

Temperance.

Reason for the man who drinks; Reason for the drunkard maker; Reason for the statute breaker.

Church Member Conscience.

There was a time when the affirmative, but in no engaged community of to-day, can be said by a member of the Church...

World is sick and yet not unto death.

It is for a day of health in store. It is for love there comes the healing breath of Him who all its sickness bids it rise to strength and beauty...

These shadows, weary shadows of the world shall pass away.

These shadows, weary shadows of the world shall pass away. I shall no more be heard in...

Farm and Household.

AIRING THE BEDS.—It must be a false idea of neatness which demands that beds should be made soon after being vacated. Let it be remembered that more than three-fifths of the solids and liquids taken into the stomach...

Vulgar Language.—A distinguished author says: "I resolved when I was a child never to use a word which I could not pronounce before my mother without offending her."

His rule and example are worth of imitation. Boys readily learn a class of low, vulgar words and expressions that are never heard in respectable circles. The utmost care on the part of the parents will scarcely prevent it.

Extracts from a Letter from C. H. S. Cronkrite, Esq.

Dear Sir: In reply to your letter of enquiry, I would say that your Phosphoric Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Lacto-Phosphate of Lime is the best preparation of the kind I have ever seen or taken.

Prepared solely by Hamilton Bros. Pharmacal Co., N. B.

The Common Expectorant, "I do not use it for anything," which was often heard during the Spring and early Summer months...
