LOCAL NEWS.

WANTED.—A good traveling agent. Apply at this office.

POLICE COURT.—No cases in the Police Court yesterday.

SUPREME COURT.—Common motions will be heard in the Supreme Court to-day.

THE HIGHEST QUOTATION.—Thirty dollars for a vote was paid at Sheffield by the canvassers for Mr. Perley on Thursday.

THE "MAY QUEEN."—This steamer is very nicely fitted up; and being well officered, ought to prove a popular means of travel to St. John.

DISCOUNT DAY.—The City Treasurer hopes that the citizens will not forget that July 10th is the last day for obtaining discount on taxes.

STEAMERS.—The "May Queen" arrived here at 12.30 yesterday morning, the "Florenceville" at 2.30 p. m., and the "David Weston" at 4 p. m.

HYMENIAL.—The Rev. Mr. Crawley is expected home to-day. He will be accompanied by his bride, Miss Witter, of Canard, King's County, Nova Scotia.

METHODIST CONFERENCE.—The clergymen for the Methodist Conference will begin to arrive in the city on Monday. We republish the list of stations with all changes complete.

THE SWEET BY-AND-BYE.—A York street grocer and a Gibson railway official are counting the hours which will pass before they will enter into the most honorable company of Benedicts.

HALF MAST.—The "David Weston" arrived with her flag half mast yesterday, owing to the death of Mrs. Weston the mother of Captain Weston. Mrs. Weston died yesterday morning.

MARYSVILLE.—The Rev. Mr. Shrewsbury preached an admirable sermon in the Marysville Methodist church on Thursday evening. There was a large congregation. The collection for the Supernumerary fund amounted to $63.

NOT THAT KIND OF A MAN.—W. H. Irvine, of 72 Queen street, St. John, wants the man who left the barrel of flour at his house the day before election to come and get it again. He says he votes "independent of such actions." He does not do his duty on flour, so to speak.

OUR SERMON.—We will resume the publication of our weekly sermon. That published to-day is by the Rev. Mr. Evans, and is the discourse for which he was shamelessly attacked by the tri-weekly maligner of decent people.

HOW IT WAS RECEIVED.—The news that the Canada Temperance Act had been sustained was received with very little signs of excitement. Most every one expected it and at any rate "the ardent" had been so profuse during the last day or two that most people had forgotten that any such law was in operation.

PARLIAMENT SQUARE.—A friend, with an eye to the beautiful, suggests that the grounds in front of the Parliament Building should be laid off in walks with a raised flower bed in the centre, and the whole surrounded with a low stone and wire fence. He thinks that our suggestiou to leave it open and permit the grass to grow objectionable, since it would be sure to become a cow pasture, while if it is fenced up and nothing more is done, it would look too much like a meadow. We are very much in favor of the flower idea.

FREDERICTON DISTRICT.—The following appointments were made at the Fredericton District of the Methodist Church:—Rev. E. Evans, Chairman; Rev. W. Harrison, Secretary; Rev. M. R. Knight, Assistant Secretary. Stationing Committee—Rev. W. W. Colpitts. Sabbath School Committee—Rev. R. S. Crisp. Missionary Committee—A. Rowley and Dr. Atherton. Contingent Fund Committee—S. Dayton, Dr. Coulthard, W. S. Day, M. Lemont, C. H. B. Fisher, W. E. Johnston, J. J. Weddall. Delegates to the General Conference, Hamilton, Ontario—A. Rowley, J. J. Weddall; ex-Sheriff Palmer, alternate.

MRS. M. E. CARLETON, a well-known Artist, residing in Boston, Mass., will spend the Summer months in Marysville, and if a sufficient number of pupils will organize a class to begin upon her arrival, will give instruction in Oil Painting, both Landscape and Flowers, and also China Decoration. Mrs. C. studied under the best English and Boston Artists, and is a teacher of much experience. During a residence of a few years in St. John she had charge of the Art Department at Mrs. Crane's School in that city, and also a class in the Government Building, in Fredericton. For particulars enquire at this office. Mrs. Carleton will arrive in this city probably next week.—d 6ins.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.—Sunday will be an interesting day at St. Paul's church. In the morning at 11 o'clock the Rev. Mr. McDonnell of St. Ann's church, Toronto, will preach. He will arrive in the city to-day by steamer from St. John and will be the guest of Hon. Mr. Wark. In the evening the Rev. Dr. Elliott, of Chicago, will preach. This divine, when a lad, lived on the Keswick and was afterwards a leader in the St. Paul's Sabbath-school under the late Rev. Dr. Brooke. In the afternoon there will be a review in the Sabbath-school, and addresses will be delivered by the gentlemen above named and the Rev. Mr. Cruchet, of Montreal. This latter gentleman arrived in the city yesterday. He is the guest of Prof. Rivet

The Day After.

Yesterday morning the excitement in reference to the York election was still pretty high, but it was all centred upon Messrs. Thompson and Wilson. Owing to a mistake in the telegraphic returns from Southampton Mr. Thompson's vote was a hundred lower than it should be, so that when the Prince William, No. 2, poll came in and he was only some thirty odd ahead of Mr. Wilson, with Springfield and North Lake to hear from, it was pretty generally admitted that Mr. Wilson was the fourth man. But about noon Mr. Thompson came home bringing with him the correct state of the poll, and his election was thereby put beyond a doubt.

Messrs. Colter and Wetmore received a great many congratulations from their friends during the morning which they accepted with evident satisfaction. "George," said one effervescent specimen of the bone and sinew, "I am glad you're in." "So am I," said the Chief Commissioner, and he looked as if he meant it.

Mr. Thompson was warmly congratulated by his many friends. We feel satisfied that there is scarcely a man in York who is not very well pleased to see our independent and plucky friend back in the House again, in a seat which he gained after an election as fairly and honorably contested on his part as an election could be.

Mr. Blair only arrived in town by the five o'clock train, too late to see many of his friends. He feels that in the general result the Opposition have come out victors.

Speaking of the position of the Government the Telegraph said:

They are left in a small minority, at least, and can have no chance to patch up as was done in 1878. Even some of the Conservative members elect, who formerly stood by them, are not in favor of the recent reconstruction, and can hardly be expected to support them. The defeat of the Government and the formation of a new one, seems inevitable.

The candid, unbiased, and outspoken sentiment of these constituencies is Liberal and against both the Dominion and Local Governments. The events of yesterday on these constituencies are an admonition to both. There are also indications that economic changes in the Provincial Legislature and Executive are pretty certain to take place at an early day.

The general opinion in town fairly bears out this forecast. The Government have done a great deal to reduce the tone of political morality in the Province; but there are strong men in Opposition who will not be parties to any compromise.
