

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifling by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale, hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me."
HARRISON FAIRBROTHER,
Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude?"
MRS. EMMA GEDNEY,
159 West 125th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effective remedy for croup and colds we have ever tried."
A. J. CRANE,
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is a most valuable remedy for all lung troubles."
JOSEPH WALDEN,
Byhalia, Miss., April 6, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles."
F. BRADGON,
Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.

Temperance.

Moral suasion for the man who drinks;
Mental suasion for the man who thinks.
Legal suasion for the drunkard maker.
Prison suasion for the statute breaker.

SOMETHING TO CRY OVER.

Dr. John Hall, in an article entitled, "A Thing to Cry Over," touches in a pathetic manner the common habit of laughing at drunken men. Dr. Hall stood on a boat in New York harbor. Not far off was a well-dressed but tipsy young man. Beside the doctor was a plainly dressed man. When Dr. Hall saw the people laughing at the drunkard, he saw in his neighbor's eyes such a sad, pitying look that he said to him, "They should hardly laugh at him." Said the man, "It is a thing to cry over." Then he told Dr. Hall of his own wife, who took to drink in Scotland, and who promised to reform if he would come to this country, but did not, and died of drunkenness; and when the doctor hoped that he had comfort in the children, he said, "One, the second, is; she is a good child. The oldest is not steady, I can do nothing with her; and the youngest, a boy, can't be kept from drink. I've sold my place, and am going to a town in Ohio where, I am told, no liquor can be had—to try to save him." Dr. Hall closes as follows: "Who would not wish for abstinence societies, tracts, books, ministers, sermons, young people's pledges, humane laws? One almost cries out for anything that will stop this slow, cruel murder of home love, of men, of women, of little children, of hope, of peace, of immortal soul."

A TERRIBLE RETORT.

At a certain church meeting the subject of wine drinking was introduced, which found advocates and opposers. An influential member at last arose and in a most vehement manner denounced opposers of wine drinking as fanatics. As he took his seat a layman asked permission to speak, who addressed the Moderator as follows:

"It is not my purpose to reply to all that has been said by the last speaker. My object is humble and practical. I know a father who was at pains and sacrifice to educate a son at college. There he became dissipated, but after he returned to his home, its genial influences, acting upon a generous nature, reformed him. I need not tell you, that father rejoiced greatly.

"Well, years passed. The young man completed his professional studies, and was about to leave home to enter upon his life work, when, in an evil hour, he was invited to dine with a neighboring clergyman, noted for his hospitality. At dinner wine was introduced—was offered to that young man; was refused; was offered again and refused. He was then laughed at for his singularity. He could withstand appetite—ridicule he could not. He drank—he fell! From that time he became a drunkard, and long since he has gone to a drunkard's grave."

"Moderator," continued the old man, with streaming eyes, "I am that father; and he who just addressed you—it was he that ruined that son!"

CERTAINLY the need for reform as regards London is self-evident, if the statements made by Mr. Corrie Grant last week at one of the Wardnotes, held for the election of representatives on the Common Council, are to be accepted as fact. Here is what he is reported to have said:—

The workmen were taxed that the members of the Corporation might feast free of expense. He had been to many of these dinners professionally, and had often seen members of the Corporation at the banquets so drunk that they had to be carried away by the servants, and yet these same men sat on the bench the next morning to judge those who had been taken up drunk and disorderly in the streets.

Did She Die.
"No; she lingered and suffered along, 'pining away all the time for years, the doctors doing her no good; and at last 'was cured by this Hop Bitters the papers 'say so much about. 'Indeed! indeed! 'how thankful we should be for that 'medicine.'"

We advise every farmer or stock raiser to invest in Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders and feed them out to their herds this winter. Depend upon it it will pay big interest. Don't buy the large packs as some of them are worthless.

House and Farm.

We very heartily invite correspondence for this department from practical farmers. Send us your suggestions, inquiries, and the result of your experience, and thus at once help others, and call out their knowledge.

APPLE PUDDING.—A delicious apple pudding to be served hot is made thus: Peel and quarter enough apples to cover the bottom of a deep tin plate; then make a batter of sour milk, soda and flour, with a tablespoonful of lard to enough flour to make a batter which will cover the apples. This should not be thicker than four pancakes. Pour it over the apples, and bake till brown, then, when done, turn it on a large plate, with the crust down. Over the apples scatter sugar and cinnamon. If you like it rich, spread a thin layer of butter over the apples before putting the sugar and cinnamon on.

HOT WATER FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A gentleman who is in business in this city has cured himself of a chronic and ugly form of dyspepsia in a very simple way. He was given up to die; but he finally abandoned alike the doctors and the drugs, and resorted to a method of treatment which most persons would laugh at as "an old woman's remedy." It was simply the swallowing of a teaspoonful of hot water before breakfast every morning. He took the water so hot that he could only take it by the spoonful. For about three weeks this dose was repeated; the dyspepsia decreasing all the while. At the end of that time he could eat, he says, any breakfast or dinner that any well person could eat—had gained in weight, and has ever since been hearty and well. His weight is now between thirty and forty pounds greater than it was during the dyspepsia sufferings; and for several years he has had no real trouble with his stomach—unless it was some temporary inconvenience due to a late supper or dinner out, and in such a case a single trial of his ante-breakfast remedy was sure to set all things right. He obtained this idea from a German doctor, and in turn recommended it to others—and in every case, according to this gentleman's account, a cure was effected.—Ec.

A TOUCHING CASE.

The Life of a Beautiful Woman Saved.

A young and beautiful married lady residing in this city was lying at the point of death, with diphtheria, and was not expected to live but a few moments; the husband, the father and mother of the suffering lady, were by the bedside, as was also the attending physician, so certain were they of the near approach of death, that certain arrangements had already been made to meet the sad event. The father and mother were state of Maine people, and had known from childhood of the wonderful curative power of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. At the suggestion of the grief-stricken mother, the father had gone to the nearest drug store before daylight, and obtained a bottle, and when the physician arrived and stated that the loved one could not possibly live but a few moments, the mother timidly told the doctor that she had great faith in Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, and asked if she might give her daughter some. The Doctor replied, "Certainly if you wish; it can do no harm."

While this conversation was taking place the young wife was gasping for breath, and it was evident that she could live but a few moments longer. But the mother quickly uncorked the bottle and gave a teaspoonful clear to her child. The effect was like magic; in an instant the passage to the lungs was enlarged, she could breathe a little easier; the mother quickly began to bathe the throat externally, and in a short time all present saw that the crisis had passed. In a few hours the patient was considered out of danger, and in a few days was well. The husband of this lady related these facts with tearful eyes, to Mr. Jennings, of the firm of I. S. Johnson & Co., 22 Custom House Street. He said there could be no question whatever but what this Liniment had saved his wife's life. All persons who will send their address to I. S. Johnson & Co., 22 Custom

To remedy this is to cure the disease. By the use of Hamilton's Quinine Wine and Iron, and Tonic Dinner Pills, the organs of Digestion are strengthened, the food is assimilated readily, and the disease is eradicated. Many who have suffered the insupportable torments of Dyspepsia for years owe the restoration of their health and strength to the use of these medicines. Beware of imitations. See that you get "Hamilton's" the original and genuine. For sale by all druggists and general dealers in Canada.

THE "VISITOR" FOR 1884.

Arrangements are being made to make the VISITOR for 1884 still better than ever before. In order, however, to fully effect our plans money is needed. It is owed us, but our appeals seem ineffectual to move many of our patrons to payment of their small bills to them, but to us in the aggregate a large amount. We desire for many reasons to bring the VISITOR to the advanced payment system. It will prevent errors in bills and give the reader the wholesome feeling that he is reading his own paper and not that of the proprietor. To promote this end we desire to give notice that after the first of January 1884 we shall feel at liberty to stop sending the VISITOR to those who are more than one year behind in payment and send their bill for collection. We shall greatly dislike to do this but justice to ourselves and to our paying subscribers demands it. We further propose to send all who pay up their back debts and remit in addition $2.00 advance payment for 1884, a copy of the Canadian Record for a year. It is an excellent 8 page Missionary and Sunday School paper adapted to promote intelligence in the family and desire for the spread of Christ's kingdom in the world. Let us have a hearty response to this offer. To all new subscribers paying in advance we make the same offer. Will our pastors speak a favorable word for their denominational paper, make known our offer and send us new names. Every Baptist minister in the Maritime Provinces is our agent to help on this good work.
