FROM LATE DESPATCHES AND EXCHANGES.

A dangerous cattle disease, which is diagnosed as spenic fever, has broken out in Stormont County, Ontario.

Colorado Springs, Colo., July 15.—During a heavy thunderstorm, Charles L. Smith's well-known racing mare Arline B. valued at $4000, was struck by lightning and killed.

A passenger on the Corinthian named Louis Gaugent of Nantes, France, is under arrest at Montreal at the instance of the French Government on a charge of forgery and embezzlement of 60,000 francs.

Saturday night's storm in the Carberry district, N. W. T., occasioned quite a loss to many farmers, particularly in the Lincoln and Pleasant Point sections. A conservative estimate of the damage done by wind, rain and hail combined places it at $100,000.

Summer camping has grown in Rochester, N. Y., until the canvas town on the bluffs is a mile and a half long by half a mile wide and contains 1,500 inhabitants. The men go to and from business every day on the trolley line and live under canvas with their wives and families from April till October.

The age of London and the immutable system of affairs is illustrated by the fact that a 999 year lease expired here the other day and the property was taken possession of by the original lessor, the chapter of Westminster parish. The lessee was the town, and the property has been in its possession continually since the original lease was made.

The dwelling house and barn of Mr. W. McKee, of Armstrong's Corner, Queens Co. were totally destroyed by fire on July 12th. There was no one in the house when the fire broke out and the origin of the fire is a mystery. The house and barn with their contents, valued at over a thousand dollars are a total loss, there being no insurance.

Fred H. Stevens, editor of the Hartland Advertiser, was before the police magistrate at Woodstock Wednesday, on a charge of defamatory libel preferred by George L. Freeman, of Bridgewater, Me. Mr. Stevens published a story that had become current some time previously. It was to the effect that Mrs. Freeman made a death bed confession of a startling nature. Mr. Stevens was committed for trial at the October circuit court, J. C. Hartley appeared for the prosecution and T. M. Jones for the defence.

Oecily, the 18 year old daughter of John A. McIntyre of Otaabog, was drowned on Friday last in the lake near her father's home. It seems that she was subject to fits and that she went to get a pail of water from the Lake, and stepped into a boat to dip up the water, and it is thought took a fit and fell head foremost into the lake and was drowned. She was missed only a few minutes after the accident happened and was found beside the boat in about two feet of water, but life was extinct.—Gagetown Gazette.

A queer case of a lost child being searched for after many years was brought to the notice of Chief Powell of Ottawa, through a letter received by him from Washington territory. The letter asked for information about a girl named Trudeau. It stated that twenty two years ago a man of this name lost his daughter, a baby, in a mysterious way, since then all efforts to find her have been in vain. But, evidently, it was learned that the girl might be in this part of Canada, and the police were asked to find her. The girl was born on September 20, 1877, and would now be twenty-four years old.

What does it profit a woman if she gain the whole world of knowledge and lose her own health? Young women students, and school teachers, eager, ambitious, and full of energy, very often neglect their health in the struggle to gain education. They eat insufficient food, and, at irregular hours, they allow irregularity of the womanly functions to be established, and the result is that they become chronic invalids with all their education practically worthless. There is a plain road back to health for such as these, marked by the feet of thousands. It is the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for diseases of the stomach and digestive and nutritive organs, and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for diseases of the delicate organs womanhood. A cure so certainly follows the use of these remedies that out of hundreds of thousands who have tried the treatment, ninety-eight in every hundred have been perfectly and permanently cured. Constipation, with its calamitous consequences, which is a common ailment of students, can be entirely cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

A meeting of the Conservative Association of North Oxford, Ont. was called for Saturday in Woodstock, but less than half a dozen attended, and it was postponed until the call of the president.

SYDNEY'S WARNING

Business Being Overdone
in the Cape Breton Town.

CAPITALISTS WANTED BUT NO ROOM FOR OTHER PEOPLE.

Many Disappointments and Threatened Disasters.

(Sydney, C. B., Post.)

For the last two years Sydney has been the Mecca of men of all ages, of all classes, and of every known line in which men eke out a living. The leprous Chinaman, the stunted Esquimaux, the bustling merchant, and the shrewd capitalist, etc., have all visited our town and taken up their abode, in the struggle for the almighty dollar. Men of capital, men without capital, brainy men and brainless have been attracted here, all trying to solve the bread and butter problem. Some came expecting to pick up gold in the streets; others came resolved to enter the race and win by the law of the survival of the fittest.

Naturally there are many disappointments in this medley of races and pursuits. Nearly every line has been overdone. We have too many merchants; too many lawyers; too many doctors; too many tailors, in fact too much of everything except capitalists. We have a good supply of the latter for which we are duly thankful, but a few more and a few more manufacturing concerns are what we need the most. Sydney is a big town; it is a growing town; it is a town with a future, but its future greatness will be marked by the financial corpses of many men who will regret that they ever came here. It is not the fault of the town, although the town is apt to get a set back on account of the failures; it is simply the inevitable result of overcrowding. Walk along any of our streets and you will see stores enough for a much larger population than Sydney has at present. Go ask any of the proprietors what they pay for rent, and you will stand amazed at the magnitude of the sum. Does it require prophetic instinct to foretell the future, when competition is so severe?

There is a time in the history of every boom town when people should be warned to keep away from it, unless they are creators of enterprises. The merchant comes to live on created enterprise, not to create, and the more merchants there are in town the less there is to be divided among them. There is not enough room in Sydney today for one more business or professional man, and those coming in or contemplating coming are only courting annihilation, unless they have unlimited capital to sink on rent, board or wages, and can wait until some fellow merchant with less capital has to balance his accounts with the aid of a sheriff.

Our advice to business, professional and other men, except capitalists, is to keep away from Sydney until the present works are extended, as it is promised that they will be. But to capitalists, men of money and genius, we say come, come and invest. Our resources if properly utilized, will double your thousands and with their growth will bring into prominence the men who used them. The resources of Sydney and adjoining towns are unlimited, and if developed properly will result beneficially to all. But let every one who is not a maker of industries keep away from the Mecca of Canada, until there is some thing worthy of their pilgrimages.

DUKE AND DUCHESS NEED HAVE NO FEAR.

Anarchist Leader in Patterson, N. J. Says that no Attempt Will be Made to Assassinate Them While Travelling Through Canada.

New York, July 18.—Fearing that the little group of anarchists in this city may hatch some plot against the life of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall while they are in Canada, the officers of the Canadian Secret Service are watching their movements narrowly. Peter Esteve, editor of Patterson's anarchist weekly newspaper, and the leading spirit of the group, was in the city yesterday attending a meeting of East Side Anarchists. He said: "If the Canadians have sent a man to spy into our circle they are making a mistake that people made when Humbert was assassinated. They think that members of the group draw lots to see who will do the killing. As a matter of fact, we do not work that way. The group is organized to spread the doctrine of anarchy. The members can act as they please about undertaking missions like that of Bresci. Our particular group is not interested in England political affairs. Most of the members are Italians, and the evils of the Italian Government are so great that none of us have time to undertake missions in other countries. The Canadians need not fear. If we wanted to make trouble for the prospective English rulers, all the spies they might send could find out nothing of our plans. We would make no plans. Someone would strike on his own responsibility."

Why Catarrhzone Cures Catarrh
Because it is carried by the air you breathe to diseased parts, because it destroys the germ life that maintains the diseased condition, because it powerfully stimulates the mucous membrane of its normal action, because through its oxidizing power it burns up rapidly the old tissues and stimulates the formation of new healthy tissues. Catarrhzone is an absolute specific for Catarrh of every form, and never fails to cure. Catarrhzone is the only remedy sold with a guarantee. At all dealers, 25c and $1.00.

The schooner Rowland, of Parrsboro, N. S., coal laden, is lying on the bottom of the Bay of Fundy, about three miles off Partridge Island. Her captain is a patient at the General Public Hospital and the crew have found quarters, for the time being, at the Seaman's Mission, Prince William street. The reason of it all is that the Rowland, Wednesday at noon, collided with the steamer Pawnee, in a thick fog, when each was making for St. John harbor, and the schooner sank within ten minutes after the collision. No lives were lost.
