How to Go to Sleep.

Here is a strand of jewels from dear Miss Havergal which I wear in the night when I cannot sleep. con the brillants over and over and over, until I pass sweetly into refreshing slumber. Here they are :--

Take my life, and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to thee.

Take my moments and my days, Let them flow in ceaseless praise.

Take my hands, and let them move At the impulse of thy love.

Take my feet, and let them be Swift and "beautiful" for thee.

Take my voice, and let me sing Always, only, for my King.

Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from thee.

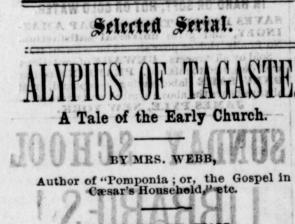

Take my silver and my gold, Not a mite would I withhold.

Take my intellect, and use Every power as thou shalt choose.

Take my will, and make it thine; It shall be no longer mine.

Take my heart, it is thine own; It shall be thy royal throne. Take my love; my Lord, I pour At thy feet its treasure store. Take myself, and I will be Ever, only, all, for thee.

The repeated survey of another diamond frequently wins me to sleep. Here it is: "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house that it was unreasonable that the they would willingly pay if it could of the Lord forever." Dear restless, sleepless ones, try my experiment .--Carolina, in Interior.

of her son.

Ambrose was instrumental in avert- the city, were claimed for the occuing from the city of Milan, for a pation of the heretical sect. One time, the invasion of the usurper sabbath day Ambrose went to bap-Maximus. But even this good ser- tize several persons, who were vice did not soften the animosity of prepared for that ordinance, when Justina; and in the year 386 she he was told that officers had been persuaded Valentinian to pass a law sent to take possession of the Portian permitting the Arians to assemble, church. He still calmly continued without any interference from the the service, until a hasty messenger he heard that Valentinian had ex- ed to do something." bishop. 3 zivino judge for themselves. If they pre- of the populace. fer Auxentius, let them take him; but they have already declared their sentiments." milat to band their all

More violent measures were then adopted; and at the suggestion of the Arian teacher a band of soldiers was sent to demand for him the possession of the church called the Basilica, with all the rich plate and furniture belonging to it, on the plea torted from them, which they declared emperor should not have one place of secure to them the unmolested preworship where the services could be fession of their faith. conducted in a manner agreeable to his own views and sentiments.

it was merely a cunning trap to government urged Ambrose to subcatch the bishop. The emperor mit to the imperial authority; but he could, by his own authority, have answered with the same loyality and enforced the use of all the churches firmness as before. "The Holy in the city for the Arians; but his Spirit," said he, in his exhortation object, and that of his mother, was to the people, "has spoken in you to draw Ambrose into an act of in- this day, to this effect, Emperor, we consistency, by inducing him to re- entreat, but we do not fight." Neversign voluntarily one of his churches theless, the Arians, knowing how into the hands of the Arians, and unpopular they were in the city, thus indirectly to sanction and feared to show themselves in the young relative who was teaching a streets; and a notary was sent to acknowledge the Arian creed. Again they failed in their efforts. Ambrose, from the emperor, to ask ting forth the needs of the children The bishop calmly replied to the him "whether he intended to usurp officers, that "if the emperor had the empire?" It's all and the interest of the second secon his abode there; and he surrounded sent to demand his house or land, The reply of the bishop to this inthe city with strong walls, which his money or goods, he would freely sulting inquiry shows what manner extended to a circumference of two have resigned them, but that he of spirit he was of. "I have an emcould not deliver up that which was pire, it is true," said he, meekly, the second, Theodosius the first, and committed to his care." And to his "but it lies in weakness; according to south window-seat in my sitting-room congregation he that day declared the saying of the apostle, 'When ies also, made Milan their occasional that he "would not willingly desert am weak, then am I strong. Even his right; but if compelled, he knew Maximus will clear me of this charge, since he will confess that it was informed him that some of his people pired, at which he was deeply Her next step was to introduce having met Castulus, an Arian presthe Arian teacher, Auxentius, into byter, in the street, had laid violent the city; and he immediately sent a hands on him. Then the holy man challenge to Ambrose; inviting him was moved to prayers and tears, and to hold a controversy on their re- he besought God that no man's blood spective doctrines in the imperial might be shed; but that, if anyone take place until five years after the Valentinian, boldly declaring that it himself, who was ready to be offered was no part of the emperor's business up, not only for the pious, but also to decide on points of theology ; and for the wicked. He then immediateadding, "Let him come to the church; ly sent some presbyters and deacons, and, upon hearing, let the people who rescued Castulus from the hands

> After this incident the court issued warrants for the apprehension of several citizens; and soon the prisons were filled with merchants and tradesmen, who were guilty of no crime but that of adhering to the scriptural doctrine of the Trinity in Unity. Many of these were bound in chains; and large sums of money were ex-

Many of the city magistrates and men of high rank were harshly

This argument was specious, but threatened, and the emissaries of the "We might each do as much as send a pair of children's mittens or stockings," said Grandma Spicer. It was one chilly autumn afternoon at the sewing society in the church par-

solution; and, as the object of Justina influence in the court and the council church, which stood outside the was induced to abandon his mother's after them," said that lady; and walls, but also the great church heretical principles, and to embrace several others, who handed in stock-By his talents in negociation, which had lately been erected within those of Ambrose; to which, in form ings, hoods, and warm flannel garat least, he adhered till his death, ments, echoed her words.

"I have put away my crazy quilt," which occurred in the year 392. He said Etta Holt. "It looks like such was then engaged in quelling another usurpation in the west; and, finding foolish work, when you put it beside making clothes for shivering, needy death approaching, he sent for Amchildren." brose to baptize him. The bishop immediately set out to comply with "I only had time to hem a handkerthe request ; but while on his journey chief," said Mrs. Barton, "but I want-

"I told you so," said Grandma affected, and wrote to Theodosius, Spicer. "Every one has brought expressing his sorrow, and his hope something. We will declare the Sethat the young emperor had died a ciety a success. Now shall we do these articles up in shapely packages sincere Christian.

The death of Valentinian did not and send them through the mail to gladden the heart of that affectionate palace. But the bishop wrote to were to suffer, it might rather be period at which our story has arrived; teacher, and see what two weeks but we have alluded to it in order to more will bring forth?"

They brought abundant fruit, for exhibit more clearly the charity, the generosity, and the indomitable several new members had joined, and that very night the mail brought a firmness of the venerable Ambrose. Such, then, was the pastor who letter of thanks and suggestions from the recipient of the work of their odd presided over the Christian communminutes. This encouraged them to ity of Milan towards the close of the fourth century. Such was the man go on, and the good work still conby whose instrumentality the seed of tinues. The mission schools in the Northwest are not the only ones benetrue faith was sown in the heart of Augustine, and the germ of a saving fited. The Odd-Minute Society have realized their full share of pleasure repentance was implanted in his soul! and profit in the garnering of precious The good seed was watered by the time and in gratification at having tears, and breathed on by the prayers, of a faithful and a loving mother, done what they could for the Lord's needy children. and it was strengthened by communion with his anxious and inquiring friend Alypius; but it was God alone

They have all grown interested in missions, and, as is almost inevitable who gave the increase, and brought in any country church where bright, active, young minds gain an intelliforth abundant fruit in this "brand gent idea of the Lord's great uncultisnatched from the burning." vated harvest field, there are some (To be continued).

loving hearts ready to consecrate their lives to his service, and to pursue their studies with the assurance that in good time the Lord will show them where their work is to be .--Religious Herald.

THE LAST KISS.

An Incident of the Wreck of the City of Columbus.

Stand as they stood, long years ago, Proud groom and happy bride, She fair to him as angels are, And he her fond heart's pride.

JUNE 1

Ah, who can know the thoughts that burned

Those brave, calm brows beneath? The ages in that moment lived. There, face to face with Death?

A shock—a lurch—an awful crash! The shark-like rock-fangs rip The steal-clad sides, and with a roar The wild waves whelm the ship!

One beief embrace of loving arms, One long, fond fareweiltiss, And wife and husband, heart to heart, Sink in the dread abyss!

O, Death, thou hast thy victories, O Life, thou has thy fame. Yet love can do heroic deeds That shall your triumphs shame;

But never a diviner deed, Even by love was done.

Than when her apotheosis In this last kiss she won! -Southern World.

Atlanta, Georgia.

MY OLD FRIEND .- A gentleman who had been afflicted with rheumatism for 20 years used Minard's Liniment and is perfectly cured. It is our old friend for all aches and pains.

"How do you pronounce 's-t-i-n-g-y?" asked the teacher of the dunce of the class. The boy replied: "It depends a great deal on whether the word refers to a person or a bee."

A Sabbath school teacher, says an exchange, had grown eloquent in picturing to his little pupils the beauties of heaven. and he finally asked: "What kind of little boys go to heaven?" A lively little four-year-old boy, with kicking boots, flourished his fist. "Well, you may answer," said his teacher. "Dead ones!" shouted the little fellow at the extent of his lungs. ves more struct in promi

"Gentlemen," said the Professor to his medical students assembled in clinic, "I have often pointed out to you the remarkable tendency to consumption of those who play upon wind instruments. In this case now before us we have a wellmarked development of lung disease: and I was not surprised to find, on questioning the patient, that he is a member of a brass band. Now," continued the Professor, addressing the consumptive, "will "Among the confused mass who you please tell the gentlemen what instrument you play on?" "I blays de drum," said the sick man. The fired Tannie and Rev. Dr. Allen, of the Freedman's Bureau, is not averse to telling stories on himself. He was making a speech for his cause before the Synod of Kansas at the others was not shared by them, its late meeting, and said very emphatibut their blanched faces told that they cally that "we colored people," were realized the peril which surround- coming to the front. An old brother who ed them. The only movement of was waiting at the door to speak to him, took the playful remark in right down earnest, and as he shook hands with him said, "Bless de Lord for dat speech. I stood close together, their hands knowed you had some colored blood in clasped in each other as if to fulfil you, or you couldn't talk dat way 'bout our folks." sibbs bas sovew sociality

CHRISTIAN VISITOR. THE ## CHAPTER XIII.

At the period of our story, Milan was a royal residence. So early as the third century, Maximinius, who reigned over the western empire, as the colleague of Diocletian, took up miles. The Emperors Valentinian others of the fourth and fifth centurplace of residence; and, at the time when Augustine established himself not how to resist." in the capital of Lombardy, the former of these sovereigns kept his court there.

With the proceedings of that court we have very little to do, except as they regard one of the friends of Augustine, and his pious and long- glected no opportunity of inculcating than to exercise violence, they de- my arm, and when I have an odd suffering mother, Monica.

had long been contending with the his prince faithfully; the court knew followers of Arius, of whom Justina, his principles, and had no fear of his the widow of Valentinian the first either exciting or encouraging rewas a decided patroness. After the bellion. They only wished, opinions into the mind of the youth- Arianism. ful emperor, and to induce him to the pernicious doctrines of the services in the church. Chanting was restored. Peace was thus Arians.

be thus deterred from his duty, and of Milan, and the congregations took to fear for his own safety; and, in a up to any good work; and her sister he peror to hold fast and support ner of performing their public wordelived by the ship. the doctrine apostles. But it seems that Valen- On the occasion of the controversy

"I can grieve," he added, "I can through my embassy he was kept weep, I can groan. Against arms from the invasion of Italy." and soldiers, tears are my weapons. Such are the fortifications of a pastor."

loyalty and obedience to lawful Ambrose, the Bishop of Milan, authority. He had already served the guards were removed from the by

During the time that this affair the responses had lately been intro- re-established for a time; but Am-The bishop was not, however, to duced by the bishop into the churches brose knew that he had still reason said Jennie Sharp, who was always earnestly exhorted the em- the greatest delight in this new mantinian was more under the influence between the court and the prelate them satiate their rage in his blood." Holmes, Jennie Golding, Jennie of his mother than of the bishop; for which we are now relating, Ambrose he one day commanded his body- caused a doxology to be sung to the threatened to invade Italy. This guards to surround the church in honour of the Holy Trinity. Auguswhich Ambrose was ministering, and tine and his friend Alypius were then ordered the prelate to come both present; for, although neither forth with his congregation. The of them had yet sincerely embraced seek aid from the man whom she had until every one who was there had reply of the holy man was worthy of the doctrines of the gospel, they a soldier and servant of the Lord were frequent listeners to the preach-Jesus Christ : "I shall not willingly ing of Ambrose. Augustine was a

that she had just received from a mission school in the Northwest, set-under her care. "I don't know when I would find time to knit them," said Mrs. Harte; and Mrs. Holmes, her near neighbor, spoke up quickly:

The Odd-Minute Society.

lor at Orchard Hill, and one of the ladies had been reading aloud a letter

"Keep your knitting-work on the and catch it up every time you run in empty-handed. I will find the yarn.' There was a general laugh at this for Mrs. Harte did spend a good deal of time visiting; but she took Mrs. Holmes' suggestion good-naturedly The court were wearied by his re- and said:

"Thank you, I will accept the and her son had been rather to ob- yarn, and I will get out my dear At the same time, Ambrose ne- tain the bishop's sanction of Arianism mother's knitting bag and wear it on sisted from their persecution; and minute I will knit." "I have heard of a society some where-in London, I think-called church, in which they had kept the Odd-Minute Society," said Jennie Ambrose and his congregation imprisoned the whole night, during Golding, modestly, "in which a great which time they had employed them- deal of work was accomplished. death of her husband, she openly intrigues and menaces, to compel selves in singing psalms and hymns suppose every one has odd minutes if endeavoured to instil her heretical him in some degree to countenance to the glory of God, after the she takes note of them. I know that I do, and yet I am called a busy perexample of Paul and Silas.

Now, like the apostles, they were son, in the main; but after this I am compel Ambrose, by threats and was pending, Ambrose occupied the set free; and the money which had determined to give up useless fancy persecution, to cease from opposing attention of his people by solemn been extorted from the tradesmen work and to devote my odd minutes to the Lord's service."

> "I will engage to serve with you," letter which he addressed at that Clara took a sheet of paper and a time to his sister, he expressed a a pencil from her pocket, and headed hope "that God would defend his it "Odd-Minute Society. Members church from all her enemies, and let -Grandma Spicer, Mrs. Harte, Mrs. Again, at this juncture, Maximus Sharp, Clara Sharp." "Nothing like being systematic, formidable threat threw the court of Clara," said the minister's wife-"put > Milan into the greatest trepidation; me down." "And me!" "And me!" and again Justina condescended to sounded from all corners of the room reviled and persecuted, and she her name down. "She society will entreated Ambrose to undertake report two weeks from to-day," said another embassy to the usurper. The Clara, folding the paper and tucking thongs, your swords and spears against me; attractive to him. The zeal of the was not, however, successful-he and a general turn-out. The works of Drenched by the ice-cold sea, such a death I shall freely undergo." congregation for the honour of the The emperor did not then proceed Divine Trinity was greatly aroused could not stay the progress of the the "Odd-Minute Society" made a They shrink and shiver, and their cheeks to any further violence; but the by the solemn strains of the doxology; enemy. But the emperor Theodos- goodly show as they were deposited Are wan as dead men's be; bishop was continually exposed to and Augustine has left it on record, ius, who then reigned at Constanti- on the centre table, and the members It is the lashing sleet that makes the artifices and the opposition of that "his own soul was melted into nople; came to the assistance of his grouped about Clara as she wrote an Their bodies shrink with pain, And not the dread of death that cowes colleague Valentinian, and put an entry against each member's name. The hearts of croven men; Justina, who feared to make any Divine affection." more open attacks upon him, as she The firmness of Ambrose did not end to the usurpation and the life of "Mrs. Harte, three pairs of mittens, For see, how calmly, heart to heart, two pairs wristlets." found that the people of Milan were disarm the hostility of Justina. The Maximus. Hand closely clasped in hand, "It was astonishing how many odd By the judicious influence of this Amid the riot's maddening din generally inclined to support him, demands of the court were even and that he also exercised no little increased; and not only the Portian Christian prince, the young emperor minutes I found when I came to look! The wife and husband stand!

BY CHARLES W. HUBNER.

were struggling and screaming were noticed a middle-aged man and his wife. There conduct was in marked contrast with that of the other passengers. The panic which had seized muscles or nerves was that produced by the chilling atmosphere. They the marital vow of standing by each other in the varying tide of life's fortunes and mistortunes. As the them at every moment, the husband so it remains-delicate, refreshing, and turned and imprinted a kiss upon the companion of his life, and while thus embraced a heavy sea broke over the wreck and both were washed away and not seen afterward. Mr. Cook says the scene was one which will remain upon his memory until his dying day .- Boston Herald.

The breakers roar, the mad winds howl Sharp smites the icy blast; Her stout sides riven by the rocks, The doomed ship sinks at last.

With dreadful din and thundrous shock, Their wide mouths flecked with spray, The hungry billows leap on deck, Like wolves upon their prey.

Against the onset of the sea,

The fury of the gale, What human heart may hope to stand? What arm, save God's, prevail?

Alas, alas! O, cruel Death, Thine is the victory! Gorge with an hundred victims more Thy monstrous maw, O, Sea! But look! Who stands so calmly there Upon the reeling deck, Unmoved amid the shrieking throng, The clamor of the wreck?

A stately form in manhood's prime. Stern-browed and eagle-eyed,

A slender woman, sweet and fair, Close clinging to his side?

Other odorous waters undergo many variations of aroma as they fade into inwreck careened with the gale from sipidity, but MURRY & LANMAN'S FLORIone side to the other, and while the DA WATER passes through no such graduations. As it is when sprinkled spray and waves were drenching upon the handkerchief or the garment, lelightful to the last.

THE HOUSEWIFE.

A popular domestic journal for American homes, will be sent for one year free to every lady who will send at once the names and address of 10 married ladies, and 50 cents (no stamps taken). Best paper for either young or old housekeep-ers in existence. This offer is made only to secure names to whom to send sample copies, as we know every lady who once sees THE HOUSEWIFE will subscribe for it. Regular price $1.00 per year. Address at once

THE HOUSEWIFE, Rochester, N. Y.

The fires that rage in the bowels of the earth are like the impurities that rankle in the blood, the former breaks out in volcances, like Ætna and Vesuvius, the latter in Boils' Carbuncles. Erysipelas and Scrofulitic sores. Purify the blood and all these disappear. Hanington's Quinine Wine and Iron, and Tonic Dinner Pills, cleanse and enrich the Tonic Dinner Pills, cleanse and fron, and Tonic Dinner Pills, cleanse and enrich the blood, and may always be relied upon to cure all eruptive diseases. Beware of imitation. See that you get "Hanington's," the original and genuine. For sale by almodruggists and general dealers in Canada.

No lady who delights in Flowers, and likes to see them do well and bloom abundant-ly, should be without Hanington's Food for Flowers. Ordinary packages 30c.—sufficient for 20 plants for one year.

Itching Piles-Symptoms and Cure.

Itching Piles—Symptoms and Cure. The symtoms are moisture, life perspiration, intense itching, increased by scratching; very distressing, particularly at night; seems rs if pin-worms were crawling in and about the parts affected. If allowed to continue very serious results may follow. "SWAYNE'S OINTMENT" is a pleasant, sure cure. Also, for Tetter, Itch, Salt-Rheum, Scald-Head, Ervsipelas, Barbers' Itch, Blotches, all scaly, crusty Skin Diseases. Box, by mail, 50 cts.; 3 for $1.25. Address, DK. SWAYNE & SON Phila, Pa. Sold by Druggists. 10.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

bishop cheerfully consented; and he it under the big Bible that lay upon ADVICE TO MOTHERS. Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING. It value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentry and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. give up the sheep of Christ to be great lover of music, and the new executed his mission with his usual the table. Scourged by the sharp sleet's stinging devoured by wolves. You may use method of chanting was peculiarly ability and fortitude. This time he The two weeks ended in a fine day gives tone and energy to the whole system. MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING IS Pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all drug-gists throughout the world, Price 25 cents a bottle SANITARIUM, Riverside, Cal. The dry cli-mate cures. Nose, Throat, Lungs, fun idea. 36p, route, cost free. 47-26t.ocw