visiting her cousin, Mrs John B Hawthorn.

William Walsh, left by last evening's train for a visit among friends at St. John and Truro.

Judge Gregory, who has been on a trip to British Columbia, is expected home on Saturday.

A H Rowley of the Bank of Nova Scotia, is expected home from Boston early next week.

Miss May Rowley of Marysville has returned from a pleasant visit among friends in St. John.

The engagement is announced of Captain Fred C. Jones, of St. John, to Miss Bertie Smith of St. Stephen.

Rev. O. S. Newnam of Christ church has been appointed Canon to the Cathedral in Fredericton.—St Stephen Courier.

Rev George M Campbell and Mrs
Campbell moved into the Centenary church parsonage on Princess street, St John, yesterday.

daughters of New York were at the Queen yesterday and left this morning for Yarmouth, whence they will take passage by steamer for home. Mrs Perkins is the wife of a former Frederictonian who has resided in New York for thirty years.

Perfect Art.

"That making an artificial eye for a pug dog was quite a feat in optical science."

"It was. I understand it was so natural even the beast itself couldn't see through the deception."—Philadelphia Times.

In the Near Future.

Old Friend—And so both of your children are studying professions?

Hostess—Yes, my daughter is in a polytechnic college studying mechanical engineering, and my son is in Paris learning dressmaking.—New York Weekly.

Impossible.

Smith—Say, Sappy, what's the trouble between you and Bragg? He says the next time he sees you he'll knock some sense into that head of yours.

Saphead—Huh! He can't do it.—Philadelphia Record.

The Twentieth Century Girl.

Mother—Did he propose, darling?

Daughter—No, mother, not quite.

"You are hardly bashful enough yet.
But don't be discouraged, dear. With time and practice bashfulness will come."

—L.C.

Unsafe Combination.

"This is our latest novelty," said the manufacturer proudly. "Good work, isn't it?"

"Not bad," replied the visitor, "but you can't hold a candle to the goods we make."

"Oh. Are you in this line too?"

"No. We make gunpowder."—Philadelphia Press.

Taking Advantage of the Craze.

"What are you doing, Josslyn?" asked his wife.

"The idea has just struck me," replied the poet, who was overhauling the pigeonholes in his desk and extracting various lots of moldy papers marked "Rejected manuscripts," "that it might be a good thing to put out a rummage edition of poems."—Chicago Tribune.

His Fate.

"Dear me, that was terrible! Man fell overboard in midocean the other day and never was seen again!" said Hicks.

"Drowned?" asked Mrs. Hicks sympa-thetically.

"Oh, no; of course not," said Hicks
ironically. "Sprained his ankle probably."—London Tit-Bits.

Expensive Paintings.

Mrs. O'Callahan—Oi don't see whoy oll paintin's are so very expensive.

Mrs. O'Hoolahan—Nor Oi, but they are! Oi had to buy a whole box av soap before the groceryman would give me that wan over the mantel.—Brooklyn Eagle.
