

CORRESPONDENTS' CHAT.

Interesting Budget from Herald Writers in the Country Districts.

WEST GLASSVILLE.

(Staff correspondence Daily Herald.)

April 25.—The roads are in a far better condition than usual for this time of year. The recent rain has transformed the grey robes of the fields to a beautiful green verdure.

Our Sunday school was reorganized last Sunday. Mrs. John McLachlan still holds the office of superintendent, and Mrs. Daniel Jones is assistant superintendent and Robert Ronald is secretary. The school is divided into four classes, the teachers are, Mrs. John McLachlan, Katie Ronald, Lily Wilson, and Maude Jones, Katie McLachlan is teacher of the Normal class.

There is to be a pie-social in the hall this evening. A large gathering is expected, and there are many beautiful wreaths and delicious pies being created. We hope no one will meet disappointment. The proceeds will go towards the finishing of the hall.

Mrs. David Bremster has returned from an extended visit to Portland, Lewiston and Boston. She arrived home yesterday accompanied by her little grandson, Alphonso Niles, of Woodstock.

Delbert Cox, of Bristol, paid us a flying visit the first of this week.

Mr and Mrs Robert Brewster and family will move to Windsor very soon, where they have secured a home and will reside in the future.

Rainsford Gibson, of Bristol who has been in this place, for the purpose of laying the new floor in the hall and putting on the woodwork, finished his work in good order, and returned to his home Monday.

Mr Geo. Bailey is visiting friends in this place.

Dr Jan. Ison is the guest of his cousin, Mrs John Ronald.

CORK SETTLEMENT.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald.)

April 20.—Jeremiah Coholan, and Thomas Maloney have returned home from the lumber woods, and we are glad to see their smiling countenances once more.

Thomas Donahoe succeeded in hauling in all his logs to Gardner's Creek, a tributary of the St. John river, and he is looking up a crew of men for driving.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Donahoe jr. have been visiting this place and were the guests of Margaret Gorman.

Our School is progressing very successfully, under our present teacher Miss McGrann.

James Driscoll had the misfortune to lose a very fine cow.

Mrs P Owens from Rusiagornish has been visiting in this vicinity and was the guest of Mrs John Maloney.

The latest news that some of our young lumbermen brought from Maine was that pickles were a great thing to give a man an appetite in the morning.

Some of our young men seem well pleased to hear of Miss Rose Kennedy returning home again.

Our popular merchant, Wm. Murphy, is doing a rushing business this spring. He has just returned from Fredericton with his spring stock.

CENTRAL KESWICK RIDGE.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald.)

April 22.—The fields are beginning to look green and with a few warm sunny days they would don their summer dress. The roads are not in very good shape for pleasure driving at present.

Charles Key who has been laid up all winter has got out again. He went to St Marys last week and spent a few days with his friend Charles Morgan.

Miss Bertha Jewett who has been spending the winter at Backsport, Me., returned home on Friday last.

Ritchie McCollough has gone to Nova Scotia with the intention of working at the carpenter trade.

Dr. Weaver is going to leave about the first of May. He has had a very successful year's practice. He is troubled with his eyes and the long drives he has to take is harmful to them, so he intends to seek a more congenial practice.

Mr and Mrs Robert Long are receiving the congratulations of their friends on a domestic event which occurred at their home on April 2nd—a girl.

A little stranger made its appearance at the home of Herman D McKeen today with the intention of staying—it is a boy.

Rev A B Ross and wife, who have been boarding during the winter, intend moving into the parsonage again soon.

Rev. Geo Howard was laid up with a bad cold for a few days but we are glad to report him able to attend to his duties again.

A T Coburn is suffering from an attack of shingles. Dr. Weaver is attending to his wants.

Miss Bessie Howard, who is teaching the school at Burr's Corner, spent Saturday with her parents at McKeen's corner.

The primary department of our school is without a teacher at present, on account of the measles.

NASHWAAK VILLAGE.

(Special correspondence to the Herald.)

James Cowperthwaite, who broke his knee cap on the drive a few weeks ago, is not doing as well as we would wish him to.

A little stranger has come to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodford McNeill. It is a girl.

Dell Gunter and family intend moving to Boiestown in a few weeks. The friends and neighbors are very sorry to lose them.

Mr James Barry is suffering with ulcers in the stomach. Dr Mullin is attending him.

Mr Michael White who has been so ill, is improving as the weather grows warmer.

Rev Thos Pierce and son Guy, spent Monday here, calling on their numerous friends.

Farming has begun as the men are returning from the drive.

Mrs Samuel Gunter is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs Benj Gunter, of Boiestown.

Mr D M Richards has gone on a trip to Campbellton.

Geo F Smith has gone to North Baldwin, where he has a situation awaiting him.

Mrs Kate Fletcher, of St Marys, is visiting friends here.

UPPER BEAR ISLAND.

(Special Correspondence to The Herald.)

April 23.—The Arabian trotting mare Maud M., lately owned by I. C. Morrison, has changed hands and is now the property of Mr Robert Jordan.

Roach Brothers commenced rafting their lumber last Monday.

C. A. Manzer and wife, Edward Morse and Mrs McElwain drove down from Central Waterville last Wednesday, and spent a day with relatives here.

Amos Lint has gone to Poquik where he intends to spend the summer in the employ of Gilman and Burden.

On Saturday the 20th, a little stranger arrived at the home of William Moores. She has come to stay.

Miss Sadie Roach of Scotch Lake, came in last week to resume attendance at our school. We are glad to note that she has entirely recovered from the effects of recent illness.

Among the passengers to land from the steamer Aberdeen, last Friday, was Mrs Clifford Lint of Poquik. She will spend a few days with her parents Mr and Mrs I Hagerman.

ZIONVILLE.

(Special correspondence to the Herald.)

April 26.—R A Logan and crew are now at work repairing Young's wharf here. They are also raising the railway bridge at McKenzie's creek and Covered Bridge. Mr Logan says it is the intention of the C E Ry Co to place a large quantity of new sleepers on the railroad this season. Mr Gibson is doing everything possible to improve both the railroad and general service of the road.

A number of our young folks gathered at Jas Bell's home last evening, where an old fashioned game of whist was played. Miss Edith Bell and her partner made the highest marks.

The Cross Creek drives got out yesterday afternoon. The main drive on the Nashwaak is expected along in about a week.

Everyone here is busy house cleaning. We expect to see every home plentifully supplied with tasty wall paper and lots of the good old whitewash.

Sore Throat and Hoarseness with their attendant dangers may be speedily averted and remedied by the use of Polson's Nerviline. Excellent to gargle with—ten times better than a mustard plaster, and more convenient for the outside, Nerviline penetrates the tissues instantly, soothes the pain, allays inflammation, and cures sore throat and hoarseness simply because that's what it is made for. The large 25 cent bottle of Nerviline is unexcelled as a household liniment. It cures everything.

This Week's Attractions.

Spring is here in full swing. Beautiful weather prevails everywhere. You will be wanting new garments. Why not study economy? Every cent you save is net earned. We are here with an immense stock of seasonable goods, and we guarantee every purchaser to save 20c. to 40c. on every dollar when dealing at our four big stores. We have already explained to our patrons why we can do it. The modern system of selling and buying for cash does it all. We do not have to charge cash buyers for long and loose credit customers. Bear this in mind, and read what we propose to do this week.
