Bro. Coy is being much encouraged on his mission field, and has baptized some of late at Springfield. Bro. Tupper was with him at Springfield and rendered valuable aid. The church at Macknauack is doing well and are sustaining the meeting during his absence. May there be a harvest this year in all of the churches.

B. N. HUGHES.
St. Mary's, Feb. 26, 1884.

To the Editors of the Visitor:—

It has occurred to me that a few notes concerning our work and prosperity here might be of interest to your many readers. Ten months have now elapsed since I accepted the pastoral charge of this people, and I can truly say, "The lines are fallen to me in pleasant places." Few pastors have so large, thoughtful and noble a band of Christian workers to hold up their hands. They have learned the truth, and exemplify it daily, that religions, is not a fitful manner of life, but so far as genuine, is steady, active, progressive.

For months there has been a noticeable increase of interest and spiritual power, as well as a constant growth in attendance upon all the services of the Sanctuary. During the week of prayer, there prevailed a fervency of spirit, a longing for the Divine Presence, a thirst for God's power and glory, which invariably preceded the bestowment of quickening and regenerating grace. The meetings are still continued with unabated interest. Seventeen (17) were baptized in February, three previously, and nine have come to us by letter, making an addition of twenty-two (22) at this writing. Others are seeking the Lord, and we expect to trouble the water again next Sabbath. Clearly, we can say, "The Lord hath done great things for us whereof we are glad."

We have a flourishing Sabbath school, which, under the efficient management of Superintendent Bro. J. S. Trites, together with a corps of devoted teachers, is a very important auxiliary. There are two Senior Bible classes; one, of married people, taught by the pastor; the other, of young men and women, is under the care of Bro. White.

The last mentioned class, together with the church choir, were recently the invited guests of their teacher, who entertained them at his father's residence, where a sumptuous tea and a profitable programme were provided. The class on the occasion, evinced their high appreciation of their teacher's services by making him the recipient of a handsome present, which called forth a happy and suitable address from Bro. White. It being the birthday anniversary of the pastor's wife, she also was kindly remembered and received a number of gifts.

We are united as a church, and with our minds are striving together for the faith of the gospel.

To the Editors of the Visitor:—

MENDOTA, ILL., Feb. 26th, 1884.

I want to say a little about the erroneous doctrine of infant baptism. I have never, in all my life, seen its evils as I have found it here in this little city. Two thirds of the population being Swedes and Germans and having been sprinkled in infancy they cling to that as the hope of heaven. God by his grace has opened some of their eyes to see that baptism will not save the soul, and they have accepted Christ to find the new life in Him a reality. But when we ask them to put him on by baptism they cling to the thought that they have been baptized, and feel that it would be a greater dishonour to disobey their god-fathers and god-mothers than to disobey the command of God himself. On what heresy! Can we say too much against it, when we see souls hanging to the ordinance of men rather than God.

If I never saw my need of being in Baptist work before, I see it now. Oh for men who will speak out the whole truth of God and wipe from the land the heresy which now binds so many dear souls! These men have had their eyes blinded; but just think of the hundreds of others in the same condition, and then let every Baptist ask, shall we withhold the truth which God in mercy has revealed to us? Praying that God will help us to tell out the whole truth, I am yours in Jesus.

D. L. CHUBBUCK.

Pastor Wanted For Port Medway Field.

Rev. I. Wallace, our general Missionary is now laboring at Port Medway. Though the cause was very low, God is blessing his labours and the darkness is passing away. Four were baptized on Sunday the 24th inst., and two received. The outlook is encouraging. A pastor will be needed at once. The field will probably embrace four churches, viz., Port Medway, Mills Village, Greenfield and Middlefield. Salary about $500 and a good parsonage.

I shall be glad to hear from any one willing to settle on this interesting field.

A. CORROON,

Cor. Sec. H. M. B.

Hebron, Feb. 28, 1884.

Resolution of Condolence.

WOLFVILLE, N. S.

March 1, 1884.

At the monthly conference of the Baptist church here, this afternoon, the following resolutions, moved by Rev. Dr. Sawyer, seconded by Prof. Higgins, Ph. D., were very heartily passed:—

Whereas, This church has been called to mourn on account of the death of its Pastor, Rev. Stephen W. DeBlois, D.D.

Resolved, That, while we deeply feel the loss that has now come upon us, we nevertheless thankfully acknowledge the goodness of God, in enabling his servant to continue, through the long period of twenty-eight years, a faithful and successful pastor, honored and beloved by his church and the community in which he lived.

That, in view of our brother's devotion to the duties of his calling in public and in private, his ability as a preacher, his desire at all times to minister to the spiritual comfort of the sick and the sorrowing, his prudence in directing the affairs of the church in times of difficulty and trial, and his readiness to promote every good work, that the fruits of the Spirit might abound in his church and congregation, it is our duty, as it is also a pleasure, to place on our records, our high estimation of these gifts, by which our brother was made a good minister of Jesus Christ, so that his labors through a protracted pastorate were continuously blessed in strengthening Christians in the faith and in turning many unbelievers unto the Lord.

That it becomes us to cherish the remembrance of our departed brother's patience, cheerfulness, hopefulness and christian trust so uniformly manifested by him during the long and painful illness which preceded his death, as well as the courtesy, kindness, forbearance and love of peace, which characterized him as a man and a christian through the entire period of his connection with this church, and which so greatly endeared him to its members and to all with whom he was associated.

That we hereby express our deepest sympathy with the family of the deceased in their sad bereavement, and the assurance of our prayers, that the grace which was the support of our departed brother may be their consolation in this time of sorrow.

NOVA SCOTIA.

Weymouth.

I went to Weymouth, N. S., about the middle of November to preach the gospel, and at the commencement of the revival the Lord was pleased to lay his hand of affliction on me, by which I was laid under the doctor's hand for several weeks with inflammation and slow fever. I am now returning home, but am very feeble yet. I am in hopes that the Lord will raise me up and help me still to preach the gospel.

LITERARY NOTES.

RAMBLES IN MISSION FIELDS. By S. F. Smith, D. D., Boston. W. G. Cornell, Mission Rooms. 12mo, 400 pp. $1.25.

This is a most readable and interesting book. The author with his wife made a tour round the world and writes what he saw. The style is easy and captivating, and the subject matter will add much to the information even of the friends and students of missions. The book ought to be in all our Sunday schools.

FRANK LESLIE'S POPULAR MONTHLY for March exhibits the enterprise which makes this one of the most popular and profitable magazines. Its 128 pages filled with substantial and entertaining matter are enlivened with about a hundred engravings. Among the articles of the solid type, "The Soudan and its Complications," "Napoleon and his Marshalls," "Curious inhabitants of the Sea," and "A visit to Geneva by Mark F. Valette" may be mentioned. This magazine can be obtained, post paid, for $2.50 a year. Address Mrs. Frank Leslie, Park Place, New York.

Everyone likes to read and hear a good story, one that is bright, cheerful and entertaining; one that will get the lads and lasses to "bide at home o' nights to read." A good story will make the housewife smile and the gude man clap his hands with delight. THE FAMILY WELCOME contains exactly what will please and instruct. We direct our readers attention to its advertisement in our columns, and say, READ IT AND TAKE IT.
