

The late Lord Cavendish.

The following sketch of the late Lord Cavendish, who was assassinated on Saturday last will be of interest:—Lord Frederick Charles Cavendish, although comparatively a young man, is an ardent Liberal, and one of a very advanced type in politics generally, and presumably on the land question also. He was the second son of the 7th Duke of Devonshire, Lady Blanche, 4th daughter of the 6th Earl of Carlisle. He was born at Compton Place, Eastbourne, in 1836, and educated at Trinity College, Cambridge. He married in 1864, the Hon. Lucy Caroline, 2nd daughter of the 4th Baron Lyttelton. His life was largely an official one. He was private secretary to Lord Granville from 1859 till 1864, and held the same relation to Mr. Gladstone from July, 1872, to August, 1873, when he was appointed a Lord of the Treasury, and held the position till February, 1874, when the Government resigned. On the advent of the Liberals to power he was appointed Financial Secretary to the Treasury in April, 1880. He sat for the north-west riding of Yorkshire since July, 1865, and was elected at the last general elections by 3,673 majority over the first Conservative candidate. In politics he describes himself as "a Liberal, in favor of the 'total' abolition of church rates and complete religious liberty." His Lordships career had so far been a distinguished one, and calculated to give him a vast amount of departmental knowledge and training. That he had been selected for the position which so well known a statesman as Mr. Forster failed to successfully fill is an indication of the high esteem in which he was held by his leader and colleagues. His Lordship owned no land of any extent in his own name, but the Devonshire family, as represented by the present Duke, are large landholders not only in England but in Ireland. The Duke of Devonshire holds 32,776 acres in the county of Cork, 3 acres in the county of Tipperary, and 27,540 acres in the county of Waterford, representing an aggregate rent roll of £31,698 per annum.

French Domination.

The figures given by Mr. Tasse in his speech on French domination are quite unfair, and furnish no criterion of the position of nationalities in the Civil Service. For instance, Mr. Tasse said there were no French Canadians in the Finance Department, when there are two. Let us take the highest salaried officials, viz., the deputy heads and those whose salaries are equal or higher than that class:

QUEBEC.	SALARIES.
The Clerk of Senate, French.	$8,400
Clerk Privy Council, French.	3,200
Deputy Minister of Railways, French.	4,100
Deputy Minister of Public Works, French.	3,200
Deputy Minister of Militia, French.	3,200
Deputy Minister of Agriculture, French.	3,200
Deputy Minister of State, French.	3,200
Total French, Quebec.	$23,500
Law Clerk House of Commons, English.	3,400
Deputy Postmaster General, English.	3,600
Total English, Quebec.	$7,000
Total Quebec.	$30,500
ONTARIO.
Commissioner Inland Revenue.	$4,000
Deputy Minister of Interior.	3,200
Total Ontario.	$7,200
MARITIME PROVINCES.
Deputy Minister Justice.	$4,000
Deputy Minister Customs.	3,200
Deputy Minister Fisheries.	3,200
Clerk House of Commons.	2,400
Total Maritime.	$13,800
ENGLISH.
Ontario.	$7,200
Maritime Provinces.	13,800
Quebec.	7,000
Total English.	$28,000

Thus we find a French total of $23,400, or only $4,600 less than all the other Provinces combined, and if we take the total for the Province of Quebec we have an excess of $9,500 over all the Provinces combined.—Ottawa Free Press.

A REMARKABLE PLOT.—A despatch to the Vienna Presse from Moscow states that a man named Koboseff Bogdanowitsch recently submitted to the authorities a plan for the illumination of the Kremlin with electric light. Inquiries were instituted and it was discovered that the intention was to blow up the whole Kremlin during the festivities attending the coronation of the Czar. At the man's residence there were found a number of peasants' caps, the crowns of which were filled with explosive material. It is supposed that these caps were intended to be thrown into the air in greeting to the Czar, and that on falling to the ground their contents would have the effect of bombs. Bogdanowitsch and 300 Nihilists have been arrested.
