

AN EDITOR SPEAKS.

Tells What Dr. Clarke's Little Red Pills Did for Him.

To the Editor of the Herald.

Sir,—It is with pleasure that I add my testimony to the value of Dr. Clarke's Wonderful Little Red Pills. For years I was troubled with dyspepsia, and could get no relief. In vain did I appeal to the physician,—the trouble would not succumb to medical treatment. I had also suffered from chronic rheumatism, which, while it did not entirely unfit me for my duties, caused me a great deal of suffering.

I was persuaded to try Dr. Clarke's Little Red Pills, and I can now proclaim myself a well man. I enjoy my food, have not a sign of dyspepsia, and am entirely free from rheumatism.

It is therefore a pleasure to me to add my testimony to those of others who have been relieved by the use of these truly wonderful pills. W. H. Robertson, President and Chief Editor of the Daily Times, Peterborough, Ont.

Dr. Clarke's Little Red Pills are a positive and certain cure for rheumatism, coughs, asthma, paralysis, catarrh, eczema, lame back, indigestion, all stomach and liver troubles, female complaints, even when the diseases have been standing for many years. The most stubborn cases will yield. Price 50 cents per box. For sale by G. Y. Dibblee, A. Staples, C. Fred. Chestnut and John M. Wiley.

Dr. Clarke's Sure Cure for Catarrh, and Dr. Clarke's sure cure for Eczema, same price. $10 will be paid for any case that it will not permanently cure.

The Archbishop of Canterbury would like to see all the clergy of the Church of England married. Preaching in the Hampstead parish church, in aid of the Queen Victoria fund, he remarked that the experience with an unmarried ministry had lasted in this country long enough to make people generally dislike it. They preferred a married clergy, for the clergyman's family often did as much good as he did. The public must, however, be prepared to pay more for a married than for an unmarried minister.

A Paris despatch says: Mr Seallies, cousin of an eminent professor at the Sorbonne, whose engagement to a charming woman was but recently announced gave a fare-well dinner to his bachelor friends the other evening. As he arose from the repast, which was a jolly affair, to propose a toast to his fiancée, he slipped and fell backward, striking his head on a marble topped table. He laughingly refused a doctor's attentions. His friends took him home, where he died a few hours later from concussion of the brain.

HEADACHE RELIEVED INSTANTLY

Got a constant headache? Ten chances to one the secret of your suffering is that "white man's burden," catarrh. Here's a sentence from one man's evidence for Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. "One application gave me instant relief, cleared the nasal passages and stopped the pain in my head." It's a quick, safe and sure treatment and it never fails to cure.

William Hope, aged 79, one of the oldest and best-known men in the country, was attacked by a ferocious bull on his farm about half a mile from Villiers, Ont., Wednesday, and knocked down and trampled and gored so badly that he died of his injuries a few hours afterwards. Robert Steele, a lad of fourteen years, who was near at hand at the time, pluckily attacked the bull with a pitchfork, and finally drove him off, but not before Mr Hope had been fatally injured.

A well known clergyman tells of driving along a country road one winter's night, when just ahead of him he noted a woman walking. Drawing up his horse, he asked the woman if he could give her a lift. The woman got in and they drove along for some distance. When he had set her down at her own gate she thanked him, and he politely answered: "Don't mention it." "No, I won't," said the matter-of-fact lady in an oblique tone.

Rock Wall Plaster is put up in bags of 100 lbs each, and is ready for applying to walls by the simple addition of sand and water. Rock Wall Plaster saves time, admits of carpenters immediately following the plasterers, giving the owner his building weeks earlier than with ordinary plaster.
