The Daughter's Lament.

BY B. R. C.

The dew of eve is falling,
The night shades hover round;
I hear a sweet voice calling,
I see a light beyond.

Oh! how I love to listen
To that endearing strain,
And see the fond eye glisten,
And catch the sweet refrain.

'Tis an angel's light that's shining,
Far from the love lit hills;
'Tis a mother's voice that's calling,
My heart with fondness thrills.

Yes, though she's far above me,
Where sorrows fall no more;
Yet, still I know she loves me
As in the days of yore.

Oh, how I long to greet her,
And clasp those loving hands;
Oh, could I fly to meet her,
Far in the sunny lands,

Where now afar she's shining,
And looking down on me;
Where sorrow nor repining
Sweeps o'er the glassy sea.

Oft times I wake from troubled sleep,
And upwards stretch my hands,
For her, but Oh! 'tis but to weep,
I feel but death's cold bands.

And these I've watched so long,
Till daylight gently broke,
And all the heavens were filled with song
And earth's glad joys awoke.

But Oh! no note of gladness
To check this falling tear;
'Tis but a wail of sadness
Bursts on my wearied ear.

No joyful song of birds for me,
No murmur of the rills,
Nor music of the heaving sea,
My heart with pleasure fills.

Not nature's voice at early dawn,
Nor whispering of the wind,
Nor flowers springing on the lawn,
Can soothe my troubled mind.

Naught but the light that sweetly beams
Far from the untrodden shore,
I see in fancy's proudest dreams,
Shall ever cheer me more.

Naught but the echoes of that love
Has music now for me,
Stealing so gently from above
As sunlight o'er the sea.

Where are the words no voice can speak,
And where the tender smile;
I look for and in vain I seek
My springtime to beguile.

Lo! all is silent, dark is life,
Storms gather round my brow;
Alone, I nerve me for the strife,
Look on me mother now.

Successful Farming.

The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher is said to be one of our most successful amateur farmers. His farm is kept in splendid condition, no expense being spared for fertilizers. His working force is ample and well paid, and yet from less than forty acres he has secured an annual profit of several thousand dollars. The following humorous account of his experiences, for which Mark Twain is responsible, must have been very amusing to Mr. Beecher:—

Mr. Beecher's farm consists of thirty-six acres, and is carried on on strict scientific principles. He never puts in any part of a crop without consulting his book. He plows, and reaps, and digs, and sows according to the best authorities,—and the authorities cost more than the other farming implements do. As soon as the library is complete the farm will begin to be a profitable investment. But book farming has its drawbacks. Upon one occasion, when it seemed morally certain that the hay ought to be cut, the hay book could not be found, and before it was found it was too late, and the hay all spoiled. Mr. Beecher raises some of the finest crops of wheat in the country, but the unfavorable difference between the cost of producing it and its market value after it is produced has interfered considerably with its success as a commercial enterprise. His special weakness is hogs however. He considers hogs the best game a farm produces. He buys the original pig for a dollar and a half, and feeds him forty dollars' worth of corn, and then sells him for about nine dollars. This is the only crop he ever makes any money on. He loses on the corn, but he makes seven dollars and a half on the hog. He does not mind this, because he never expects to make anything on corn, anyway. And any way it turns out, he has the excitement of raising the hog any how, whether he gets the worth of him or not. His strawberries would be a comfortable success if the robins would eat turnips, but they won't, and hence the difficulty. One of Mr. Beecher's most harassing difficulties in his farming operations comes of the close resemblance of different sorts of seeds and plants to each other. Two years ago, his foresightedness warned him that there was going to be a great scarcity of watermelons, and therefore he put in a crop of twenty-seven acres of that fruit. But when they came up they turned out to be pumpkins, and a dead loss was the consequence. Sometimes a portion of his crop goes into the ground the most promising sweet potatoes, and comes up carrots. When he bought his farm he found one egg in every hen's nest on the place. He said that was just the reason why so many farmers failed,—they scattered their forces too much,—concentration was the idea. So he gathered those eggs together and put them all under one experienced old hen. The hen roosted over that contract night and day for eleven weeks, under the anxious personal supervision of Mr. Beecher himself; but she could not "phase" those eggs. Why? Because they were those infamous porcelain things which are used by ingenious and fraudulent farmers as "nest eggs." But perhaps Mr. Beecher's most disastrous experience was the time he tried to raise an immense crop of dried apples. He planted fifteen hundred dollars' worth, but never a one of them sprouted. He has never been able to understand, to this day, what was the matter with those apples. Mr. Beecher's farm is not a triumph. It would be easier on him if he worked it on shares with some one; but he cannot find anybody who is willing to stand half the expense, and not many that are able. Still, persistence in any cause is bound to succeed. He was a very inferior farmer when he first begun, but a prolonged and unflinching assault upon his agricultural difficulties has had its effect at last, and he is now fast rising from affluence to poverty.

To Fill the Pews.—The minister who does not succeed in interesting people, and holding them together when they have once come, is, of course, responsible if his audience at last is only cushions and pew doors. But the work of getting hearers at first is his only in part. It is a duty which belongs especially to his parish. No man wishes to blow his own trumpet, or if he is a true minister blow the trumpet of the Lord, for the direct purpose of having it heard out of doors, and it requires a grace not taught in theological schools for him to say, even privately, to one and another of the people he meets during the week, come and hear me preach. It is just this very thing, however, that his parishioners are able to do, and by which it is in their power, quite as much as by getting an eloquent speaker, to fill up the church.

Half a dozen men in a society, taking such a duty upon them, would very soon remedy the disease of their congregations. One of our ministers was surprised, not long ago, at the large accessions he began to have to his Sunday evening meetings. Was it the extra quality of his sermons that caused it? Before he had time to get fairly settled in that comfortable belief, he was told the true reason. A wide awake parish committee had been chosen, who were on hand early every Sunday night; and when they found the church was not likely to be full, they scattered themselves up and down the street and at the corners where young men loaf, and notified, asked, urged, begged and compelled the people in. It was a very literal obedience to the lesson contained in the parable of the marriage of the king's son, but a very effective one. A thousand dollars' worth of pulpit eloquence additional could hardly have accomplished so much. Would it not be well for many of our parishes, with more pews than people, to try this plan of building themselves up by asking in, not a new minister, but a new congregation.—Liberal Christian.

CAUTION! CAUTION! CAUTION!
THE Proprietor of PICKSTONE'S WASHING AND CLEANSING CRYSTAL, deems it his duty to caution the public against spurious imitations of his highly celebrated Washing Crystal, which is the most harmless compound extant. It is free from Lime, Vitriol, and all other deadly mixtures so common to be found amongst washing compounds. Try Pickstone's Washing Crystal, if you want ease, comfort, and economy in washing, which washes every thing, and has rapid sale.
It will be found invaluable for the following domestic purposes, viz.:—It washes all fine things, such as Muslin Lace, Crotchet Work, Baby Linen, &c.; cleaning Sponges, Combs, and Brushes; removing stains from the hands, and grease from Carpets, Cloth, Flannel, &c. It makes Hard Water Soft, and may be used with good effect in Baths, as it immediately removes all condensed perspiration from the skin. A small quantity should also be used in the foot pan. It forms a cooling and cleansing wash for the head, by dissolving a teaspnonful of the Crystal in a quarter of a pint of water; and for cleansing the Mouth, Teeth, and Gums, it is quite a luxury, by adding a teaspoonful to a tumbler of water. It renders linen beautifully white, and unlike other preparations, at the same time preserves the fabric. It contains nothing injurious to life. A child eating it by mistake, will not be injured.
If you have not used this Cleansing Crystal, lose no time in obtaining it. Nothing has ever been introduced into this country which has effected such a wonderful change upon Washing Days. It saves your time—saves your clothes—saves your money; and it does not injure the most delicate hands. Pickstone's Cleansing Crystal makes washing a pleasure, reduces the cost of fuel, the wear and tear of labor, and improves every article washed. For Linens, and heavy washes, it cannot be surpassed; for Laces, and fine fabrics, it is unequalled. It does not injure the color of Prints, but strengthens and improve them—by its use they retain their original brilliancy. Flannels become white and soft like new. White things are much improved, and keep their color, even if put by for months. Thousands of Families made happy! No misery on a Washing Day, with Pickstone's Cleansing Crystal.
Sold by most respectable Grocers and Chemists, in Packets Three Cents Each, sufficient for 20 Gallons of water, or Twelve for Thirty Cents, also in Boxes containing 144 Packets, price Three Dollars each. ☞ Be sure to ask for Pickstone's Washing Crystal, as there are spurious imitations. Do not condemn it untried. Make one trial! Protected by Act of Parliament.

TESTIMONIALS.
The Waters' Pianos are known as among the very best. We are enabled to speak of these instruments with confidence, from personal knowledge.—N. Y. Evangelist.
We can speak of the merits of the Waters' Pianos from personal knowledge as being of the very best quality.—Christian Intelligencer.
Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' Store the very best assortment of Pianos, Melodeons and Organs to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine.
Musical Doings.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted all his capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming advertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook a modest manufacturer like Mr. Watters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and 'honors' connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianos now in our residence, where it has stood for years, of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the said piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal.
The Waters' Piano ranks with the best manufactured in America.—The Independent, N. Y.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.
The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.
Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.
Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.
