

into the church on Sunday, by the Rev. Mr. DeBlois. Two of these were members of the Academy.

It is to be regretted that Mr. Walter Bares has retired from the editorial chair of The Star. He made it a very readable and interesting paper. He sold out to Mr. Steele, who will continue the publication of The Star as heretofore.

We ought to feel under obligation to THE VISITOR for its firm stand on the University question. We need to be outspoken now, and insist upon receiving a fair share of the public funds.

Yours,
Feb. 7, 1881. HORTON.

Church News.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

BRUSSEL ST.—Four were received into the fellowship of the Church Sunday evening, one by baptism, two by letter, and one restored.

GERMAIN ST.—Rev. Mr. Weeks, a student of Newton Theological Seminary, preached last Sabbath for the Church. He is a young man who has lately united with our denomination, and the brethren speak highly of his pulpit ability. As the term of Bro. Carey's pastorate soon expires we trust that his place may be speedily and well supplied.

LEINSTER ST.—Five persons were received into the fellowship of the Church last Sabbath, two from the Sunday School by baptism, and three by letter.

WILLOW GROVE.—The Sunday School in connection with the Church here intend giving a concert on Wednesday evening the 9th inst. Admission free. A collection in aid of the School will be taken.

ELGIN.—Dear Editor:—I wish to acknowledge the receipt of a donation from the Elgin Baptist Church and congregation, Jan. 26, the evening of their Church social, which was an enjoyable time, amounting to $53.50. This is the fifth visit of the kind during my seven years pastorate with this kind people. May the bond of love and fellowship be strengthened with the years of united work in the Master's cause, and God's rich blessing rest upon the donors.

E. C. COREY.

LUTES MOUNTAIN, W. Co.—The members and friends of my Church and congregation met at the parsonage on the 19th ult., and left the handsome sum of $89 in cash and articles of value. $28 of that amount was raised to procure a watch. Deacon Isa. Trites, being chairman, presented me with the purse accompanied with a speech. After the reply, Rev. John Gammon addressed the meeting, commending the brethren and friends for their generosity to their pastor in providing for his wants. Others spoke encouraging words for the pastor.

E. H. HOWE.

ROCKLAND.—A few weeks ago I commenced special meetings, assisted by my brother, William A. Hayward, at Windsor. God has blessed our efforts. A number have professed religion. God's people have been revived and backsliders reclaimed. It was our privilege to baptize 9 converts on the 23d ult. and 3 more on the 30th. Others are seeking religion. We have been cheered and strengthened by a timely visit from Rev. J. W. S. Young.

We also wish to acknowledge a donation from the Little Church at Knowlesville and Glassville of $20. A. H. HAYWARD.

WOODSTOCK.—The Tabernacle Baptist Sunday School had a good time at their festival last Thursday evening, in the Orange Hall. A large number of children, parents and friends were present to partake of the festivities of the occasion. Rev. Geo. Seely, pastor of the Church and Superintendent of the Sabbath School, opened the service with appropriate exercises. The singing by the children's choir was very good, Miss Annie Fisher presiding at the organ. Several recitations by the boys and girls, an address by the Superintendent, then came the refreshments, which were abundant and varied, satisfying the desires of all present. The school is well furnished with books and periodicals, and is large and prosperous and no doubt doing a good work in the town.

The finishing touches are being rapidly given to the fine new Tabernacle Church, and it is now anticipated that the building will be dedicated this month.

The friends of the Tabernacle Baptist Church intend holding their tea meeting on or about the 15th inst.

Rev. Mr. Ballentine administered the rite of baptism to a candidate in the river here on Sabbath.—Sentinel.

SMITHTOWN.—Allow me to acknowledge a New Years present, from my friends in Smithtown and French village. On New Years night they met at Dea. John Carson's and after spending a very pleasant evening presented to me presents of different kinds amounting to about $17. We tender our thanks, not simply for the value of the gifts, but for the token of love and respect shown.

The good sisters here have recently organized a branch of W. M. A. S. under somewhat favorable circumstances. We see no reason why it should not do a good work. There is stirring material in the ladies of this place, and what they undertake is not liable to fail. There may be some adverse winds, but we think the patience, energy and faithfulness of the sisters will soon bring a calm or change the wind in their favor.

S. W. KIRKPATRICK

NOVA SCOTIA.

PEREAUX.—Rev. Isa. Wallace baptized 5 persons on Sunday, 30th ult., all of whom are heads of families.

ACADIA MINES.—Our meeting house at this place was opened for the worship of God yesterday morning. Rev. C. H. Martell occupied the pulpit at 11 A. M., (after the opening prayer by Dr. Clay), text 1 Cor. 3:10. After the sermon, addresses were delivered by Rev. Mr. Mart, (Methodist), Rev. Mr. Logan, (Presbyterian), and Dr. Clay. At 3.30 P. M., Rev. M. P. Freeman preached from Luke 12:32, addresses by Rev. C. H. Martell, Rev. P. R. Layton and Dr. Clay. At 7 P. M., Dr. Clay called our attention to Isa. 66:1-2; remarks by M. Freeman and others. The congregations were large, the attention good, and the occasion one of deep interest to our people. In less than four months this House has been built. Size 45 feet by 30, 10 feet posts with ashed ceiling. End gallery, seats free. Cost $1200.00, debt $300.00. Many thanks to friends who have assisted us in this work for God. Yours in hope of eternal life. GEO. F. MILES

P. S. The singing by friends who volunteered their services was excellent.

LITERARY NOTES.

Rev. Dr. J. M. Gregory commences in the February number of The National Sunday School Teacher, his series of helpful articles to Sunday-school teachers. The first article is entitled "How to Teach a Sunday School Class." Dr. Gregory's reputation as an educator is such that no earnest worker in the Sunday-school will want to miss the hints that he is so capable of giving. The Exposition for the lessons are full, complete, satisfactory. As a prominent Sunday-school man says: "In the analysis of the lessons, class outlines, Bible reading, lesson, notes and comments, will always be found the real strength and value of The National Sunday School Teacher. A specimen copy, which the publisher will send free, will show why we endorse it. Chicago: Adams, Blackner, & Lyonn Publishing Co., 147 and 149 Fifth Ave.

The Original Chatterbox, published by Estes & Lauriat, Boston, edited by J. Clarke Eiskin, M. A., is a beautifully illustrated, and the reading matter is interesting and elevating. Our Little Ones, by the Russell Publishing Company, 149 Tremont street, Boston. The illustrations of this monthly young folks magazine are exceedingly beautiful, and the stories are fully prepared to amuse and instruct. Price $1.50 per year. It will add much sunshine to a household where there are little folks.

Baptist Family Magazine for February is an inviting number well illustrated, and does credit to the enterprise and taste of its editor and publisher, J. Eugene Reed, 434 Chestnut St., Philadelphia. Price $1.00 a year in advance. VISITOR office receives subscriptions.

News Summary.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

A serious accident occurred on the Intercolonial about a mile east of Apohaqui station on Friday morning last. The Sussex accommodation train, with two engines, was thrown from the track by a broken rail and went over an embankment. The engineer, Thos. Gammon was instantly killed and the fireman was slightly injured. The passengers escaped uninjured.

Mr. Gibson's grist mills, at Marysville, are grinding large quantities of Ontario wheat, Indian corn, etc.

James Mowatt's barn at Bayside, five miles from St. Andrews, with contents was destroyed by fire on Saturday night about 11 o'clock. In it there were eleven head of cattle, two horses, fifty fowl, a mowing machine, horse rake, sleigh, sleds, wagons, harnesses, robes and all his farming implements, hay and grain; all were consumed. The dwelling house, built of stone with a shingle roof, caught several times but was saved with assistance of the neighbors who had assembled. Loss, $1,500; no insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The local legislature met yesterday. It is not expected that the Session will be long, or will develop much political conflict. The government measures will not, we think, be numerous. There will be a good deal of local and private bill legislation, but it is not expected that, in either branch, there will be the same causes of excitement which existed last year.

It is currently stated to-day that Lord Elphinstone has disposed of all the lands of the New Brunswick Lumber Company—about two and a quarter millions of acres—to some English speculators and capitalists for the sum of four millions of dollars. We are unable to vouch for the correctness of the statement, but would not be surprised if it proved to be true. The price is a good one and is about fifty per cent. advance on the price the Lumber Company paid the Railway Company for the lands.

NOVA SCOTIA.

The Holman Pad Co., Halifax, owing to an enormous increase in its business, has secured additional medical help, and proposes raising a sanatorium for the treatment of country patients.

60,000 bushels corn, damaged on board a steamer which had been in collision with another in Halifax harbor, are to be sold by auction at that port on Monday next.

The barn of P. McDougall, Mira, C. B., was burned recently, together with his cattle, hay, implements, &c. Loss $600; no insurance.

Joseph N. Thebaud, the murderer of Charlotte Hill, was executed at Annapolis yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. He has been constantly attended, since his conviction by Father Holden and though he made no public confession, it is thought probable he has made a full statement to his confessor.

William Chisholm has at present 80 horses and over 200 men employed lumbering on East River, Sheet Harbor. He expects to have 8,000,000 feet hauled before the season closes.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.

A Charlottetown despatch Feb. 5th, says the case of criminal libel of W. D. Stewart, late Commissioner of Public Works, vs. Rev. G. G.

Lawson, editor of the Presbyterian, was concluded yesterday. It occupied three days. The defence submitted no evidence. Louis H. Davies, Q. C., for the prosecution, delivered one of the ablest speeches ever heard in our courts. Judge Peters' charge, which occupied two hours in delivery, was strongly in favor of the prosecution, and was a remarkable clear and concise presentation of the case. The jury, after being out twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of guilty. The traverser, who is a minister of the Presbyterian Church, has been cited to appear before the church courts for libel.

The Transcript says that the steamer "Northern Light," which left Pictou on Friday, the 21st of January, with forty-six passengers on board, including five ladies, has been drifting about in heavy ice ever since. Sixteen passengers landed at Cape Bear on Thursday last in boats. On Saturday thirteen more left with eight of the crew to effect a landing. They got within a mile of land by nightfall but were unable to land owing to a large amount of lolly near the shore. They turned their boat over on a hard piece of ice and remained till Sunday morning, when they abandoned the boat and succeeded in getting ashore on foot. They suffered terribly from cold and exposure and two of them, Capt. Gordon and a Mr. Pollard, were badly frozen. It is feared Mr. Pollard will lose his feet. The steamer is still stuck in the ice off Murray Harbor with twenty passengers still on board.

UPPER PROVINCES.

PARLIAMENTARY NEWS.

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—After routine Mr. Ritchey introduced a bill to prevent and punish wrongs to children.

Mr. McKenzie entered and "was received with prolonged clapping of hands from both sides of the House."

Mr. Mousseau moved the House into committee to amend the Inspection Act of 1874 by repealing the tariff of fees and making the inspection one cent per box and half a cent for a half box. The resolutions were agreed to and reported.

Mr. Longley expressed his concurrence.

Mr. Gilmor strongly objected to the regulation as being one which would do no public good. The tax would be ten per cent on the value. He urged it should not be enforced in Charlotte.

Mr. Anglin joined in the protest against the measure in general, though supporting the reduction.

Mr. Ritchey said the Chamber of Commerce in Halifax favored inspection.

Sir John said that inspection would benefit even those most opposed to it, instancing the case of Irish butter which was shocking bad till the rigid inspection introduced made it the best in the world.

The resolution was concurred in, and a bill introduced.

Mr. McDonald (Pictou) moved the House into committee on a bill to continue in force the Better Prevention of crime Act, 1873, for one year. This is the Blake Act against carrying arms.

Mr. Blake said the Act was framed for a special contingency, and not designed to be permanent.

Mr. Anglin contended that to make it permanent was a reflection on a large class of the population.

The bill passed and was reported.

The House went into committee on the bill to amend the law respecting documentary evidence.

Mr. McDonald (Pictou) explained that it was a transcript of the English Act providing for the admission in evidence of orders in council, proclamations and public documents.

The bill passed and was reported.

Mr. Ritchey moved the second reading of the bill to amend the act to empower the police court to send juvenile offenders to the Halifax Industrial School. Carried.

Mr. Casgrain moved the second reading of the act for the better prevention of fraud in contracts involving the expenditure of public money. He spoke generally in condemnation of the contract brokers, and thought they should be suppressed. Passed.

Mr. McNair moved the second reading of a bill to amend the Insolvent Act of 1875 and amending acts, the object being to restore the power to the judge to grant a discharge where there was no fraud, instead of limiting the discharge to those who paid 50 cents on the dollar.

Several members objected to tinkering with the law.

Mr. Bechard moved the six month's hoist.

Mr. McLennan supported the bill.

Mr. Blake said the objection to the Insolvent Act was that the insolvent got a discharge too easily. In fact almost every one got a discharge. The act of 1875 and the amendment of 1877 were designed to prevent this. He argued that the effect of passing this bill would be practically to discharge all now in the Insolvent Court.

Mr. Colby supported the bill.

The vote on Mr. Bechard's motion for a six months' hoist was yeas 33, nays 100. The bill passed a second reading. A number of private bills advanced a stage. The House adjourned at six o'clock.

We are very glad to learn that Hon. A. MacKenzie is again able to be out.

U. S. SEIZURES OF CANADIAN GOODS.—On Friday large seizures were made in several cities of the United States of a liquor which passed for shelling, exported from Kingston (Ont.) by James Hart & Co. Alcohol is worth $2.20 in the United States, but can be exported to Canada in bond at 33 cents. The firm realizing these facts, began to import alcohol in bond, land it in Canada and send it back mixed with shelling, so as to get it admitted as a varnish. The alcohol was easily separated from the shelling, and was resold at about the proper price. Enormous sums of money were thus made but the New York papers say "The game is up."

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

IRISH AFFAIRS.

A London despatch of Feb. 3.—6.30 p. m., says: In the Commons last evening, Sir Vernon Harcourt, Home Secretary, replying to Parnell, said that Davitt was arrested because his action was considered incompatible with his ticket of leave.

Parnell asked what conditions Mr. Davitt had violated. There was no answer to this question. The Irish members shouted shame. Other members cheered tremendously. The scene surpassed all description.

The Speaker called upon Mr. Gladstone to move his resolution on obstruction.

Mr. John Dillon rose but the Speaker refused to hear him. After repeated warnings the Speaker named Mr. Dillon and Mr. Gladstone moved his suspension amidst enthusiastic cheers and cries of "order." The Irish members shouted shame. The motion for the suspension of Dillon was adopted by a vote of 395 to 33.

Dillon refused to withdraw from the House and was forcibly removed by the sergeant-at-arms, by the order of the Speaker, amidst cries of shame by Irish members.

Mr. Gladstone rose to address the House. O'Donnell (Liberal), member for Tralee, rose to move an adjournment. The speaker ruled that Mr. Gladstone was in possession of the House.

Parnell moved that Mr. Gladstone be no longer heard. The speaker declared Parnell was defying the chair, and upon his persisting, the speaker declared that he was willfully obstructing the proceedings and warned him.

Parnell's suspension was moved, but, upon the speaker making an order that the House be cleared for a division, all the Home Rulers refused to leave the House. The motion to suspend Parnell resulted in a suspension vote of 405 to 7. The Home Rulers not voting. Parnell declining to withdraw, was forcibly removed by the sergeant-at-arms and five other officers, the Home Rulers waving their hats as he passed out.

Finnigan (Liberal and Nationalist) then persisted in speaking, and was named by the speaker.

The force used in Dillon's case merely consisted in the sergeant-at-arms taking his arm.

The division then proceeded on the motion to suspend all the Home Rulers refusing to vote. Their conduct is in accordance with a resolution taken at a meeting held this afternoon to adopt a course recommended by A. M. Sullivan that the Irish members should remain in their seats instead of going into the lobbies on the division. The motion to suspend the 27 Home Rulers was carried by a vote of 410 to 6; whereupon they individually declined to leave the House, only yielding to superior force. They were removed singly by the sergeant-at-arms.

After the votes suspending the Home Rulers, Mr. Gladstone rose to move his resolution to prevent obstruction, when O'Donnell moved that Mr. Gladstone be not heard. O'Donnell was immediately named, and Mr. Gladstone moved his suspension. The suspension was carried 311 to 1.

O'Donnell declining to withdraw, was removed, with two other Home Rulers, who refused to leave the House when the division was taken.

Mr. Gladstone replying to Cowan (Radical) said that it was due to the House and to the Speaker that his (Gladstone's) action of yesterday should be discussed as early as possible, but that the House cannot give a motion on the subject priority over the obstruction resolutions or protection to life and property.

A London despatch on the 4th says: Sullivan protested against Dillon's forcible removal as an act of violence and illegality.

The speaker pointed out the fact that Dillon had defied the chair.

Mr. Gladstone then moved his resolution. He referred to the irretrievable waste of time since the commencement of the session. In regard to his resolution he stated that the Government had drawn largely on the loyal confidence of the Opposition. He said he was willing to accede to certain suggestions of the Opposition, the only way of meeting obstruction was to give the House enlarged power to check it. He earnestly appealed to members to support the Government and rally to the performance of a great duty, and not let the House degenerate into the laughing stock of the world.

Sir Stafford Northcote fully recognized the necessity of Mr. Gladstone's resolution. He then moved the first part of his amendment, viz: "That a minister shall declare any motion urgent." Sir William Harcourt, Home Secretary, said the Government were ready to accept the amendment as an addition to, but not as a substitution for any words in the resolution.

Sir Stafford Northcote assented, and the amendment was moved by Sir William Harcourt as an addition to the resolution.

Mitchell Henry said the resolution would go forth to Ireland, and to Europe, as an unfair advantage over the expelled Home Rulers.

The Globe says the door of Gladstone's residence in Downing street has been guarded by a policeman night and day, recently, in view of a possible Parnell attack. Gladstone was followed at a distance by a policeman when he went to the Commons to-day.

A London despatch of the 5th, says: Davitt had not been many minutes in Millbank penitentiary when he appeared in the garb of a convict. He will be remanded to another prison in a few days.

The manifesto of the Home Rule members has been issued and telegraphed over the United Kingdom and to America and Australia.

A Land League meeting announced at Tralee and at which Davitt was to speak, has been prohibited.

The Parnellites at their meeting Saturday decided that after a division upon the second reading of the coercion bill they should announce their intention of abandoning further protest against the Government measures as opposition was hopeless.

The Times approves of Davitt's arrest and says Davitt has been an active agent of sedition, verging on treason, and that he is an adventurer, acquainted with the springs and methods of the Fenian conspiracy.

As soon as the Irish members had been suspended a meeting of the Party was held, and it was decided to issue a manifesto to the Irish people, asking them to remain quiet and not to allow themselves to be forced into a conflict with the armed forces of the empire.

During the night Parnell received several communications from Liberals clubs throughout England, condemning the action of the Speaker and hoping that the agitation in England against coercion would be carried on vigorously.

The address of the Irish members to the Irish people was received in Dublin last night. It is signed by Parnell and 33 Home Rule members of Parliament.

All the funds of the Land League have been lodged in France for safety. The deposit was made in the names of Parnell, Dillon, Davitt and Egan, and it was arranged that authority to draw any of the funds should be signed by three of these four. Davitt being imprisoned cannot sign, and should another trustee be arrested after the coercion bill passes, the executive would be unable to draw upon the funds.

This consideration has been debated, and Egan is urged to place himself beyond the pale of the operation of the coercion act. Egan has gone to London to consult with Parnell. He will probably go to France and remain there.

The floods in California are increasing, with frightful consequences.

A London despatch of the 5th, sends the following: John Gould, F. R. S., the ornithologist, is dead.

Thomas Carlyle died at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, without a struggle, in his 86th year.

MARRIAGES.

No charge is made for the usual announcement of marriages or deaths. Obituary notices, however, exceeding twenty lines, will be charged at the rate of 25 cents for each additional ten lines, counting ten words to a line. The money should be sent with the notice. Those who send their names to prepare such notices and send them for publication, should be careful to furnish him with the money to be forwarded with the same to our office. No notice to be inserted.

HILE-GILMAN.—At the residence of the bride's father, on the 18th ult., by Rev. W. E. Vickery, Mr. Thos. H. Hill, of St. David, Char. Co., and Melissa Gilman, of St. George.

Deaths.

MERVILL.—At Baillie Settlement, Jan. 17th, Mrs. Martin Mervill, aged 38 years, leaving a husband and eight little children, to mourn the loss of a kind companion and affectionate mother.

MARR.—At the Lodge, Char. Co., Jan. 20th, Capt. Thomas M. Marr, a native of Dartmouth, England, aged 62 years, leaving a wife, four sons and two daughters. Capt. Marr was a man very highly respected by the people among whom he lived. His funeral took place on Saturday, 23rd, and was very largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. W. E. Vickery assisted by Rev. K. W. Stockford. The Orangemen were in procession, and buried him according to the usages of their order.

CAIN.—Died of consumption, at Elgin, Jan. 24th, Mr. Alexander Cain, aged 33 years. Saving grace enabled him to rejoice in hope of heaven, Phil. 1: 21.

TRITES.—Died at Moncton, Jan. 30th, Ida M., youngest daughter of Abel Trites, Esq. of Peticodiac.

WATSON.—At Collina, Kings Co., on the 20th ult., after a painful illness, John G. Watson, aged 59 years. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn their loss.

MCCAIN.—At Florenceville, Dec. 15th in the 29th year of her age, Jane, beloved wife of Mr. Hugh G. McCain, leaving a husband and four children, with a large circle of relatives and friends, to mourn their loss. She was the subject of much suffering, but bore it all with Christian patience and resignation to the Divine will; her Bible was her constant companion; her confidence in God was unshaken; she welcomed death, and felt that for her lot, die was gain. May the bereft family be sustained by grace Divine. Her funeral occasion was improved by the writer.

Shipping News.

A New York despatch Feb. 2nd, says: The steamship "Bristol City" sailed hence Dec. 28, for London, with a cargo of oil cake, cheese, etc., and was not heard from since.

At Maitland, N. S., the following vessels are on the stocks for spring launching: Putnam Bros. 1000 tons; Captain A. A. McDougall, 1000 tons; Dr. Brown, 800 tons; Capt. Cox, 1,200 tons; Alfred Putnam, 1,000 tons. Two other vessels of 1,000 and 1,100 tons each are being prepared for.

ONLY 20 CENTS.

To Meet the growing want of the age, and at the same time to reach the poorest in the land, Messrs. FERRY DAVIS & SON have lately issued from their establishment a new sized bottle of their celebrated "PAIN KILLER," that retails for only 20 cents per bottle, and which can now be had of any respectable Chemist, and nearly all General Storekeepers in the Dominion. It is no wonder that this firm have made their "PAIN KILLER" famous throughout the whole world, when we consider that, in the first place, they have the very best family medicine ever discovered for the relief of pain, either internal or external, and also that they have always made the price such that no person, however poor, could not purchase it if suffering from any of the thousand little ills which flesh is heir to. The new bottle that retails for 20 cents is large enough (holding an ounce) to last a person for a long time, and will be found a convenient medicine chest, compact and useful, all times, whether travelling or at home. Our advice is—"Go and buy a bottle at once."
