Miners Have Yielded to Demand of the Men.

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 6.—The coal miners' strike at Pictou is settled again, this time undoubtedly in favor of the men. They asked that the miners receive an advance of twelve per cent. Also that miners' helpers get 25 cents a day advance and merchants 50 cents a day. This was the men's demand in full. The Drummond management agreed to the demand late Saturday night and the Acadia managers did so on Saturday afternoon. Had the Acadia people not given it, the Drummond miners said they would have ordered a sympathy strike. Everybody will be at work on Monday morning. Nothing was stipulated in the agreement about further demands this year, but it is generally understood that the miners will not ask for more money this year.

THE DEATH ROLL.

Homes in City and Country Visited by the Solemn Messenger.

William N. H. Clements, a well known farmer of Douglas, died at his home at that place Sunday morning. His demise was the indirect result of an accident which befell him some time ago, and was quite sudden and unexpected. He was out attending to his duties on Friday, and was taken ill the following day. Everything possible was done to relieve his sufferings, but without avail, and he breathed his last at six o'clock on Sunday morning. The deceased was descended from an old loyalist family and was very highly esteemed by all who knew him. He was in his 64th year and leaves in addition to a widow, a family of two sons and five daughters, one of the latter being a bride of only a few days. The children are Mrs. J. W. Ramey, of Portland; Frederick, Mina F., Alleyn Y., Ada G., Ralph, W. H., and Stella at home. He also leaves three brothers and one sister, viz.: Frederick W., of Kingsclear; Geo. H., J. S. Boies, and Mrs. Brercliffe, of Montana. The funeral will take place on Tuesday, at 2:30 o'clock, with service at the Stone church, Douglas, Rev. Benson Belliss officiating. Robert B. Adams has charge of the arrangements.

Miss Beatrice Sanson.

The death took place Saturday night from consumption at the home of her brother-in-law, Dr. Gregory, this city, of Miss Beatrice Sanson, aged twenty-eight years. She was a daughter of the late John Sanson, of Stanley, and had only returned from California New Year's Eve. Besides a devoted mother, she leaves two brothers and four sisters, Major John Sanson and Robert S. Sanson, of Stanley; Mrs. Dr. Gregory, this city; Mrs. David J. Griffiths, Lincolnton; Mrs. Thomas Griffiths, Carnigan, and Miss Elizabeth Sanson, of Stanley. The remains were taken to Stanley Sunday morning, and the funeral and interment will take place Tuesday morning at ten o'clock. Robert B. Adams has charge of the funeral arrangements.

Death of a child.

Ella May, the three-month-old child of Mr. Thomas Edwards, died at Douglas Sunday from congestion. The funeral of the little one will take place Tuesday at one o'clock. Robert B. Adams has charge of the arrangements.

Death of Father Farrell.

Rev. Father Patrick Farrell of Peterborough, Quebec, died at the Mater Misericordiae home, St. John, on Saturday afternoon after a short illness. The deceased who was seventy-seven years of age, was born at County Down, Ireland, and was one of the three priests ordained at St. Dunstan's church here when St. Dunstan's was a cathedral. Father Farrell was curate here for a short time, but for the last thirty years was stationed at Peterborough. His mission was a large one, including the churches at Ormiston and Fredericton Junction. The deceased was greatly beloved by his brother clergymen and by his parishioners. Bishop Casey at St. Dunstan's church yesterday referred in a touching manner to Father Farrell's life and labors. The funeral will take place at St. John tomorrow morning.

A PITIABLE CASE.

A Scantly Clad Soldier Creates Excitement on King Street.

A short course soldier from the military school created quite a commotion on King street Saturday evening. He had been imbibing more than his share of rum and was about ten o'clock broke out of barracks, and shortly afterwards made his appearance on York street. He wore a fur cap but was minus overcoat, and waistcoat. His condition was most pitiable and it is little wonder that when he dashed into Long's hotel a moment later, and excitedly enquired for Mr. Long, that the guests of that well known hostelry thought themselves confronted by an escaped lunatic. Upon being told that Mr. Long was no longer in the flesh, he made a bolt for the door and before anyone could intercept him was scurrying up King street at a ten second clip. A telephone message was sent to the guard at the barracks, and several young men who saw the poor fellow leave the hotel boarded Coburn's delivery team and started in pursuit. They saw him in an alleyway near Tabor & O'Neill's factory, and going in found him crouching behind a lumber pile, shivering from the cold. They saw him with an overcoat and after much coaxing was induced to board the sled. They started to drive to the barracks but on reaching the corner of Carleton street, met a file of the guard sent out to look for the wanderer in response to the telephone message, and he was turned over to them. Several persons who saw the young man declare that he was suffering from an attack of delirium tremens, and surprise is expressed that it was possible for a person in his condition to escape from the barracks on a bitterly cold night and go prowling about the streets with scarcely enough clothing to cover his body.

TO WELCOME OUR HEROES.

The Boys Returning on the Roanoke Castle Will Have a Grand Reception.

The citizens' committee having in charge the arrangements for a demonstration in honor of our soldier boys returning from South Africa in the steamer Roanoke Castle, held a meeting on Saturday afternoon to arrange the details for the same. It was decided that three members of the committee, Col. Loggie, Major Lipeest and Geo. Y. Dibble, meet the boys at Fredericton Junction.

On their arrival here the boys will be escorted to the Opera House where short addresses of welcome will be delivered by Mayor Beckwith, Col. Loggie and Rev. G. M. Campbell. The returning heroes together with those who have previously returned will be invited to take seats on the platform. Officers of the militia and the members of the citizens' committee will meet the men at the train.

The banquet to be tendered the heroes at the Y. M. C. A. hall by the Daughters of the Empire and Soldiers' Wives' League on the same evening, promises to be a brilliant affair. Tables will be spread for about 150 persons, and about that number of invitations have already been issued. A strong committee of energetic ladies have the affair in charge and no pains will be spared to make it a grand success.

The people of Kingsclear are preparing a grand welcome for Gunner Fred H. Everett, a Kingsclear boy, returning on the Roanoke Castle.

A Halifax despatch to the Sun says: There is considerable decorations about the city, but nothing to the same extent as on the occasion of the arrival of the Idaho. The provincial building, military headquarters and City Hall are decorated with bunting. If the Roanoke Castle arrives in the afternoon, the disembarkation of the troops will be deferred till 10 o'clock the next morning, and early in the afternoon the two military trains bearing the men will start for the west.

The contingent will march through the streets from the dock yard to the armouries, where a lunch will be given. The lunch is tendered by the imperial authorities, but the dominion government is contributing fifty cents per head towards the expense. The cooking will be done by the messmen of the Royal Artillery, and the waiters will be the sergeants of the garrison and militia regiments here.

Not Yet in Sight.

(Special to the Daily Herald.) Halifax, Jan. 7.—There was no sign of the steamer Roanoke Castle, with the second Canadian contingent on board, at one o'clock today.

Young-McWha Nuptials.

The St. Stephen Courier has the following account of the marriage of Miss Eva Young, sister of Mrs. P. M. McDonald of this city, to Mr. McWha:

A quiet wedding was solemnized in the Presbyterian church on New Year's morning when Rev. F. W. Murray of Milltown united in marriage Miss Catherine Eva Young and Mr. Walter J. McWha. Only the relatives and a few friends of the happy young couple were present. There were no bridesmaids or groomsmen. The bride was attired in a travelling suit of dark putonia broadcloth with hat to match trimmed with mink fur and petunia velvet. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. McWha drove to the C. P. R., depot and left for Boston where they will spend several days. On their return they will reside with Captain and Mrs. Andrew McWha on Porter street, where the bride will receive her friends on Wednesday and Thursday, January 16th and 17th.

Ferris Knox.

The Blaine correspondent of the Bangor news writes:

"The marriage and reception of Mr. Lemuel O. Ferris of Grand Lake, Queens Co., New Brunswick, that took place at the residence of Chas. Colwell, on New Year's eve, was a very pleasant occasion, a large number of invited guests being present. Rev. James P. Hollowell officiated. Miss Bertha Knox, the bride has a host of friends who have known her since childhood, and the offerings presented of useful and valuable articles were generously bestowed upon her. On the following morning she accompanied her husband to his home in New Brunswick."

Editor Clarke is Jealous.

(St. Stephen Courier.) Many homes throughout Charlotte were made glad at the happy New Year time by the receipt of a handsome representation of the editor of the St. Andrews Beacon: neatly printed on a card containing seasonable greetings. The picture evidently shows the editor as he appeared at a time long since gone by, for a suggestion of hair appears on the head. It is a neat conception, however, and will make many of us sigh because we are not pretty and have not a printing press by which that beauty might be made generally manifest.

Catarrh Assurance.

That's what you want. This is how you get it. Snuffs won't give it to you, neither will ointments or washes, they simply reach the door of the disease. Catarrh ozone unlike all these reaches the very root, and the branches cannot escape its power. It is bound to cure for it is carried by the air you breathe; now isn't this common sense. Here's proof for you: Mr. C. M. Raney writes Sept. 1900: "I feel assured there is only one treatment for Catarrh and that is Catarrh-ozone." Catarrh-ozone is pleasant—sets quickly cures absolutely—money back if you don't find it so. Druggists sell it at $1.00 or direct by mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., Hartford, Conn.

"The Twentieth Century"

There is a great deal of talk and fuss about the twentieth century. This may be all very well, but Lucy & Co. have still very warm feelings for the nineteenth century, and they are not going to express an opinion on the twentieth until they have seen more of it, and learn what it is going to do for them. Their watches are all gone, and now they are engaged in cutting prices to cash buyers. They have a special line of boys' nap referees, the best value ever offered in this city.
