

A SLIGHT "MIX UP."

(Union Signal.)

A mother of twins one night heard a series of giggles from the neighbourhood of the children's bed.

"What are you laughing at, children?" she said.

"Oh, nothing," replied Edith, one of the twins, "only you have given me two baths and Alice none at all."

Truth Ever Lovely Since the World Began.

There is a small store on the corner of Queen and Regent Streets which at the present time contains more useful and solid goods to the square foot than any other place of its size in the city. New goods have been arriving daily during the last two months from the best manufacturers in Canada. Lucy & Co. keep this place and here you will find a well made suit of clothes, a stylish fall or winter overcoat, a warm suit of underwear, a pair of no-boy boots, a fashionable hat, neckties and gloves, in fact everything in wearing apparel for either man or boy; and last but not least a nice stock of boots, shoes, slippers and rubbers for the ladies. A case of watches is now on the way, and when they arrive will be given away to their customers. Due notice will be given of the arrival of these watches so that all may have a chance to secure one.

If any housewife in the country has never used UNION BLEND TEA, she is advised to give it a trial; 25c., 30c., 35c. and 40c. a pound.

SWIMMIN'.

In where the pool lies clear and deep,
Up in the shadow where cows stand asleep

A-dashin' an' splashin', now in, now out,
Darin' each other a turn about,
Then divin' if the big of limb—
That was the way with me an' Jim.

Chasin' the shiners so bright an' shy,
Laughin' to see 'em go scurryin' by,
Tryin' to trace a big humblebee
Flyin' home to his hollow tree;
Watchin' the swallows flit an' skim—
That was the way with me an' Jim.

Wadin' 'way out where the current runs swift,
Throwin' in chips to see 'em drift,
Followin' on till they're 'way out of sight
Down where the channel turns to the right,
Then a-straddle a log with legs brown an' slim—
That was the way with me an' Jim.

Up to the bushes when the sun gets low,
Tumblin' now in our hurry to go;
Pullin' on our clothes most any way,
Wonderin' what did will have to say;
I take the likin', bein' older than him—
That was the way with me an' Jim.

Prisoner's Release

A Bright Youth of Eighteen Suffered so Badly from Asthma and Bronchitis that he was Forced to Remain in the House for Months at a Time.

DR. CLARKE'S KOLA COMPOUND CURED.

Mr. L. O. Lemieux, C. P. R. Engineer, 553 Alexander Street, Winnipeg, Man., writes: "My son who is just eighteen years of age has been a terrible sufferer from asthma and bronchitis during eight years. He became worse each year in spite of the hundreds of dollars I spent on doctors and many remedies. For several years he has had to remain in the house during the winter months, and for hours at a time treated with poultices and mustard plasters to keep him from chinking. Time after time we thought each attack would be his last. About the first of September, 1898, we heard of Clarke's Kola Compound and purchased in all seven bottles. While taking the first four bottles the change was gradually for the better; soon after taking the fifth bottle he could go out any day without any sign of his trouble whatever, and since completing the treatment has been completely cured. This grand medicine certainly has been a blessing to him. During the last year, since being cured, he has developed wonderfully physically and is altogether a changed boy. I give you this letter that it may bring the light of this wonderful medicine to some other sufferer, as I have every reason to thank this gentleman in Vancouver, whose testimonial I read."

Don't take any substitute for Clarke's Kola Compound. All druggists or from The Griffiths & Macpherson Co., Limited, Toronto, Can.

ROSES IN LONDON.

There are roses which Londoners, however poor, may buy in November. They are technically described as "very single tea roses," and, as a matter of fact, they are made up of only about 20 petals. If you happen to buy them wired and keep them in a moderately warm room, they do not wither, but simply dry, and so you get a bunch of everlasting roses. They come from the south of France, where they grow on hedges and get practically no attention until the time comes for culling them. They more or less resemble the Gloire de Dijon in color, but usually the outer petals have a deep stain of red. They always come with stems a foot long and a plentitude of glossy, dark green foliage. The baskets generally travel to this country by way of Paris, where they are opened and the choicest of the blooms extracted and put into special packages. These selected roses fetch comparatively high prices; but the others, in baskets containing from eight dozen to a gross of the blooms, go so wondrously cheap that you may buy them in the streets in November at the price of just a half-penny.—Chambers' Journal.

Men Who Quit.

People should not encourage the prevailing disposition to accept excuses for moral delinquencies. When a man gives up the struggle for success—when he falters and quits, when he breaks or fails and proves how poor the stuff is of which he is made—he need but take to intoxicating drink and people say of him that but for drink he might have made a great name for himself.
