The tug Hercules has gone to Quaco for a raft of logs, for King's mill, Mosquito Cove.

The tug Lily Glasier is engaged in towing rafts down river. Friday she arrived at Indiantown with another large raft in Small pox is prevalent in New York, and this fact suggests caution here. The Board of Health will vaccinate gratuitously on certain days each week, which can be ascertained at the office.

Mr. J. W. Nicholson shipped on Tuesday by the barque Torryburn, bound for Barbados, 139 tons of hay.

The iron steamer Tantallion, after having discharged her cargo of steel rails, fish plates and track bolts, at Sand Point, Carleton, for the New Brunswick Railway, steamed over, Friday, to Robertson's wharf, where she received a cargo of deals. The lumber is being shipped by Messrs. Carvill, McKean & Co., to Bristol Channel. Mr. H. S. Gregory, stevedore, is superintending the loading.

Mr. A. B. Walker, stenographer, who has been studying in the law office of Mr. Geo. Gilbert, lately passed an examination at Fredericton as attorney and is to be sworn in, in June. It is said by members of the bar that Mr. Walker is the only colored man who has ever been admitted an attorney in any of the Canadian Provinces.

John J. Forest, of St. John, was sworn in an attorney at Fredericton on Saturday.

A. F. Randolph, Esq., of Fredericton, ent across the Bay this morning by the mpress in company with the remains of is brother, Mr. James F. Randolph, who ied down South a few days ago. A daughter of Mr. Dennis Gallaugher, jr., of Roshea, Albert Co.. while playing with matches, on Wednesday evening last, set fire to her clothing and was burned so badly that she died in a few hours.

NOVA SCOTIA.

Direct communication between Boston and Annapolis has been established, Mr. placed the Hunter, a first-class iron steamer, on the route. The vessel steamed into last week with a cargo of 600 barrels of flour, which had not been discharged up to Saturday afternoon, owing, it is alleged, to some difficulty or misunderstanding. About 2,000 barrels of apples are now awaiting trans-shipment to Boston by this steamer.

A despatch from the Spanish Consulate at Tunis states that they have addressed circulars to all the consuls at Tunis, declaiming all responsibility in the event of any disturbances in consequence of the entry of the French in Tunis. The consul therefore requests protection for the Spanish residents at Tunis.

A London despatch of the 22nd says; Beaconsfield's remains will probably be mined employment. A rotary feed has conveyed to Hughenden by road on Saturday, and be placed in his favorite' room, overlooking the village church, until the Butter choice table, per 1b.....$0 18 to $0 20 day of burial.

> The Prince of Wales will represent the Queen at Lord Beaconstield's funeral.

It is understood that the House of Commons, on Monday, will pass a vote of con-dolence for the death of Lord Beaconsfield. It will be moved by Mr. Gladstone. The House will then immediately adjourn until after the funeral.

Parnell is about to be married. Perhaps the experience will cool his enthusiasm for home rule.

The hat factories of Yonkers, New York, have temporarily stopped work, thus throwing out of employment nearly 1,000 operators-men, women and children. The reason alleged is a large amount of stock on hand.

Secretary Blaine informs the Land League in New York that the case of Michael Boyton has received all possible consideration, and says such considera-tion will always be promptly accorded to consideration, and says such consideraevery case where protection is claimed in foreign countries on the allegation of American citizenship.

Two cases of small-pox among emigrants on the steamer Abyssinian, which arrived in New York last week, caused her detention at quarantine 48 hours. The vessel was fumigated, and her 940 passengers were allowed to land on Friday afternoon.

A London despatch of the 23rd, says: The stoppage of the whole of the Durwam Colleries will be the probable consequence of the complications at the New Seaham colliery, proceeding from the late strike. The men wish to throw aside the understanding that a certain number of colliers, who prominently participated in the late strike, should leave at the expiration of four weeks. The feeling shown is to call out on the strike the whole of the colliers of Lord Londonderry. It is believed such a course will be followed by the musters closing all the pits in the County of Durham. The decision of the colliers is expected to-day.

The Times says Prince Leopold will attend Beaconsfield's funeral.

The Times says the Conference of Socialists, which was to have been held at London in April, has been abandoned, in order to wait to see what course political events are likely to take in Russia and Germany. If the Socialist Conference at Zurich during the summer is prohibited immediate steps will probably be taken New York.

The News understands that since the

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.

What might have been a very serious fire occcurred in E. W. Smith's boot and shoe store, Queen street, Charlottetown on Wednesday night last. It was discov-ered by the policemen that there was a smell of kerosene oil and fire about the premises. They gave the alarm, and in a few minutes the fire was extinguished by the fire department. The stock in the store was considerably damaged but that in the store room above received no further injuries than being thoroughly wet. It was valued at about $5,000 and insured in various companies to the amount of about $8,000. Immediately after the fire was extinguished the shop was examined and two boxes containing the refuse of the store and carpenter's shavings were were found near the spot where the fire was first seen, well saturated with kerosene oil. An investigation was being carried on at last accounts.
