

now as of yore. The successful competitor in the race for fame, is a marked man in more senses than one. It would be an extraordinary thing for a man who had reached the goal of his ambition to wear his honors in undisturbed repose. His claims to distinction as well as the methods by which he has attained it, will be put to the test, though not always with equal fairness and severity. In such a trial a defeated aspirant is not always an impartial judge, especially when the object of his own ambition is trembling in the balance. A righteous verdict will scarcely be looked for where envy wears the judicial ermine, little prejudices sit in the jury box, and petty jealousies are put upon the witness stand. Without assuming that this is true in reference to the trial which Mr. Talmage is now undergoing before the Brooklyn Presbytery, on the charge of fraud and falsehood, it is undoubtedly true of the far more unjust and unfair trial to which he is being subjected by a large portion of the press, both religious and secular. When a man is down or falling it seems quite in order for every sly rogue to deal him a kick. "Hit him again, he's got no friends," is the rallying cry of his assailants, who, regarding him as a shining mark, let fly the arrows of spiteful envy and cowardly innuendo. The country is afflicted with an ever-increasing swarm of irresponsible scribblers, whose chance of subsistence depends upon the recurrence of popular sensations, and whose only claim to the notice they covet, is their ability to use the pinion of one goose to spread the opinions of another. A fresh scandal is to them like an epidemic to a physician, with this difference, that the latter strives by humane efforts to diminish, the former by malicious attempts to increase the misfortunes of others. If a minister's reputation happens to be involved, these greedy scandal-mongers are in ecstasies. They will hunt up every current rumor, and magnify each petty fault, into the gravest offence. They will scent the minutest atom of suspicion that gossip may have thrown upon his character, with the keen instinct of a bloodhound upon the track of his prey. If he escapes unhurt from their venomous teeth, it will be scarcely less a miracle than that which delivered Daniel from the lion's den.

No doubt Dr. Talmage has his faults in common with other mortals. He is naturally eccentric, and in some things perhaps not always discreet. But these are to him like the smoke and the noise to the engine. He can neither get rid of them nor get along without them. In spite of his angles and oddities he has many admirable qualities of mind and heart. He is a man of noble and generous impulses, of rare energy and moral courage. He has positive convictions and is not afraid to express them, and in doing so rises above the inane nambypambyism by which so many churches are emptied and religious activities dwindle to a meaningless form. Talmage is a hard man to kill. He may be cast down but he is not destroyed. He is under trial but he will come forth as gold.

H. M. Board.

The monthly meeting held on Monday evening last, was well attended. Reports of labor were received from Messrs. Munro, Gammon, and Eaton, of work performed on their respective fields. Bro. Munro is desirous of including North Elk in his field of labor. The proposition is being considered by a special Committee.

A communication was received from Rev. I. Wallace signifying his acceptance of the agency on behalf of the Board. He regretted his inability to be present at the meeting of the Board, but expects to enter upon his agency shortly after the 10th inst. The Board adjourned to meet at the call of the Committee on Ways and Means, who will probably summon a meeting to convene on the arrival of Bro. Wallace.

The Treasury has as yet received but feeble responses to the appeal for funds, in the meantime our beloved missionaries are suffering for the lack of their salaries.

News from the Churches.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

CARLETON.—We spent Sabbath evening with Rev. Mr. Hickson, and preached for him to a large audience. Our brother has been holding meetings every night for some time and a quiet work of grace is progressing. He baptized two, Sabbath afternoon, and welcomed them to the fellowship of the Church in the evening. He continues the extra meetings this week, and will have some assistance from Rev. A. J. Wilcox.

BRUSSEL ST.—Rev. A. J. Wilcox recently delivered an excellent lecture, on President Lincoln and his Times," in the lecture room of the Church and for its benefit.

DEMOISELLE CREEK, A. C.—Rev. S. C. Moore is holding special meetings and baptized 5 converts on a recent Sabbath.

HARVEY.—Rev. Mr. Blackadar is reaping a rich harvest; 47 persons were baptized Sabbath before last.

SALISBURY.—Yesterday it was my privilege to baptize 6 happy believers and receive them into the fellowship of the Church here. We are holding meetings every day, and the interest is deepening and I trust that many more will follow the Lord in obedience to his commands. E. H. HOWE.

LEINSTER ST.—Rev. Geo. E. Tufts, A. B. has been supplying the pulpit of this church for a few Sabbaths. His sermons have been very sound and thoughtful, and he now leaves for a short visit to N. S. before returning to the U. S. We wish that some of our churches who need pastors might lay hands on him, and others of our promising young men, who too often glide across the border and remain.

MONCTON.—Seventeen candidates were baptized last Sabbath, and others are received for the ordinance. The work is deep and progressive. Six have been received by letter during the week "Yet there is more."

Bro. Todd gave the hand of fellowship last Sabbath evening to 42 persons. The meetings are continued.

GREENWICH.—Rev. G. W. Springer reports a gracious work here; 21 persons have been baptized, and the meetings are still progressing with deep interest. Bro. Hugh Brown has been rendering valuable assistance.

NOVA SCOTIA.

The Recorder gives the following from a letter of the pastor of the Tabernacle church Halifax: "Last Sabbath was a rough and stormy day, but the few found shelter beneath the Tabernacle's roof. In the evening Captain Dutton of the Sardinian conducted the service, after the baptism of six candidates by the Pastor, and it was good to listen to his earnest and practical exposition of the gospel of Grace and Truth. Respecting obedience and baptism, he said 'People often say, cannot I be saved without?' My reply is, it is mean thus to talk, if you are a Christian. Consider the Master, who for righteousness sake was obedient unto death even the death of the Cross. Afterward speaking of the gospel duty, he said, 'It is a puzzle to me now how I could read my Bible for so many years and not see the believer's privilege in thus being buried with Christ in Baptism according with the command and example of Jesus.'"

DARTMOUTH.—The Rev. John Clark closed his labors with the Dartmouth Baptist Church on Sunday last. We regret that it has not been announced sooner that such was his intention as we believe there are several churches in the Province desiring a pastor who would have corresponded with him in reference to an engagement. Mr. C. has secured a high standing in our body which renders it unnecessary for us to offer a word further.—C. Messenger

UPPER PROVINCES.

TORONTO.—On a recent Sabbath 6 persons were baptized in College St. Church.

In Jarvis St. Church, Dr. Castle baptized 4 persons in the presence of an audience of 1400.

In Parliament St. Church 6 persons were baptized.

In Kingston, St. Thomas and Beamsville their pastors have been visiting the baptismal waters.

At Brockville and Montreal our brethren have just dedicated a new church edifice. Dr. Castle preached the dedication sermon for the former, and Rev. Mr. McArthur of New York for the latter. The latter edifice will seat 750 persons on the floor, and a gallery to accommodate 350 more can be put in when needed. The building is octagonal in form, and is the one from which our Charlotteville brethren have largely copied. The entire cost, including land, is about $50,000.

ELSEWHERE.

The Hackensack Baptist Church, under the pastoral care of Rev. D. McGlymont, has for the past few weeks enjoyed a deep but quiet work of grace, which has resulted, so far in the reception of seven candidates, with others waiting.

Mr. Daniel F. E. Herriek, son of Rev. J. S. Herriek of Troy N. H., was ordained pastor of the church which his father has served for years, on the 18th ult. The father made the ordaining prayer and Dr. Eaton of Keene preached the sermon from "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." Our correspondent adds: "What honor is due the church that in accepting the resignation of their pastor, whom they had held dear for many years they looked not for a stranger to fill his place! and how true must the lives of the pastor and son have been to enable them to fully unite in the call!"

Rev. G. D. Cox, late pastor of the Baptist Church at Bear River N. S., after a lingering sickness has passed away to his reward. He was a most earnest and effective preacher, loyal to the doctrines of the cross, and a pastor of worthy record. We hope to present a suitable memorial notice of this brother in another issue.

In Memoriam.

With deep regret we chronicle the death of our old friend, Mr. Jacob Barnes, senior member of the firm of Barnes & Co., printers and publishers.

Mr. Barnes died on Sunday last, after a brief illness, having attained the age of 65 years.

Mr. Barnes for many years superintended the printing and publishing of the Visitor, and performed his work conscientiously and well. Although he was not directly identified with our denomination, he always seemed to be deeply interested in its affairs and rejoiced in its prosperity.

Indeed he seemed to be more conversant with its statistics and with the operations of our various benevolent and educational societies than are many of our ministers and leading laymen. He was a man of good literary taste, of correct judgment in business matters, a devout Christian, evangelical in sentiment, and capable of giving a reason of the hope within him. His ecclesiastical relations were with the denomination called "Christians," and he had been for many years an Elder in that body.

His wife preceded him but a few months in the passage to the eternal world.

Literary Notes.

THE BAPTIST REVIEW, No. 1, by Rev. Dr. Baumes, Cincinnati, is announced. It contains articles by Doctors Hovey, Winkler, Samson, King, Lasher, Harvey and Revs. H. S. Burrage and J. Lowry. It may be ordered through the Visitor Book Room. Price $2.50 per year, in advance.

THE TEMPERANCE QUESTION, PRO AND CON, by Ishmael, published by R. A. H. Morrow, St. John, is written in a style that will probably commend it to the majority of readers for whose benefit it is more especially designed. As the title indicates the two sides of the Temperance question are set forth, but with considerable more Prothan Con. This is not surprising, for the arguments of the opponents of the Temperance reform are few and weak. A mass of facts in relation to the Temperance question have been collated, not only those of a Provincial, but of a general character, and the promulgation of them in a cheap volume will do good. The chapter entitled the Bible theory maintains that the wines of the Scriptures are of two kinds, intoxicating and un-intoxicating, the one a blessing and the other a curse. This is the position of the eminent Biblical critic Moses Stuart. He says: My final conclusion is, viz., that when the Scriptures speak of wine as a comfort, a blessing or a libation to God, and rank it with such articles as cummin and oil, they mean, they can mean only such wine as contained no alcohol that could have a mischievous tendency; that whenever they denounce it and connect it with drunkenness and revelry, they can mean only alcoholic or intoxicating wine. We believe that the moderate use theory of interpretation of Scripture fails, and that abstinence from what is fraught with mischief is inculcated. The spirit and teaching of the book is good. Its faults of style, illustration and arguments dwindle into insignificance beside its point of merit, and the good influence its circulation cannot out effect.

No man in his senses should buy worthless horse and cattle powder, simply because it is put up in large packs. Shortly after the war, the Government put up in small packs, and are absolutely pure and are immensely valuable.

Deaths.

SHAFNER.—Our esteemed brother H. B. Shaffner, who ministers to the Springfield, Norton, and Hampton Baptist Churches, is again called to pass through deep waters, in the death of his beloved wife Emma Jane Shaffner, who departed this life on Wednesday night, April 2nd, at the house of Deacon Abram B. Hayes of Central Norton. Mrs. Shaffner was born in Granville, N. S., and lived in that Province until last fall, when the family moved to Norton. She was one of the most devoted and useful women of her age, and a great trial to her Brother and Sister Shaffner. In the summer it was their painful experience to lose four of their dear children within four weeks, by diphtheria. This weighed heavily upon the mind of our sister who was herself weak and failing in health. She bore it with Christian fortitude. She has been confined to her bed, most of the winter, but has had an unshaken faith in God. Mrs. Shaffner was in the 43rd year of her age, beloved by all who made her acquaintance. Her death was a peaceful falling asleep in Jesus. She has left a sorrowful husband and two children to mourn their loss. The remains were borne to North River, N. S., on the 6th inst. May God sustain our brother and his motherless children. W. A. COREY.

ESTABROOKS.—Mrs. William Estabrooks of Burton, died of acute rheumatism on the 26th inst. in the 67th year of her age. Sister Estabrooks possessed religion some years ago, and from that time until the day of her death, she adorned her profession with a well ordered life and godly conversation. Her home was always a home for the servants of God. She leaves four daughters, three sons and twenty six grandchildren, with a large number of relatives and friends to mourn her sad departure. Her remains were interred in the Upper Gagetown burying ground on Sunday, the 2nd inst. Rev. G. W. Springer preached an appropriate sermon on the occasion.

JONES.—At Kars, K. C., on the 13th inst., of diphtheria, Marinda Jones beloved wife of Abner Jones, and only daughter of Deacon G. C. Dykeman, of Jemseg, 7 weeks before death she and Abner were united in marriage, and lived happily and contentedly until her death. But God had otherwise designed and has taken her to the eternal rest. She became a member of the Jemseg Baptist Church, when very young, and honored her profession until death. She leaves a heart-stricken husband, an affectionate father and mother, five brothers, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

BRANSCOMB.—At the Range, Grand Lake, at the residence of her mother, March 21st, of lingering consumption, Bessie, daughter of the late William and Harriet Branscomb, aged 20 years and 9 months. Bessie during all her sickness, was never heard to murmur, and as she approached the end of life's journey, her faith and hope in the Savior of sinners was firm and unshaken. She selected the text for her funeral, Philippians 1:23, which was improved by Rev. W. A. Troop, to a large and solemn audience. She leaves a mother, sister, and three brothers, and many relatives to mourn.

ROBINSON.—At New Castle, Grand Lake, Feb. 14th, Jane, widow of the late James Robinson, aged 71 years. Our sister professed religion, was baptized and joined the church in this place many years ago. She remained a true member until death gave release. She leaves five sons and three daughters, with a large connection to mourn her absence. Her funeral sermon was improved by Rev. W. A. Troop, to a very large audience.

DYKEMAN.—At Jemseg, Feb. 13th, of diphtheria, Cordelia B. Dykeman, daughter of Charles B. Dykeman and eldest daughter of N. B. Cottle, Esq., aged 23 years. She was baptized and joined the church when 13 years old, and continued to adorn her profession to the end of life. Her memory is very dear to her friends. Her only child Arthur W. died of the same disease, Feb. 6th, aged 15 months.

MCDONALD.—At New Canaan, on the 2nd inst., Hannah, beloved daughter of Deacon Allen McDonald, aged 38 years. She professed religion some years ago, and united with the New Canaan Church, of which she lived a consistent member until the day of her death. Her end was peace. Her funeral was attended by a large concourse of people. The occasion was improved by Rev. W. T. Corey, from Psalm xxxix:4.

MERRITHW.—At South Richmond, March 14th, Rebecca, widow of the late Joseph Merrithew, aged 67 years. Our sister in youth professed faith in Christ, and died with a bright prospect of future glory. (Intelligence please copy.)

JOHNSON.—At Salisbury, W. C., March 23rd, Harrietta B. Johnson, beloved wife of Thos. E. Johnson, and daughter of the late Asa Ferris, Salisbury, aged 44 years and five months. She was baptized by the Rev. J. E. K. Richardson in 1874, and united with the First Baptist Church of Salisbury. She leaves husband and five sons, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Her end was peace. (Boston papers please copy.)

INTELLIGENCE OFFICE, 102 PRINCE STREET, SAINT JOHN, N. B., JULY 29TH, 1878.

MESSRS. HANINGTON BROTHERS: GENTLEMEN:—I was going to write you how much benefit I received from taking two bottles of your QUININE WINE AND IRON, being then very weak and low, with no appetite for any sort of food, after severe attack of dyspepsia in my head. Again, I was nearly quite gone, and was restored to strength and activity by taking two bottles more, and last May I had to have recourse to the QUININE WINE AND IRON again, with the same beneficial results. While I was taking it at last, a person came in who had left her situation to get into the Hospital, being so weak she could not work. I said, I will send you to a place where you will get seven dollars a month, take two bottles of HANINGTON'S QUININE WINE

AND IRON with you, and if you are not able to earn the seven dollars I will pay you for the medicine. At the end of the month she was quite smart, and is still filling the situation. I send you these few lines for the benefit of society (if you trouble to publish it), as there are so many sick at present. It would greatly benefit persons after St. John's or Diphtheria, and would most certainly prevent sickness by strengthening and building up the system.

Yours very truly, JANE A. LEE.

SACKVILLE, N. B., Feb. 13th, 1877.
J. H. ROBINSON, Esq., St. John, N. B.
Dear Sir:—Early in October last I took a severe cold which settled on my lungs. After having a bad cough for about six weeks, I had a severe attack of bleeding from the lungs, while on a voyage from Queenstown to Dover. I had daily spells of bleeding for some days, until I lost about two gallons of blood, and was so weak as to be scarcely able to stand. I put back to Queenstown, where I received such medical assistance as enabled me to get home. I saw an advertisement of your Phosphorized Cod Liver Oil Emulsion in a paper. I immediately sent and got a half dozen bottles, after taking which I feel myself a well man again. My weight, which was reduced to 120 pounds, is now up to my usual standard of 155 pounds. Seeing what it has done for me, I can confidently recommend it to others afflicted with lung disease.

Yours very truly, JOSHUA HARPER.

(Signed) Mary Lowerson.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth, and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray. It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brassy, weak, or sticky hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color and always surely restore its color, when faded or gray. It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty.
