The News of the City and Vicinity

SINCE YESTERDAY.

General, Social, Personal and Political Items of Interest.

Weather Probs.

(Special to Daily Herald)

Toronto, Jan. 25.— Sleet or snow to-night with increasing winds; Saturday, high northerly and north westerly winds, and turning much colder.

Washington, Jan. 25.— Eastern States and Northern N. Y., fair, colder tonight; Saturday, fair, high northwesterly winds and gales, diminishing at night.

Col. Robinson's Condition.

Col. Beverly Robinson who is seriously ill at Bishop Kingdon's residence, is somewhat improved to-day, but he is in a very weak condition.

A Recent Death

J. W. Flemming who died at Folly Village Col. Co., N. S., Monday, was father of Horace A. Fleming, formerly manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Woodstock, and another son Rev. David Fleming, Presbyterian clergyman at Strathcona, N. W. T., is married to a daughter of Rev. Mr. Teasdale of this city.

Acted Promptly.

Hon. C. H. LaBillois, acting upon a suggestion made by the Fredericton Tourist Association, has ordered a register for the parliament buildings. It will be placed in charge of caretaker Lister, and all visitors will be invited to record their names and addresses. The Chief Commissioner is to be commended for the promptness in which he has taken the matter up.

Golden Wedding.

Mr and Mrs Walter Piercy of Harvey Station, observed the 50th anniversary of their marriage on the 22nd inst. Nearly all the members of their large family were present, one son, James coming from the Pacific Coast, where he is engaged in mining. A number of friends were also present, some of whom saw them married half a century ago. A bountiful repast was served after which an address was read by the Rev. J. A. McLean, congratulating them on their long and useful lives. Mr and Mrs Piercy are both hale and hearty.

Won at Hampton.

The Fredericton curlers defeated the Hampton club yesterday 48 to 38. The score was:

Hawthorne	10	McAndrews	9
Hoegg	10	Wilson	13
Rutter	17	Fowler	6
Randolph	11	Stewart	10

The Fredericton players returned home last night much pleased with their trip. They defeated St. Stephen, St. Andrews and Hampton clubs, and succumbed only to the Thistles.

Death of a Former Frederictonian.

S. A. Belyea, today received word of the death at Somerville Mass. of Mrs. Eliza McGregor, at one time a resident of this city. Deceased was a Miss Lyons, sister of the late Capt Lyons. She was born in Kingston, Kings Co. in 1826. The body will be brought here for interment, arriving in the noon train to-morrow and then will be taken to the cemetery at Oromocto.

Major Campbell at the Front.

Major Herbert Montgomery Campbell, formerly of this city, had command of the 76th battery of Royal Field Artillery in the South African campaign. He was with Ian Hamilton's column in the march from Bloemfontein to Pretoria and took part in a number of sharp engagements. The major is still in South Africa with his command, and when last heard from was on the line of communication near Preteria.

Our Provincial Museum.

The Boardman collection of stuffed birds and animals, recently purchased by the Provincial government, is expected to arrive here in a few days. It is said to be the intention of the government to have the collection placed in the old supreme court chamber of the Parliament building in charge of Caretaker Lister. It is certainly a good idea and the plan will no doubt meet with the hearty approval of the public.

Has Seen Them Both.

Police Magistrate Marsh was among those present at the proclamation ceremonies of King Edward to-day. This is the second time the Colonel has witnessed such a ceremony, he being present when a small boy at the proclamation in the province of Queen Victoria's accession to the throne.

A GOLD WATCH

Presented to Gunner Boone by the Firemen Last Evening.

At the central hose station last evening, Gunner Miles Boone, who lately returned from South Africa, was presented with a beautiful watch, suitably engraved, by the city fire department, of which Mr. Boone is a valued member.

At 8.30 Chief Engineer Lipsett took the chair and after a few appropriate remarks called on His Worship Mayor Beckwith to present the watch. In making the presentation, on behalf of the firemen Mayor Beckwith referred to the services of Gunner Boone and his company in South Africa, and to the way the firemen of Fredericton always responded to the call of duty. He congratulated Gunner Boone on having acted in such a way as to merit the confidence of the fireman. His Worship stated he would always be happy to do anything in his power for the firemen.

Gunner Boone in a neat speech thanked his comrades for their kindness in presenting the watch which he said he would always keep as a souvenier of his brother firemen.

A vote of thanks was presented to Mayor Beckwith for his kindness in being present and for other kindnesses received from him.

After some time spent in song and story the gathering broke up. The watch is a beautiful gold open-faced one, suitably inscribed.

TO SERVE THE KING.

Oath of Office Administered to the Lieutenant Governor and His Advisers.

INTERESTING CEREMONY AT THE LEGISLATIVE CHAMBER.

A Large Crowd of Spectators in Attendance

JUDGE HANINGTON ADMINISTERED THE OATH — R. C. R. I. COULD NOT FIRE A SALUTE.

The Assembly Chamber in the parliament building was the scene of an interesting ceremony this morning, when His Honor the Lieutenant Governor and his constitutional advisers were reworn into office and formarly took the oath of allegiance to His Majesty King Edward VII. There was a large gathering of spectators to witness the ceremony, the galleries being crowded to their fullest capacity, a good percentage of those present being students of the Normal School and University. A number of ladies and gentleman also occupied seats on the floor of the house among those noticed being the following:

Alex. Gibson, M.P., Dr. J.R. Inch, Rev G. M. Campbell, John L. Marsh, J Hamilton Reid, C. L. Smith, (Woodstock) DeLancy Robinson, W. T. Whitehead, M. P. P., G. N. Babbitt, J. D Phinney, K. C., and others.

The Lieutenant Governor entered the chamber a few minutes after eleven o'clock, preceded by Sergt. at Arms Rutter, Clerk Rainsford and Clerk Assistant Dibblee. His Honor was accompanied by his A. D. C. Capt. Winslow and Private Secretary Barker, Justice Hanington, J. H. Dickson, clerk of the executive council, Deputy Provincial Secretary Tibbits, and Hon. Messrs. Dunn, LaBillois, Farris, McKeown and Hill.

After His Honor and party had taken up position near the clerk's desk, the deputy provincial secretary opened the proceedings by reading the following telegrams and reveral proclamations:

Fredericton, 22nd Jan. 1901.

To His Excellency
The Governor General, Ottawa.

I beg Your Excellency will transmit, on behalf of my Government and myself, as well as the people of this Province, an expression of the profound grief which is felt at the death of our beloved Queen, and of deep sympathy with the Royal family in their sad bereavement.

A. R. McCLELAN,
Lieut.-Gov. of N. B.

To which His Excelleney was pleased to make the following reply:

Ottawa, 23d January, 1901.

To Lieutenant Governor,
Fredericton, N. B.

I beg to acknowledge your telegram expressing the sympathetic grief of the government and people of New Brunswick for the death of our Great Queen, and will transmit your message at once.

MINTO.

The first proclamation read was from Lord Minto and proclaimed the High and Mighty Prince Albert Edward Prince of Wales "our only lawful and rightful Liege Lord Edward the Seventh."

The concluding paragraph of the document was as follows:

"And I do hereby require and command all persons whomsoever to yield obedience and govern themselves accordingly. Beseeching God by whom Kings do reign to bless the Royal King Edward the Seventh with long and happy years to reign over us."

The second proclamation from His Excellency proclaimed that all persons holding office or employment under the crown at the time of the sovereign's demise, shall as soon as possible take the oath of allegiance before the proper officers.

A proclamation from the lieutenant governor in regard to the new sovereign was also read by Mr. Tibbitts.

When the reading of the proclamations had been concluded, the oath of office was read to the Lieutenant Governor by Clerk Dickson and His Honor was sworn in by Judge Hanington and afterwards took the oath of allegiance to King Edward VIII.

After being sworn the Lieutenant Governor was escorted by Judge Hanington to the speaker's chair, and administered the oath of office to Hon. Messrs Dunn, LaBillois, Farris, McKeown and Hill in the order named.

After the Governor and his advisers had signed the roll, Mr. Tibbits read a proclamation from His Honor, continuing in office all persons holding positions or employment under the Crown at the time of the late sovereign's demise, and commanding them to at once take the customary oath before the proper officers.

The ceremony was brought to a close with the national anthem from the band of the 71st Regiment, stationed on the floor of the House.

At the close of the proceedings the flags on the Parliament building, and elsewhere about the city were raised to the mast head in honor of the new King.

The ceremony was to have concluded with a salute of twenty-one guns fired by a detachment of the R. C. R. I. but there was a hitch somewhere and to the great disappointment of all, this important part of the program was not carried out. The military authorities have two excuses to offer (1) that they were out of ammunition and (2) that none of the men about the barracks can be trusted with the job of loading and firing the two old six pounders belonging to the military school.

The interior of the legislative chamber where the ceremony took place is appropriately draped in black and purple out of respect to the memory of our deceased sovereign. The work was done by order of Chief Commissioner LaBillois under the supervision of Fred. B. Edgecombe.

The local Tory organ has a poor opinion of the legislators of New Brunswick. Of course we must admit that the local House has deteriorated since the days of Pinder and Pitts, but after all the present members are not such a bad sort as Mr Black's newspaper would have us believe. The sum of the whole matter, the Tory organ thinks is that, "What we suffer from is too much politics and too little business." Nobody will be disposed to quarrel with this declaration, provided we are permitted to apply it to the learned and lofty editor from whom we quote.

Coun. Lounsbury of Newcastle, is proposed as the next mayor of that town. He is a York county man, a native of Queensbury, and represented that parish in the municipal council a couple of terms before removing to Newcastle, where he has prospered.

January has been a fateful month for the royal family. The Queen's father died in January, as did his father George III. So did the Queen's son-in-law, the Prince of Battenburg, her grandson the Duke of Clarence, and now the Queen herself.

MONTREAL FIRE.

Another Conflagration Entailing a Loss of $300,000.

(Special to the Daily Herald.)

Montreal, Jan. 25.— This city again suffers from costly visitation of fire, this time to the extent of three hundred thousand dollars.

At 4 o'clock this morning flames issued from the warehouse of D A McPherson & Co., William street, in which was stored twenty five thou and boxes of cheese.

The building was soon destroyed, and fire spread rapidly to the adjoining warehouses of W. A. Johnson and Nicholas Pitt, which were also barned.

Hodgson Bros. warehouse near by was flooded with water, and filled with smoke.

Of the forty thousand boxes stored in this building more than half are ruined.

McPherson's insurance is $219,000 on stock $11,000 on building and $2,000 on plant, Hodgson Bros., $10,000, loss fully covered by insurance.

Three hundred thousand dollars will about cover entire loss

JINGLES AND JESTS.

In Lapland.

They sat together, side by side,
And talked inside the doorway
Of Lapland, where the Lapps abide,
Northeast of Norway.

"No winter there a horse could spend,
'Twould freeze his very mane, dear,
And so the natives must depend
Upon the rein-deer."

Her breath the maiden quickly caught,
And then she murmured, "Oh, dear!"
And twittered saucily, "I thought
It was the snow, dear!"

And then, in just a jiffy more
(Where maidens oft by hap land,
And where, of truth, she'd been before)
She was in lap-land.

Getting Around It.

"How did Grinner's monologue go at the amateur entertainment last night?" asked the managing editor.

"Flat," answered the reporter. "It would hardly do to say so, I guess." So the next issue of The Morning Light contained this paragraph in the review of the amateur show: "Mr. Algy Grinner delivered a humorous monologue. He held his face perfectly straight even during the telling of his best jokes. The audience was in perfect sympathy with the performer."

A Severe Lesson.

"I suppose that when you are facing the audience across the footlights you forget everything except your art?"

"Well," answered Mr. Stormington Barnes, "I used to talk that way about it. But I once had a treasurer who tried to take advantage of my forgetfulness, so I endeavor to express my artistic enthusiasm, as it were — "ttle more conservatively."
