We learn wisdom from experience. When the complexion is pale or sallow color, it denotes vitiated Blood and unhealthy secretions. By using Fellows' Compound Syrup regularly, and observing the directions, accompanying each bottle, for a few weeks. the blood becomes pure, the Secretions of the body healthy, the Skin transparent; the Features assume the appearance of youth, while buoyant spirits indicate the return of health, to which the patient has perhaps been a stranger many years.

Sold by Apothecaries. Price $1.50 per bottle, or 6 for $7.50. On the receipt of $7.50 the proprietor will forward six to any part of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, Free. JAMES I. FELLOWS, Chemist, St. John, N. B.

FIRE AND FATALITY .- The dwelling house of Mr. Foster McBride of Nictaux was destroyed by fire on the night of Thursday last; and, sad to relate, Miss Voodberry, one of its inmates, perished in the flames. The deceased was the first to awake, and give the alarm. At the time, there were in the house three persons, viz., Mr. McBride, Miss Elizabeth Woodberry, who is more than eighty years of age, and Mary Woodberry, already mentioned, a robust woman in the vigor of her years. There was no neighbor within half a mile; and soon as Mr. Me-Bride saw that it was impossible to save his house, he mounted his horse, and galloped away to procure help to save, if possible, a part of the furniture from destruction. Before doing so, however, he placed the two females referred to in a position of safety. When he returned he found that the younger had returned to the house, intent upon snatching all she could from the flames, and had fallen a victim to the fire. But httle that was in the house was saved. Next norning all that remained of Mary Woodberry was w calcined bones that were raked from the uldering embers and ashes in the cellar. It was cious and valuable dwelling. Mr. Mc-Bride's loss cannot be much less than two thousand ollars. - Bridgetown Free Press.
