NASHWAAK VILLAGE.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald.)

Nov. 26.—The Nashwaak river froze over Saturday night.

Mr. Grass, of Gibson, preached in the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Mrs. T. L. Williams, who has been visiting here for some time, returned to her home in Annapolis on Tuesday.

Mrs. James Perkins is ill with rheumatism. Dr. Mullin is attending her, Mrs. Partelow Woodworth and her two children have gone to Portland, Me., for a visit.

The roads are in a fair condition for sleighing.

Miss Bessie McNeill is home for a few days.

Mrs. Thos. Hawkes is spending a few days in the city.

Miss Chrissie Hallett is quite ill.

Mrs. Melvin McNeill is very ill, Dr. Mullin is attending her.

WOODLAND.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald.)

Nov. 27.—We have had quite a big snowstorm and now there is good sleighing.

The men around here have all gone to the woods.

Mrs. Edward Dixon, from St. James, was visiting relatives in this place.

Mrs. Mullen, from California, was visiting her sister Mrs. George Davidson and also another sister Mrs. Harding from Chatham.

Mrs. W. E. Jones, of this place, was visiting her sister and also friends.

Mr. George Thomas was spending a few days with her mother Mrs. J. Leslie.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Schwartz are going to spend a few days at Cross Creek with their daughter Mrs. Harry Bennett.

Mr. John Leslie, Senr., is feeling a little better again. We would be very glad to see him around again.

Mr. Archie Dixon and his daughter Annie passed through this place one day this week.

Mrs. Richard Thomas is feeling better again.

We hear of wedding bells in the near future.

Miss Rothery M. Saunders spent Sunday in Tay settlement with her cousin Miss Thomas.

UPPER QUEENSBURY.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald.)

Nov. 28.—The late storms have improved the travelling and our men are to seen now, quite often exercising their fiery teams, and we feel that winter has come in good earnest since hearing the merry jingle of bells.

Our lumbermen, Ernest Hazelton, Simeon Manuel and Ira Hagerman, are progressing finely with their work, as they have the most of their logs yarded. They will now commence hauling.

Leverett Stairs, who has taken a quantity of wood to split for Mrs. Amaziah Ketch, is getting along with it very nicely and the large pile of blocks, which were to be seen a few weeks ago are rapidly decreasing. There is no need of wood-splittings when Leverett is around.

Wm. Ross, who has been at work in the Dumfries' lumber woods for several weeks, is home, and is busily engaged getting up his winter's wood.

Mr and Mrs. Moses Parent entertained a few friends as an oyster supper one evening last week. Mr and Mrs. Hoyt, of this place, were among the invited guests and also Mr and Mrs. J. S. Kenney, of Michigan, U. S., who have been visiting Mr and Mrs. Parent for several weeks. Music was furnished by Mrs. W. S. Parent.

The many friends of Miss Augusta Coy will be pleased to learn that she is able to be out again.

A C. Whitehead returned from a business trip to Woodstock yesterday.

BLOOMFIELD RIDGE.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald.)

Nov. 29.—Saunders Price reached home on Wednesday last and is looking for teams to haul off the yards. Teams are in great demand at present.

Miss Bessie M. Calhoun of Govern Vale, has been visiting Mrs. Geo. McLellan, as has also Miss Gertrude Smith.

Miss Isabella McLellan is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Andrew Calhoun.

Richard W. Snow is visiting friends at Bloomfield Ridge.

John Calhoun and son are doing a big business logging at Palmer's Brook.

David McLellan was very much surprised Sunday morning on going into the sitting room to find that the stove had upset and had burned too mats, a pair of gloves, a whip and some other articles.

Mr. McLellan wasn't long getting the stove in position again.

Charles McGivney of Stanley, passed through here on Wednesday with his black trotter on his way to Boiestown.

Dr. W. H. Irvine of Boiestown, had a call to Chatham on Wednesday last.

Postmaster W. C. Campbell of Boiestown, is visiting friends at Chatham.

Fred A. Doffey of Boiestown, is doing a rushing business selling machinery for Jas. F. Van Buskirk of Fredericton.

Oats are selling at fifty cents per bushel.

Our school was closed on Tuesday last on account of a heavy storm and bad roads.

BEAR ISLAND.

(Special correspondence to the Herald.)

Nov. 29.—The ice bridge formed here last night, Monday's storm and the snow squalls since have made good sleighing. About 8 inches of snow in the woods, but no frost in the ground.

Many of our farmers here have to haul water, springs are dry that were never known to go dry before. The old people say they never saw the river close up when water was as low as it is now.

A. J. Brown, jr., is doing nicely with his broken leg. Mr. Arnold, John A. Merriam's clerk, called at his home a day or two ago and gave him near forty dollars. It was money paid by Brown's fellow workmen, who were with him when the accident happened. Brown is very thankful to his fellow labourers and friends for the amount.

There was a crystal wedding at Lemuel A. Cliff's about a week ago, when 60 of their friends sat down to a sumptuous supper. The presents were fine and suitable to the occasion. Mr and Mrs. Cliff feel well pleased, as they did not know they had so many friends before.

Last Wednesday evening there was a social at Deacon Geo. L. Slipp's were upwards of 80 tickets were sold for supper. After the feast was over the company were entertained with dialogues, recitations, reading and music. The company were agreeably disappointed as the several performances were more artistically carried out than they expected. The social was got up by the members and friends of the Free Baptist church of Lower Queensbury to raise funds to make some needed repairs on their church.

George L. Slipp was taken suddenly ill about 10 days ago and was not able to leave his bed for several days, but we are pleased to hear he is now mending and will soon be able to be around again. La Grippe is supposed to be the trouble.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Movements of People in Whom Our Readers Are Interested.

Warden Morehouse of Keswick was in the city today.

E. G. Trites, of St. John, is among the guests at the Queen.

Hon. H. A. McKeown and bride arrived in St. John Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Patterson, of Lincoln, is visiting her brother Ald. J. Moore.

Gerard Ruel, of the department of railways and canals, Ottawa, is among the guests at the Queen.

The condition of George G. Coburn, shows little improvement today, but hope for his recovery has not yet been abandoned.

Harry Adams, son of John G. Adams, who went west with the first harvest excursion, returned home by the noon train on Saturday.

The many friends of Howard Harvey will be pleased to learn that he is able to be at his post again in Hall's book store after an attack of diphtheria.

Miss Gertrude Coulthard contributed to the last issue of the University Monthly an interesting and well written article on her visit to the House of Lords.

Capt. Earle of Hampton arrived Saturday night, registering at the Queen, and this morning started out to arrange with property holders a right of way for the Fredericton—Newcastle end of the new railway.

The numerous friends of Collector Street, who has been quite ill at the Barker House for several days, will be glad to know that his condition is greatly improved, and that he is now able to leave his room.

Lieut.-Col. C. J. MacDonald, post office inspector for Nova Scotia, and Mrs. MacDonald, arrived here on Saturday evening from Halifax, having been summoned by the death of Mrs. MacDonald's brother, the late Dr. McLearn. They are guests at the Queen.

Practical Thanksgiving.

This is Thanksgiving season and winter has come, and while we are enjoying the comforts of our homes, let us think of how we can help the less favored ones. You can do this and at the same time be entertained and spend a most enjoyable evening. It will be your personal loss if you do not have this privilege tomorrow night. Attend the Opera House and hear the string quartette, harp, cello and two mandolins, and a soprano soloist. Of the latter, the Boston Herald says, "Jeanette MacCormac Smith possesses a most beautiful soprano voice over which she has perfect control."—d.

An Important Arrival.

When the express from New York reached Fredericton this morning it brought a case of watches for free distribution among Lucy & Co's customers. These watches are good time keepers and are warranted for one year. Every person who purchases at this counter for cash, a man or boy's suit of clothes, an overcoat or a reefer will be entitled to one of those watches free. All goods will be sold at their regular cash prices and positively no extra charge will be made to parties who receive watches. This is the tenth year since those who are fortunate enough to secure one know the value of them.—d.

Grey Lamb Furs

for children and young ladies. There is nothing so pretty as grey lamb in jackets, collars, caps, gauntlets, and such like. They have a very large stock of grey lamb furs at Edgecombe's.—d.

The Keys found in the pound package of UNION BLEND TEA should be returned to Harry W. deForest about the first of December. Holders of lucky Keys will receive $400 in cash, divided into various sums, shortly before Christmas.

D. Lormier, of Toronto, is a guest at the Queen today.

Estate Notice.

Letters testamentary having been issued upon the Estate of my late husband, John Harvey, late of the City of Fredericton, Photographer, I hereby request all persons having any claims against the said Estate to forthwith present same duly attested at the Harvey Studio, 164 Queen Street, and that all persons indebted to the estate will please make prompt payment at the said Studio to Mr. Walter Lister, who is authorized to receive payment and to carry on the business for me.
