

THE CHURCH SCHOOL

Interesting Closing Exercises This Morning.

PRIZE WINNERS AND PROGRAMME OF EXERCISES.

Many Interested Spectators Witnessed the Proceedings.

The church school on King street, formerly the Madras school, closed this morning for the summer holidays. Interesting exercises were held in the presence of a number of visitors, including Bishop and Mrs. Kingdon, Rev. Canon Roberts, Dean and Mrs. Partridge, Mrs. Phair, Mrs. John Cameron, Auditor General Beek, Sheriff Sterling, Principal Mullin and others.

In the advanced department taught by Miss Myra Sherman, the program was as follows:

Prayer and hymn by the school.
Lessons by the school.
Reading by the pupils.
Chorus—Sons of the British Empire.
Bible work by the pupils.
Chorus—Only a Simple Balad.
Lessons in Geography.
Chorus—Sweet and Low.
March by pupils of both departments to the tune of "The Boys of the Old Brigade."

At the conclusion of the exercises Bishop Kingdon presented the prizes and certificates to Helen Bushnell, Gertrude Smith, Alice Clynick, Mary Howell and Mary Bushnell. The prize for Bible work was won by Helen Bushnell.

After a few remarks by the Bishop, Dean Partridge and Sheriff Sterling, the proceedings were brought to a close by prayers and the National Anthem.

In the primary department taught by Miss Margaret Nicholson, the following program was satisfactorily carried out:

Bible work by the school.
Hymn and lesson by the school.
Reading and spelling.
Song—"Breezes Soft and Stirring," by the girls, with chorus by the school.
Spelling by primer class.
Song—"June Roses," by seven little girls with roses.
Dandelion song and march by the school.
Drill on multiplication tables by pupils of second grade.

Lullaby song by seven little girls with dolls—Dorothy Phair, Sylvia Adams, Hazel Gill, Eva Allen, Bessie Parsons, Gertrude Hoyt, Mary Lawrence, Maudie Toland.

Recitation—Three Little Lads, by Bertie Toland, Ralph McKenzie, Charlie Johnson.

Flower recitation by five little girls, Dorothy Phair, Agnes Knox, Eva Allen, Bessie Parsons, and Edna Wilson.

Soldier's March, with caps and flags, by the school. Vacation song.

The school is to reopen on August 26th.

BURT'S CORNER.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald.)

June, 24.—The sudden death of Mrs. Allen Ritchie cast a gloom over this place.

Mrs. Hiram Jones intends moving to Fredericton on Tuesday next, where she will take boarders. We know she is a most capable woman for the business.

Mr. Miner and two daughters passed through our town on Saturday on their way to Doyme Ridge where he is holding revival meetings.

Mr. Moer who is among us, from Eel River, is a guest at the Burt's Corner hotel.

Mr. Rainford, the Herald canvasser, was among us recently.

Mr. Burpee Jones will finish sawing his lumber this week.

Rev. Mr. Harding is continuing his good work. There were five baptised on Sunday.

A great many are contemplating taking the Houlton excursion in.

The school concert at Morehouse Corner was quite a success.

A strawberry festival will take place at the Methodist church, Smith's Corner, on Thursday the twenty-seventh inst.

Section Foreman Charles Jones was on a fishing excursion and had great success, he having caught about four dozen of the speckled beauties.

Prof. Dyer has been among us.

The roads are in excellent condition. Sholto Hughson has purchased a fine mare from Squire Fowler.

TEMPLE.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald.)

June 22.—The memory of the oldest inhabitant runneth not back to the time when the crops were so far as advanced as at the present time. The grass crops promise to be abundant, no winter killed spots, clover reaching to one's knee, timothy headed out, grain and potatoes coming along fine while the potato bugs are up to the standard in size and number.

A C Dow has sold his farm to Bruce Hillman, possession to be given in November.

Albion Patterson has erected a new ell adjoining his house, which will be finished with all modern conveniences.

The remains of the late Mrs. Allen Ritchie were brought here Thursday last and interred in the Hillman cemetery. Funeral service was held at the church, conducted by Rev. C. N. Barton. The late Mrs. Ritchie was a daughter of Frederick Grant. She leaves a husband and three small children, besides a father, brothers and sisters. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved ones.

Mrs. Walter Patterson and Mrs. I. Brown drove to Houlton last week for a visit with friends at that place.

Mrs. Frank Patterson arrived home last week from the U. N. B., to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Patterson.

Mrs. Elizabeth Grant is very ill at her home in this place. Very little hope is entertained of her recovery.

Fell 180 Feet.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 25.—Three painters were working on a scaffold under the upper steel arch bridge near the falls yesterday afternoon, painting when one, named Edward Clark, went to adjust a rope holding the scaffold. He let it slip and the three men were hurled downwards. Clark fell into the river 180 feet below and his body never rose. James Lannigan fell on an iron girder and, caught by his clothing, hung suspended in mid-air until rescued. His leg was broken. The third man miraculously escaped serious injury by grasping a rope and climbing safely upon the platform of the bridge.

C. P. R. Excursions.

This summer's excursions over the C. P. R. will include one to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., and to Seattle and Portland, Maine. For this tickets will be issued from July 3 to 11 for $77.20 from Fredericton and return, good until Aug. 31. The same dates and fare apply to the excursion to San Francisco for the Epworth League convention. On July 3 and 4 special return tickets at single fare, good to return until July 5, will be issued for Fort Fairfield, Caribon, Houlton and Presque Isle.—d.

Selling Well.

A large number of tickets have been sold for the moonlight excursion tomorrow night. The David Weston has been provided with extra chairs and the committee is endeavoring to make everything as comfortable as possible for those who take the sail. The 71st band accompanies the excursion and will render a choice program of music. Boat leaves wharf at 8.15 local time.—d.

The Boer War.

Marvin Nason who recently returned from Minneapolis where he had considerable experience in the show business, is now travelling through York County, exhibiting lime light moving pictures. He also carries a graphophone which adds materially to the amusement of his entertainment. A lecture on the Boer war illustrated by fine views of many of the battles and generals and other personages is a popular feature, so that an evening with Mr. Nason is both amusing and instructive. Admission 15 cents, children 10 cents.—d 1-w2. June 25.

Boys' Suits and Bargains.

Buyers of children's wear will find at Lucy's counter for boys' clothing, principally suits for boys' from four to ten years and upwards. Persons who purchase at this counter will find ready made bargains. Every suit is marked in plain figures, the prices ranging from 50 cents to $2.50. The special sale will commence Saturday morning and will close when the goods are all sold. An inspection of these suits will convince you that the prices are much below the value of the goods.
