of Incipient Phthisis, Chronic, Bron-chitis, and other affections of the Chest, and I have no hesitation in stating that it ranks foremost amongst the remedies used in those diseases. Being an excellent nervous tonic, it exerts a direct influence on the nervous system, and through it invigorates the body.

It affords me pleasure to recommend a remedy which is really good in cases for which it is intended, when so many advertised are worse than useless. I am, Sir, yours truly, S. Z. EARLE, Jr., M. D.

MR. JAMES I. FELLOWS, Chemist, St. John, N. B. Dear Size—Having used your Compound Syrup for some time in my practice, I have no hesitation in recommending it to my patients who are suffering from general debility, or any disease of the lungs, knowing that even in cases utterly hopeless it affords relief.

I am, Sir, yours truly,

H. G. ADLY, M. D.

St. John, N. B., January 1868. IR. JAMES I. FELLOWS, St. John, N. B. SIR-Having, while at your Establishment, carefully exmined your prescription, and the method of preparing our Compound Syrup, I felt anxious to give it a fair trial a my practice. For the last twelve months I have done a my practice. For the last twelve months I have done to, and I find that in Incipient Consumption, and other diseases of the Throat and Lungs, it has done wonders. In sestoring persons suffering from the effects of Diptheria, and the cough following Typhoid Fever prevalent in this legion, it is the best remedial egent I have ever used. But it persons suffering from exhaustion of the powers of the vain and nervous system, from long continued study or saching, or in those cases of exhaustion from which so many young men suffer, I know of no better medicine for a storation to health than your Compound Syrup.

If you think this letter of any service you are at liberty I remain, yours, &c., EDWIN CLAY, M. D. Pugwash, N. S., January 14, 1868.

For the effects produced by Fellows' Compound Syrup,
