HI .W . milet . 18 . . GREAT BUITAIN. N. II. The new House of Commons met on Dec. 29., for preliminary business only. The Ministers who were re-elected took the oath of office. Writs were issued for elections to fill the vacant seats, after which the House adjourned until the 16th February. It is the general impression that the Conservatives will be successful in the election of members of Parhament to fill sacancies.

The English Independent calculates that in the new House of Commons there are 12 Independents, 5 Bagtists, 5 Quakers, 2 Wesleyau Methodists, 1 Calwinistic Methodist, 17 Unitarians, 10 Presbyterians (non-conforming Presbyterians are probably meant) of Jews, and 56 Roman Catholics, of whom one only.
