News from the Churches.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

W. M. Edwards writes:—

After writing my Report to the Board, a pleasing sight was presented; angels were seen coming up the road driv- span of horses, one dressed in homespun; he other in merino, with a full set of furs, ang truly angelic; they were on a special on to me, and brought me flour, meal, tea, &c., a donation from the Weaver Settle- ment the Lord enrich them for it, out of orious treasures of His Providence, and meetings during this quarter have been ed with an unction from the Holy One; ang our mental vision, softening our s, raising in us holy desires and comfort- hopes; disposing us to approach unto our with love, reverence, and humble child-like fence.

Scarcities have vanished like clouds before ing sun; and even afflictions have begot joy and satisfaction.

Christmas day New Salem Church was ried. The design was brought from go, Illinois. Much time was spent in ing these pretty trifles, but when finished, the Christmas tree in the centre, and shah's well on the right hand, the chinese ras with the mottoes "Union Forever," "Happy Christmas to all," and the wax- les of various colors, on the tree shining; the whole presented a vision of beauty to be remembered.

Annual union meeting with Blissfield st church, was opened at 7 o'clock, Dec. 1878, with a grand musical entertainment. Amey Archibald presiding at the organ. Choir of both churches took part in the art, the pieces of music were well selected, the programme good. Thus we were end- to give our friends and their children a amount of pleasure and enjoyment. proceeds of this meeting were one hundred fifteen dollars, and five cents.

and here we record our heartfelt gratitude to friends in St. John, Carleton, Fredericton, castle, Northesk, and Blackville, for their ents to our Christmas tree.

the object of the meeting was to purchase one etty's Organs, for New Salem church. We for one, it has two full sets of reeds; 9 stops tremolo, five octaves; with improved knee ll, and walnut case; it is a good instrument the church is well satisfied.

New Year's Day we held a Bazaar, pro- fess fifteen dollars, which was presented to Mrs. Wm. M. Edwards, to help purchase a cooking stove. A new fur cap, price $5.50, presented to the pastor by the ladies of shield church.

Then Christ maketh up His jewels may these friends find a place in his casket of gems.

Rev. W. P. Anderson has resigned the charge the church, at North Esk, Miramichi, and be engaged as supply, or by a church in at of a pastor. His present address is Folly e, N. S.

RUSSELLS STREET.—The ladies of this church hold a Tea Soiree on Thursday evening, ch 20th, in the vestry of the Brussels Street ch.

The Pastor of the Brussels Street church, bap- tized two persons Sabbath evening, one was the of the former pastor of the church Rev. mel Robinson.

MINSTER STREET.—Rev. S. March preached Sabbath, and we learn that the church has ded a call to the pastorate to Bro. E. W. lly of Newton Theological Seminary.

The New Jerusalem church has been favor- ed a visit from Israel Elsworth. He has held eral meetings, endeavoring to stir up the nds of church members by way of remem- and, and in "Christ's stand beseech sinners be reconciled to God." The meetings have en quite interesting and fairly attended, con- cerning the roads and weather. Rev. G. Spring- was present at one meeting and gave a short ctical address on Christian work.

CLERK.

FREDERICTON.—A quiet work of grace is pro- ceeding in this church. Last Sabbath the pas- tor baptized two persons. Mr. Baker and his e of Fairfield. Mr. Baker is our good brother ndolph's partner in the Steam Mills, and we oice with him and our new brother that they e now partners in the Lord. On the previous bth Bro. Stevens baptized one. Our cor- pondent adds: "he is the right man in the ht place."

NOVA SCOTIA.

Rev. A. H. Lavers of Arcadia, has added the egov. or South Yarmouth church to his y, and lately has been the recipient of a ndsome donation with more to follow.

UPPER PROVINCES.

BRANTFORD.—Rev. E. C. Hammond the Evan- gelist has been holding Union services, and we are informed through the secular press, and the Baptist pastor Rev. W. H. Porter, that they have been attended with a wondrous blessing. We hope when the season for gathering into the churches arrives, there will be no improper manœuvring; but that all will be urged to consult the New Testament in relation to what they ought to do, and be left without improper in- fluences to do it. Too often there is friction after Union services, but it ought not to be.

Literary Notes.

FORDS' CHRISTIAN REPOSITORY for the por- tion of the present year past is received. Its editors are Dr. S. H. Ford, well known and honored in the West, and Mrs. Ford the author of Grace Truman, Evangel Wiseman, and other books of deserved merit and reputation. Some of the best writers in the denomination are con- tributors to its pages. Ministers will find in it articles stimulating to thought, and for the family there is interesting matter adapted to all ages. It has reached its 27th volume, and grows better with age. It may be ordered through the VISITOR BOOK ROOM, price $2.65 per annum.

THE PRINCETON REVIEW maintains its ac- knowledged importance in the Literary and Theological world. It issues six numbers a year, of some 240 pages each. Eminent writers in the old and new world enrich its pages. The number before us contains an article of merit by President Killen of Belfast, Ireland, on "The conscience as a witness for Christ," another on "Moral Government" by Dr. Crocker of Michi- gan, well repays reading. And yet another in which ministers feel an especial interest "On the pulpit and sceptical culture," by Dr. Robin- son of Louisville. His conclusion is "The gos- pel preacher should maintain the dignity of the science which he represents, and resent the ar- rogance of any science that would ignore this highest of all sciences. He should not ignore, but keep abreast with, the advanced science and learning of his age, and be able to warn the people against imposture; yet speaking officially in the name of Christ from the pulpit he should, like the apostle, know nothing among his flock, save Jesus Christ and Him crucified, feeling as- sured that the truths there set forth, will make themselves manifest as the power of God, and the wisdom of God against all forms of unbelief. The church of God relies not upon the pulpit for the discussion of questions of science and philosophy with unbelievers. For she has not lacked in time past nor at this day faithful sons filling other positions able to contend earnestly for the faith once delivered unto the saints.

Six other articles on important topics are dis- cussed. The Review is not solely confined to Theological discussions. The well informed business man will find in it much that will enable him to take a wider and juster view of commercial and political questions. The VISITOR BOOK ROOM will supply it for the regular price $2.00 per year.

THE BIBLE LESSON QUARTERLY for Sunday- School scholars, published by the American Baptist Publication Society, Philadelphia, Sec- ond Quarter, contains, in addition to the reg- ular lessons—embracing Title, Chronology, Text of Lesson, Outline, Golden Text, Daily Readings, Explanations, Questions and Review Plan—a Dictionary of the Persons and places in the Lessons; Practical Hints; choice and beautiful music; and a special Missionary Les- sons for those who may prefer it to the regular Review, etc. This new Quarterly, for the first Quarter, we are told, had a circulation of 40, 000 copies in less than one month. Price, single copy, 5 cents; five copies and over 3, cents.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. Geo. E. Tufts, after many months of se- vere suffering fell asleep in Jesus, Tuesday morning, March 4th, 1879. She was the daughter of Rev. Mr. Davis, a worthy Methodist min- ister now entered into rest. She was a woman of estimable Christian life, unassuming, loving, and devoted in the home relationship—a true helpmeet to our brother in the ministry. Her protracted illness was borne with faith in Christ and joy in the Holy Ghost. Her memory will be fragrant in many Christian hearts who wait the coming of the Lord, and the unbroken fel- lowship of the better world.

Sitka is not much of a city, but it is in Alaska, and Alaska is United States terri- tory. The Indians in the vicinity have been on the rampage in consequence of the neglect of the government to maintain a garrison at that post. Sitkians being frightened out of their senses appealed to the authorities at Victoria for protection, and H. M. S. Osprea has gone up the coast to anchor at Sitka harbor until a U. S. ship appears. Moral.—Reduce the army to 10,000 men and the navy in proportion. England will act as policeman.—Christian Union.

Testimonial from Capt. Joshua Harper.

SACKVILLE, N. B., Feb. 13th, 1877.
J. H. ROBINSON, Esq., St. John, N. B.
Dear Sir,—Early in October last I took a severe cold which settled on my lungs. After having a bad cough for about six weeks, I had a severe attack of bleeding from the lungs, while on a voyage from Queenstown to Dover. I had daily spells of bleeding for some days, until I lost about two gallons of blood, and was so weak as to be scarcely able to stand. I put back to Queenstown, where I received such medical as- sistance as enabled me to get home. I saw an advertisement of your Phosphorized Cod Liver Oil Emulsion in a paper. I immediately sent and got a half dozen bottles, after taking which I feel myself a well man again. My weight, which was reduced to 120 pounds is now up to my usual standard of 152 pounds. Seeing what it has done for me, I can confidently recommend it to others afflicted with lung disease.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) JOSHUA HARPER, of the barque "Mary Lowerson."

INTELLIGENCE OFFICE, 102 PRINCESS ST., SAINT JOHN, N. B., JULY 29TH, 1878.

Messrs. HANINGTON BROTHERS: Gentlemen.—Three years ago I was going to write you how much benefit I received from taking two bottles of your QUININE WINE AND IRON, being then very weak and low, with no appetite for any sort of food, after severe attack of Erysipelas in my head. Again, after the fire, I was nearly quite gone, and was restored to strength and activity by taking two bottles more, and last May I had to have recourse to the QUININE WINE AND IRON again with the same beneficial results.

While I was taking it at last, a person came in who had left her situation to get into the Hospital, being so weak she could not work. I said, I will send you to a place where you will get seven dollars a month; you take two bottles of HANINGTON'S QUININE WINE AND IRON with you, and if you are not able to earn the seven dollars I will pay you for the medicine. At the end of the month she was quite smart, and is still filling the situation. I send you these few lines for the benefit of society (if you trouble to publish it), as there are so many sick at present. It would greatly benefit persons after Sickness or Diphtheria, and would most certainly prevent sickness by strengthening and building up the system.

Yours very truly, JANE A. LEE.
