LOCAL NEWS.

AROUND AT LAST.—The kirk has been got around to York street at last.RAPID FALL.—On Thursday afternoon the river fell eight inches in five hours.SYNOD MEETING.—The Anglican Synod is summoned on the 5th prox., in the School Room of Trinity church, St. John.THE Farmer admits that Mr Fraser did not speak very hopefully of success when he came back from Stanley, but attributes it to his native modesty.PARLIAMENT SQUARE.—The clearing up of Parliament square has begun. A squad of shovel men under the charge of "Dan" went to work on Thursday.POLICE NEWS.—Frank King was drunk and was awarded the option of twenty days jail or five dollars. He chose the secluded retirement of the Brunswick street refuge.EXCHANGE OF PULPITS.—Rev J S Allen will preach in the Methodist church in this city to-morrow morning, and the Rev Mr Wadman will occupy the pulpit of the Gibson Methodist Church.WATER WORKS.—The engineers have completed their examination of Fredericton and vicinity, and will return home to-day. They will then prepare a report and recommend a plan of procuring an artificial water supply for the city.ALMS HOUSE CONTRACTS.—The following contracts were awarded by the Alms House Committee yesterday: Geo Hatt & Sons, groceries; J Clynic, bread; Jas Peppers, beef, and Davis, Staples & Co, medicines.
Dr Conlthard was appointed physician.THE Capital asks: "Is it not a fact that at Mr. Pickard's headquarters there is a 'free bar' well stocked with the ardent, and where Mr. Pickard's supporters, who partake, are made welcome, and drink to the success of their man?"

We answer—No.

A FAMILY QUARREL.—Two highly respected representatives of the opposing Tory factions, grew so warm in a discussion of the respective merits of "the clique" and the party, on Queen street, yesterday, that Sergeant Vandine had to interfere to prevent a resort to the manly art.RAILWAY MEETING.—At the adjourned annual meeting of the Fredericton Railway Company, held yesterday, Thos Temple was elected President, and A F Randolph, E R Burpee, J L Inches and H D McLeod, were elected Directors. John Richards was elected Secretary and Treasurer, and Messrs Fraser, Wetmore & Winslow appointed Solicitors.A MEAN TRICK.—Some very mean creature stole a flag which the Liberal Committee had hung opposite the City Hall. The small souls in the Tory party have been greatly vexed over the fact that the flag was displayed there. We do not wish to intimate that any of them took it; but merely to say that they will have the pleasure of seeing a better one in its place.DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.—Lord Elphenstone, President of the N B Land and Lumber Company, Mr Thorne, President of the New Brunswick Railway Company, and Col Barker, of England, are expected to arrive in the city by the morning train from St John, and will proceed north by the afternoon train on the N B R, to make an inspection of that road.PERSONAL.—Hon. W. E. Perley and James S. White, M. P. P., were in town yesterday.
Capt. and Mrs. Whittier left this morning for Lincoln, Me., where Mrs. Whittier's father is very dangerously ill.Mr O Burpee, M. P., was in town last night, having returned from a successful canvassing tour through Blissville, Gladstone and Ludlow. He held meetings in each Parish during the past week, which were exceedingly well attended. He feels that his prospects are better than at any previous election.

Mr Pickard will return home to-day.

Mr Gregory will address a meeting at New Maryland to-night.It is reported, on we know not what authority, that Sir Leonard Tilley will arrive in the city by the noon train, from St John.WHAT'S IN THE WIND?—"A boy's will is a wind's well," sang the sweet singer of Cambridge; but he did not have any reference to election times. Then the winds will sometimes run counter to the wishes of the boys. At any rate the boys who are so industriously getting out flags for Mr Fraser think so. First they put out two banners which the wind split badly, provoking the remark that we have already chronicled, "They are all the better emblem of your party." Then they hung another to the breeze with the legend thereon, "Young Men's Conservative Club, J J Fraser," and the wicked wind will persist in winding it up until it reads, "Conservative Club, J J Fraser." But the saddest sight of all was the new banner, with this superscription, "Vote for Fraser and protection to the Farmer (the Maritime Farmer we presume) and Home Manufactures." This the gentle zephyrs seized as soon as it was displayed, and lovingly wound up, just as Mr Fraser's party is going to be wound up on the twentieth, until all that was left to be seen by passers-by was the last two syllables of the last word, "ories," which dangled aloft directly in front of the Fraser Committee's head-quarters. What's in the wind? do you ask. Well, the truth sometimes, when the breezes takes it into their heads to play pranks with Tory banners.

Election Notes.

Excellent reports continue to be received from all parts of the country. Mr. Pickard meets with splendid reception and reports that he feels assured that the people have not lost confidence in him.In Sunbury Mr. Burpee has been pursuing a very successful canvass. He will increase his majority of 1878. In the western part of the county, which is the stronghold of the Perley party, he bids fair to take at least a half vote, and his strength in Burton and Sunbury is much greater than at the last election. His friends feel confident of success.Mr. Irvine and the Liberal party generally are hard at work in Carleton. They will carry the day.We do not hear much from Victoria and cannot at present say just how matters stand.The Liberals of Queen's feel stronger every day. The only question discussed is how much Mr. King's majority will be.Our advices from St. John are to the effect that the election of Messrs. Burpee and Weldon is conceded by those best able to judge.
Some of Sir Leonard Tilley's supporters admit that the majority of the people were against him when the canvass began, but say that they expect by good generalship to come out with a majority in their favor. On the other hand, Mr. McLeod is gaining in popularity. His speeches stamp him as a man fitted to adorn a legislative assembly, and the Liberals feel quite sanguine that they can return home with a respectable majority.We have information from a highly respectable and trustworthy source that Mr.
Wood cannot possibly defeat Sir Albert Smith in Westmorland.From Ontario we gather that the fight will be very fierce, but that the Liberals on the whole will carry the Province, with a number of seats to spare.The outlook generally all over the Dominion is exceedingly favorable to the success of the Liberals and the overthrow of the Tory administration, with all its jobbery, monopolies, extravagance and unjust legislation. The Ontario Liberals have thrown themselves into the struggle with the determination to conquer, notwithstanding the gerrymander outrage; and judging from the constant accessions they are receiving, and from the extraordinary course which the premier is pursuing, it would appear that they will be able to command success.Mr. Lindsay's card to the electors of Carleton is somewhat singular. He declares that it will be his "care to make the tax upon the necessaries of life as light as possible," that he will oppose monopoly or the protection of one industry to the prejudice of others, and he will not support any Government which does not meet his views on these points. For a candidate brought out by the Tory party, Mr. Lindsay's views are rather striking, and show that the whole tenor of public sentiment in Carleton, both Liberal and Tory, is adverse to the taxation policy of the Government.Mr. Irvine speaks in his card with no uncertain sound. He announces himself as opposed to the impost tariff and speaks out manfully for the farmers of New Brunswick.

IMPORTS.

Per St. John & Maine and F B R.
6 pkgs household goods, B Archibald.Great age carries with it a certain respectability. Whether it attaches to a person or thing. This is seen particularly in the case of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, which is the most marvelous internal and external remedy ever discovered. It ought to be kept in every house.If farmers and others continue to buy dust and ashes put up in big packs and sold for condition powders it won't be our fault.
We have exposed the swindle time and time again. Sheridan's Powders are the only kind we know of worth carrying home.
