Russell, several British army officers and his staff, arrived at New York last week en route for Ottawa.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Gen. Grant left Washington yesterday for Boston.

Mrs. Leslie and her two children were burned to death at Sing Sing on Saturday evening in consequence of the upsetting of a Kerosene lamp.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Advices from Senora report a terrible storm on the Mexican coast about the middle of October. The town of Loreto, in Lower California, was destroyed. The mining works on the Yagui River were swept off, and a waterspout burst over the city of Alamas, destroying the town completely. Seventy dead bodies had been picked up.

O'Baldwin, the Irish prize-fighter, who was committed to gaol at New York after the murder of his bondsman, Larkin, is released on bail, having promised to reform and keep the peace in future.

Grant's official majority in California is 606. Owing to some informality in printing the name of Hoffman, one of the Republican electors, it is said that the Secretary of State refuses to certify his election, thus giving the Democrats an elector. The matter will be submitted to the Supreme Court. Some two million dollars in stakes depend upon the decision, the Democrats claiming the bets drawn unless the Electoral Vote is unanimous for Grant and Colfax.

ONTARIO AND QUEBEC.

Elkin's Hotel, in Southampton, Ont., was destroyed by fire last week. Two men burned to death, and proprietor and three others so badly burned that they are not expected to recover.

The Canadian shore of lake Erie promises to be a new grape region. An acre of Concords this year produced three tons.

The argument in Whelan's case began in the Court of Queen's Bench in Toronto on Monday.—Whelan was taken to Toronto by the Sheriff of Ottawa.

Sir John Young, the new Governor General of Canada, was expected to arrive at Ottawa on Friday last.

Several Canadian Pontifical Zouaves are returning home on account of ill-health.

Judge Smith is dead.

In consequence of Chief Justice Richards absence in Ottawa, where he has gone to swear in Sir John Young, the newly arrived Governor-General, the Whelan case has been postponed until Friday.

Great dissatisfaction exists at the delay and an impressions prevails that the Government is conniving at Whelan's escape from the meshes of the Law!

MONTREAL, Dec. 1.—His Excellency, Sir John Young was this afternoon sworn in as Governor-General.

Ottawa held high holiday, the whole city turning out to do him honor.

There was a great display of bunting and mottoes; the bells rang out merrily.

His Excellency and Staff drove into the city in a sleigh, and were received with great cheering.

The Senate Chamber and the galleries were crowded.

Chief Justice Hagarty and Justices Wilson and Morrison administered the oath, an honorable and lucrative duty attached to their office.

The Corporation of Ottawa, the National Societies and Board of trade; also a deputation from the Legislature of Ontario presented congratulatory addresses to His Excellency to which he made suitable replies. Col. John H. Gray, delivered an address at the St. Andrew's banquet in Ottawa.

Captain Prince of the Ottawa Police, is sueing the Leader for Libel, and claims $5,000 damages.

Weather is very cold.

Flour $4.80 to $5.05.

NOVA SCOTIA.

The Nova Scotia Government and Hon. Joseph Howe are at loggerheads, the former denying and the latter re-affirming some statements recently made by Howe. The controversy takes up much space in the Nova Scotia papers. There is a decided split in the anti party in that Province.

The Halifax Reporter says: "The Banks of this Province are, we are happy to learn, in a thoroughly sound financial condition, and are not likely to be affected by the recent Bank suspensions in the neighboring Province of New Brunswick." The Reporter states, also, that Mr. Scovil ceased to act as an agent of the Bank of Nova Scotia a year ago.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

The address presented by the people of Chatham to Hon. Senator Mitchell was signed by over 800 of the inhabitants, including most of the prominent citizens.

The Post Office authorities have directed that the name of the Way Office in Sunbury now known as Taylor Town, shall, after Dec. 1st, be changed to "Upper Sheffield."

Saint Stephen's Bank notes are now worth 95 to 98 cents to the dollar. It is understood that the Bank will be in a position very shortly to resume specie payments. Commercial Bank money brings about 83 cents.

The Queen's Central Agricultural Society have purchased the Hon W. P. Flewelling's Durham yearling bull and heifer for $225.

St. Paul's (the Valley) church has been closed with appropriate services, and will be at once taken down preparatory to the erection of a new building on the same site.

Two barns, belonging to Mr. Joseph Scott, in Dumfries, York Co., were destroyed by fire on the 24th Nov., together with fifty tons of hay, 500 bushels of oats, and two horses, with waggons and farming implements. There was no insurance.

The course of Lectures in the Mechanics' Institute for the coming winter was opened on Monday by an address from His Honor Gov. Wilmot.

John Phillips, the colored boy, charged with attempting the life of John Bailey, has been sentenced to 12 years in the Penitentiary.

The case of Col. Goddard vs. the Fredericton Boom Co., tried at the St. John Circuit Court, was decided in favor of the plaintiff. The verdict was for $3,410.

The St. George's church matter was brought before the Circuit Court on Monday. Rev. Mr. Walker, claiming to be the Rector of Carleton Parish, and other persons claiming to be Wardens and Vestry of that Parish, have brought an action of trespass against the acting Wardens and Vestry.

MR. SCOVIL AGAIN.

The excitement caused by the notorious Scovil failure has continued unabated during the past week. Indeed the extraordinary events growing out of that affair have engrossed public attention to the exclusion of almost everything else, and intensified, if possible, the detestation in which Mr. Scovil's conduct is held by every one in the community. When we went to press on Wednesday morning, it was pretty generally believed that he would give some explanations of his failure, or perhaps make some arrangement with the committee appointed at the meeting of his creditors on Monday. In the course of Wednesday evening, however, it became rumored that he had found bail for all the writs out against him, representing claims to the amount of over $34,000, and would endeavor to escape from the Province. Fearing this, other creditors caused writs to be issued to the extent of $15,000, and placed them in the hands of the Sheriff, arousing him from his bed for the purpose. He immediately appointed several deputies and went in search of Scovil. After some delay, Crozier, one of the deputies, met Mr. Scovil in the street in company with the Rev. W. E. Scovil and Major Robinson. Crozier effected the arrest, and they all went to Mr. Scovil's house. The Sheriff soon afterwards appeared, and a long time was spent in discussing proposals for bail. At length Major Robinson went out, and on returning informed the Sheriff that Messrs. Geo. Snider and Beverley Robinson would act as bail. The deputy was then sent to the gaol for some bail bonds. What then took place we give in the Sheriff's own words at the examination of Robinson subsequently:—

"While the messenger was gone, Major Robinson left the house, but was away only a short time when he came back, and said that it was not worth while going down to Beverley Robinson's until the bonds were all ready. In a little while he (the Major) called Mr. Scovil out of the room, and they walked up and down the hall for some time, and then into the front parlor. They remained there some time, Mr. Scovil had on a pair of boots which "squeaked" a good deal, and as witness did not hear them "squeak" for some time, he went into the parlour. Mr. Scovil met him, saying, "Beg your pardon, I ought not be out of your sight," and came out into the hall again, and he and Major Robinson walked to and fro for some time. The Major kept opening the door and looking out, and wondering why that young man (Crozier) had not returned with the bonds. Scovil and Major Robinson met and stepped partly inside of the room. The Major again went to the door, which he opened. Mr. Scovil followed him closely, and the Major pushed him out, and closing the door shut himself and witness in the hall. Witness said, 'This is a pretty trick you have played, Major,' and the Major replied that everything was fair in warfare. Witness thinks the Major must have done something to the latch of the door as it took him a considerable time to open it. When at last he did get it open he found the outer door locked, and he had great trouble in kicking it open, which he finally did. The night was very dark when he got out, and he could see scarcely anything. At any rate he says he could not see Mr. Scovil. He then called "watch," and went down as far as the corner of Waterloo and Paddock streets, followed by Major Robinson. A policeman came along and witness told him what had happened, and then went up the street again where he met his deputy, Mr. Rankin, and Mr. Crozier. Witness afterwards went in search of Scovil. Met Major Robinson near Rothesay coming to town with a horse and waggon, and found Mr. Scovil in Kingston jail."

Scovil, it appears, had fled to Kingston, and, after hiding there a few hours, was discovered by the Deputy Sheriff of Kings, and lodged in gaol. One good result of the rescue by Major Robinson was that it enabled the creditors of Scovil to take proceedings under the Absconding Debtor's Act. All his effects have been seized by order of Judge Weldon, and will be used as far as possible in satisfaction of his liabilities.

Major Robinson, charged with aiding Scovil to escape from the Sheriff, &c., was arrested, and the case underwent a preliminary examination on Friday and Saturday. Messrs. Duff and Barker acted as his counsel, and moved for his discharge on various grounds. The Police Magistrate refused bail in the case; but it was afterwards allowed by Judge Weldon.

The Police Magistrate has sent this case to the Supreme Court, and admitted William B. Robinson to bail, himself in $2,000 and two sureties in $1,000 each. The Magistrate referred to the example set before those who had not received the advantages of education and influence by a person in the position of the defendant, and expressed his approval of the gentle means used by the Sheriff in the performance of his most painful duty. The position of the defendant, and the kindly actions of the Sheriff, should alike have forbade any such dishonorable act as that perpetrated by Major Robinson.

Beverley Robinson, Esq., and T. S. Wetmore, Esq., M. D., then came forward and entered into the required bonds for the appearance of Major Robinson at the present Assizes.

☞ Several articles intended for our present issue omitted for the want of room. "A Beginner" and "Re-union in Providence," will appear next week.

☞ The supply of Supplements on hand last week was not sufficient to enable us to send a copy to every paid up subscriber. We regret this disappointment, and will make up the deficiency as soon as possible.

Winter is now fairly upon us, and the teams are hastening to the lumber woods in various parts of the country. Our advice to every man who goes to the woods, be he captain, cook, teamster, or any other man, is to take along a good stock of "Johnson's Anodyne Liniment" and "Parson's Purgative Pills." Many months of labor (in the aggregate) may be saved by this precaution.

Bad enough to look and feel bad yourself; but no excuse for having your horse look and feel badly, when for a small sum you can buy "Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders," which given in grain two or three times a week, will make him look and feel well.

MARRIED.

At the Baptist Meeting House, Pennfield, on the 22nd of November, by Rev. Wm. L. Hopkins, Mr. Hugh A. McKenzie, of the Parish of St. George, to Miss Louisa E. Buckman, of the Parish of Pennfield, Charlotte County.

DIED,

In Portland, on the 23rd November, after a short illness, Gilbert G. Mabee, in the 63rd year of his age, leaving a widow and six children to mourn their loss.

At Little Beach, St. Martins, on the 24th of October, after an illness of one day, Frederick Gordon, son of George and Mary Fowles, aged 2 years and 5 months.

Thou sweet, earthly flower—
Dear pledge of God's love;
Now placed in the bower
With angels above.

At Musgerville, on the 17th inst., Mrs. Eliza Miles, aged 82 years, widow of the late Edward Miles, Esq., of that place. Sister Miles professed religion about twenty years ago, and was baptized by Rev. John Magee, and adorned her profession through all the changes of life, until she was called home to join the Church triumphant above. She leaves eight children and thirteen grandchildren, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. May the Lord sustain them under this bereavement. The Church has lost a good member, the children a kind mother, and the poor a good friend. The occasion was improved by the writer from xxxix Psalm, 4th verse.

"Her ransomed spirit soared
On wings of faith and love,
To meet the Saviour she adored

CORRESPONDENCE,
MARKET REPORTS,
TALES, SKETCHES,
AND OTHER READINGS, FOR THE FIRESIDE, &c.,

Of the MORNING JOURNAL, including Latest Despatches up to the hour of going to Press. The day of publication is not yet fixed, but the WEEKLY JOURNAL will probably be mailed on Tuesday afternoon, a time well adapted to catch the principal mails, North, East and West.

FREE FOR ONE MONTH!

To Subscribers who take the paper from the date of the issue of the first number, the WEEKLY JOURNAL will be sent until the 1st of January, 1870, for one year's subscription, thus giving them the paper one month free of charge.

The mechanical appearance of the paper will be satisfactory to subscribers, as a complete supply of NEW TYPE has reached Saint John for the new issue, which, in appearance and interest, will be second to none issued in the Province.

THE POSTAGE is only FIVE CENTS a quarter, and subscribers who wish to have their papers prepaid can do so by remitting $1.50.

TO AGENTS:—Any person sending us a Club of Ten Subscribers and $10—remittances should be by Post Office Order—will receive one copy of the WEEKLY JOURNAL for one year without charge; any person sending us Twenty Subscribers and $20 will receive the MORNING JOURNAL for one year without charge, or, if preferred, a copy of HARPER'S WEEKLY or HARPER'S MAGAZINE, both beautifully illustrated. Agents who prefer to canvass for a commission will please communicate with the proprietor as to terms, &c. DIRECTIONS—Be particular in giving the name of the Post Office or Way Office, and of the County.

☞ Send money by Post Office Order.
Address all letters to the subscriber,
