The following exquisitely touching poem first appeared in Hood's Magazine, London. The True Press speaks of it as a " rare production." "Nothing else in our language like it. Like Coleridge's 'Antient Marinere,' it stands alone. It is original-a master-piece of Art. Its pathos gushed up from its author's sensitive bosom as do the pure waters of a living spring. The paper on which it was originally written must have been blistered with tears, and many a susceptible reader, in response to the poet's emotions, must have wept over the picture which his magical fancy had drawn.

The Samily and the Sarm.

"The ground-work of the story is this : A young woman, whom nobody seemed to recognize, had committed suicide by jumping into the Thames from one of the London bridges; and the sight of her so impressed the late Thomas Hood, that he relieved the swellings of his sympathizing bosom by the wonderful poem of which we are speaking."

The Bridge of Sighs.

Drowned ! drowned !-HAMLET. One more Unfortunate, Weary of breath, Rashly importunate, Goes to her death !

Take her up tenderly, Lift her with care ; Fashion'd so slenderly, Young, and so fair ?

Look at her garments Clinging like cerements; Whilst the wave constantly Drips from her clothing; Take her up instantly. Loving, not loathing.

Touch her not scornfully ; Think of of her mournfully, Gently and humanly; Not of the stains of her All that remains of her Now is pure womanly.

Make no deep scrutiny Into her mutiny Rash and undutiful : Past all dishonor Death has left on her Only the beautiful.

Still, for all slips of hers. One of Eve's family-Wipe those poor lips of hers Oozing so clammily.

Loop up her tresses Escaped from the comb, Her fair auburn tresses; Whilst wonderment guesses Where was her home ?

Who was her father ? Who was her mother ? Had she a sister ? Had she a brother ? Or was there a dear one Yet, than all other ?

Alas! for the rarity Of Christian charity Under the sun ! Oh! it was pitiful! Near a whole city full, Home she had none.

Sisterly, brotherly, Fatherly, motherly, Feelings had changed ; fice so great that nothing but love to the cause of Christ and the souls of men would enable them to make and bear it. Treat them kindly and justly "for their work's sake," if from no other consideration.

Honor to whom Honor is Due.

As revolutions are the order of the day in all national affairs, we can see no reason why we may not have changes and improvements in the science of medicine with its treatment. It will be noticed that Dr. Hamilton, of New York, has been presenting in our columns, clear and strong iews in regard to a class of diseases which have baffled the skill of other physicians, but which he has studied with peculiar advantage. Having received a regular medical education, taught as Professor in a medical institution, and practised a quarter of a century, when he has treated nearly three hundred thousand cases, his investigations and opinions are worthy of peculiar attention and confidence. His testimonials are numerous from all parts of the world in regard to his astonishing cures in Liver, Lung, and kindred diseases. While there are false assumptions and all sorts of imposition by those aspiring to the title of doctor, yet there may be progress in medical discovery and attainment, and the best skill educed from reading, investigation, experiment and close observation. Dr. Hamilton's specifics derived from such a course of life for more than twenty years with his unequalled success entitle him to peculiar consideration. He has already relieved untold suffering and saved much valuable life, as those restored to health testify, and we are glad to see him widely advertized that others may consult him at once and receive the benefits of his skill before it is too late. - Communicated.

Love, by harsh evidence, Thrown from its eminence; Even God's providence Seeming estranged.

Where the lamps quiver So far in the river. With many a light From window and casement, From garret to basement, She stood, with amazement, Houseless by night.

The bleak wind of March Made her tremble and shiver; But not the dark arch, Or the black flowing river Mad from life's history, Glad to death's mystery. Swift to be harl'd-Any where, any where, Out of the world !

In she plunged boldly, No matter how coldly The rough river ran, --Over the brink of it, l'icture it-think of it, Dissolute Man ! Live in it, drink of it, Then, if you can !

Take her up tenderly, Lift her with care ; Fashion'd so slenderly, Young, and so fair !

Ere her limbs frigidly Stiffen too rigidly, Decently,-kindly,-Smooth, and compose them : And her eyes, close them, Staring so blindly !

Dreadfully staring Through muddy impurity, As when with the daring Last look of despairing Fixed on futurity.

Perishing gloomily, Spurned by contumely, Cold inhumanity, Burning insanity, Into her rest. -Cross her hands humbly, As if praying dumbly, Over her breast !

Owning her weakness, Her evil behaviour, And leaving, with meekness, Her sins to her Saviour !

Comparative Costs.

The clergy cost the United States $12,000,000 annually; the criminals, $40,000,000; the lawyers, $70,000,000; rum, $300,000,000! And yet the cry against the cost of religion never ceases to be heard in the laud. There is a perpetnal change rung on costly churches, costly ministers, and costly machinery to run the Christian Church. Did any man ever estimate what real estate would be worth in any city or community were the Protestant clergy to cease their work, and Protestant churches locked up even for a single year? It would be a nice piece of work for some financier whose incessant grumbling against the cost of Christianity rings upon the air from early morn till dewy eve. I think he would find it would not be worth twenty cents on the dollar! Looked at simply in a financial aspect, the Christian church and the Christian ministry cost the least in all outlays whose returns are so high in the per cents. Of all the public servants the clergy receive most churches locked up even for a single year? It Of all the public servants the clergy receive most meagre pay in consideration of the value of the services rendered. Their work costs the least of any which is worth so much. They are, as a class,

CAUTION ! CAUTION ! CAUTION ! THE Proprietor of PICKSTONE'S WASHING AND T CLEANSING CRYSTAL, deems it his duty to cau-tion the public against spurious imitations of his highly celebrated Washing Crystal, which is the most harmless compound extant. It is free from Lime, Vitriol, and all other deadly mixtures so common to be found amongst washing compounds. Try Pickstone's Washing, which washes every thing, and has rapid sale. It will be found invaluable for the following domestic purposes, viz.:-It washes all fine things, such as Muslin Lace, Crotchet Work, Baby Linen, &c.; cleaning Sponges, Combs, and Brushes; removing stains from the hands, and grease from Carpets, Cloth, Flanuel, &c. It makes H ard Water Soft, and may be used with good effect in Baths, as it immediately removes all condensed perspiration from the skin. A small quantity should also be used in the foot pan. If forms a cooling and cleansing wash for the head, or a pint of water ; and for cleansing the Mouth, Teeth, and Gums, it is quite a luxury, by adding a teaspoonful to a tumbler of water. It renders linen beautifully white, and unlike other preparations, at the same time preserves the fabric. It contains nothing injurious to life. A child eat-ing it by mistake, will not be injured. If you have not used this Cleansing Crystal, lose no time in obtaining it. Nothing has ever been introduced into this country which has effected such, a wonderful change upon Washing Days. It saves your time—saves your clothes—saves your mone; ; and it does not injure the most delicate hands. Pickstone's Cleansing Crystal makes washing a pleasure, reduces the cost of fuel, the wear and tear of labor, and improves severy article washed; for Laces, and fine fabrics, it is unequalled. It does not injure the color of Prints, but strengthens and improve them—by its use they retain their original brillianoy. Flan-mels become white and soft like new. White things are much improved, and keep their color, even if put by for moths. Th CAUTION! CAUTION! CAUTION!

Valuable Improvement,

F BOM this date (October, 1868), we shall introduce in several Styles of our Cabinet Organs a new and very beautiful invention, combining several recent patents. It will be known as and excels every other attachment of this class in the beauty of its effects, the perfect ease with which it is ope-rated, its durability and freedom from liability to get out of order.

1. In connection with the Automatic Swell, (exclusively used in the M. & H. Cabinet Organs,) it produces the near-est approach to the peculiarly sympathetic, rich and at-tractive quality of a fine human voice yet attained in any reed instrument.

- 2. It is operated by the ordinary action of the bellows of the in trument, and requires no separate pedal, being play-ed by the same motion, and as easily as an instrument

3. It has no clockwork or machinery, and is entirely free from liability to get out of order, and as durable as the instrument itself. Circulars and Catalogues with full descriptions and il ustrations free. E. E. KENNAY,

Sole Agent for New Brunswick for Mason & Hamlin's Cabinet Organs and Chickering & Sons Pianofortes. (October 22.)
