THE DEATH RECORD.

Chas. Hughes Victim of Heart Trouble at Huntsville, Alabama.

MISS SEGEE PASSES AWAY AT BOSTON.

Remains of Both will be Brought Home for Interment—a City Death.

Chas. Hughes.

Mr. W. T. Whitehead, M. P. P. Sunday received a telegram from Miss Bertha Hughes at Huntsville, Alabama, conveying the sad news of the death there of her brother, Charles Hughes, youngest son of Rev. B. N. Hughes, for many years a Baptist clergyman at St. Marys. Miss Hughes is a trained nurse and had her brother, who was a victim of heart trouble, with her in Alabama, hoping that a change of climate would help him, but the disease made rapid progress and the end came yesterday. Father, mother and three sons, one of them the late George A. Hughes, barrister of this city, have fallen victims to death within the past few years. The remaining members of the family are three daughters, one of whom is a missionary in Burmah, another the wife of an Episcopal clergyman in New York, and Miss Bertha Hughes, the nurse, who is expected to arrive here at noon Wednesday with the remains of her brother, which will be taken to Mr. Whitehead's residence whence it will probably be interred, although the funeral arrangements have not yet been made. Mr. Whitehead will meet Miss Hughes and her charge at McAdam, and announcement of the funeral will be made later. The deceased young man was under twenty years of age and Miss Good, a student at the University is a cousin.

Miss Evangeline Segoe.

The death occurred at Boston, Saturday night, after a long illness from consumption of Miss Evangeline A. Segoe, youngest daughter of Robert B. Segoe, formerly of Fredericton. The remains will arrive here by the western train Tuesday and will be taken to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Segoe, Brunswick street. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Mrs. Rankine Bolter.

Margaret wife of Rankine Bolter, Northumberland street died Sunday of hemorrhage of the brain aged 38 years, and the funeral will take place tomorrow at 8 a. m., from St. Dunstan's church, Undertaker George W. Adams in charge. Deceased leaves a number of children.

John F. Teed.

The death occurred at Dorchester, Saturday, of John F. Teed, aged 70 years. He was a well known contractor, and his surviving sons include Mariner G. Teed, barrister, Dorchester, son-in-law of Judge Hamilton; Rev. Arthur W. Teed, Richmond, N. B.; J. A. Francis Teed, M. D., Dorchester and Bedford B. Teed, barrister, Sackville.

Mrs. E. B. Chandler.

Mrs. Harriet Hansard Chandler, widow of the late Edward B. Chandler, Jr., of Dorchester, died at Toronto Friday. The deceased lady was a daughter of the late Archdeacon Coster of this city, and an aunt of Mrs. John Black.

MARYSVILLE'S SECOND VICTORY.

Hockey Team from the Cotton Towns Again Downed the Woodstockers.

A Woodstock dispatch says:—The second game of hockey between the Century team, of this town, and the Marysville seven was played Friday night and again the latter won by a score of 3 goals to 2. The teams lined up as follows:

WOODSTOCK.	MARYSVILLE.
Williams	goal
McLenn	point
Drysdale	coverpoint
Connell	Black
Loane	H Stephenson
S Pickles	forwards
J Pickles	Robertson
	E Stephenson

The game was the roughest and most closely contested ever played in this town. The visitors are the best hockey players who have as yet met the Woodstock team. Captain Harry Stephenson and Black, played the star game for the visitors, although the latter is accused of slashing and holding. The two boys played their positions well. The two goals were shot by Loane and S. Pickles. In the first half a dispute over a goal nearly terminated the game, but the town goal judge claimed the shot was high. In the second half, J. Pickles passed the puck through from the back of the goal and it was accidentally kicked through by the goal tender, but the Marysville judge's decision was no goal. The game really was a tie, 3 all. B. F. Macleod was referee.

HOME FROM THE WAR.

Two Wounded St. John Soldiers Landed at Halifax.

The Elder-Dempster steamer Lusitania, which arrived at Halifax on Saturday at midnight, brought 17 invalided soldiers from South Africa. Among them are B. R. Armstrong and F. W. Combs of St. John, Sergeant Hulme, A. Delisle and N. T. Coby of Toronto, and E. Sherman Danby and wife of Winnipeg. Mr. Danby fell in love with a concert singer while he sojourned in London. He married, and whatever other Canadians who went to South Africa may have obtained, Mr. Danby at least got a prize. Mr. Danby was a member of B squadron in the second contingent. Mr. Coby, one of the Toronto men, who has obtained a commission in the Middlesex Regiment, is here on furlough. The western invalided men left for home by Monday afternoon's Maritime express. The St. John men left by the morning express. All the men look to be in the pink of condition, and the St. John and Toronto men are equal to the best of them. Mr. Armstrong, who lost a leg at Middleberg, has been fitted with a wooden leg, which he uses so deftly that one would hardly know that he is crippled. He and Combs arrived at St. John this afternoon and were given an enthusiastic reception.

Trooper Armstrong, who is well known in Fredericton as a former University student, in conversation with a Telegraph representative at Halifax Sunday, was very modest in his reply to a question concerning his reception by Queen Victoria. "It was awfully kind and thoughtful for her to call me up and speak to me as she did; it brought up strong emotions, I can tell you, and my comrades felt it as much as I did."

"Yes, she asked me where I came from, how I was wounded, how my wound was progressing and several other questions. She said I was a brave man and then remarked 'you must be tired.' "She then ordered a seat brought me and instructed one of her staff to see that I received every attention while in England. It was something worth losing a leg for, and I don't think there was a happier man in all England at that moment than myself. Her Majesty had a very clear and distinct voice and, although she spoke in a very low tone, every word was so clear that all could hear."

THE FENCES MUST GO.

Kewick Literary Club Hold an Indignation Meeting.

The last session of the Kewick Ridge Literary Club, held in the superior school house March 1st, was of an unique character. It resolved itself into an indignation meeting, and a general protest against the custom of keeping on the road fences in the winter. These caused the heavy snow drifts and general blockades of the roads.

Rev. Mr. Howard, in a forcible and convincing speech denounced the present selfish and backward system as both foolish and criminal. Doctors, mail-carriers and ministers were constantly hindered in their public service and in fact the entire country suffered in consequence.

Rev. Mr. Ross followed in the same strain and also pointed out the urgent need of horse sheds in connection with the churches. It was not necessary in these respects to be behind the rest of the world.

The Literary Club strongly favored improvement and reform, and the following resolution was passed almost unanimously:

"Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting the road fences are a public nuisance, and that this grievance should be immediately remedied by having the fences put back from the road or thrown down."
