

HUNGARY'S MILLENNIUM.

A Celebration to Last Throughout an Entire Year.

Hungary is preparing to celebrate its millennium as a State, the celebration to last from January 1, 1896, to December 31 of the same year. This millennial year will be filled with commemorations of events of interest in the long history of the Magyar realm, which for many hundreds of years, was the bulwark of Western Europe against the barbarism of the East. The year's celebration will be divided into three parts, each commemorating an epoch in the history of Hungary. The celebration proper will open with a combined session of both houses of parliament in the new hall, now nearly completed, at a cost of 16,000,000 florins, and this grand occasion will be marked by unusual pomp and ceremonies. Next will come the opening of the Pantheon at the end of Andrássy street, Buda-Pesth, when hundreds of busts and statues of Hungary's heroes and eminent men and women of the last thousand years will be placed in Hungary's Valhalla. This will be followed by the inauguration of the new Museum of Art and History, built at a cost of 3,600,000 florins, the laying of the corner stones of two new bridges to span the Danube at Buda-Pesth, and the dedication of three other great public buildings, the Palace of Justice, the Exhibition Hall and the Museum of Artistic Hand Work.

Still further to indicate the beginning of a new era in the spring two sections of the older part of the city will be remodelled on hygienic principles, and 500 new public schools throughout the country will be opened. The exhibition buildings in themselves will constitute an attraction of no ordinary kind, as in the different buildings to house the historical collections will be illustrated all the different styles of architecture that have characterized the 1,000 years of Hungary's existence as a State. In addition, the ethnographic village will be presented all the dwellings, types, characteristics, etc., of Hungary's conglomerate of nationalities, together with schools, police courts, churches, fairs and kirmesses, the whole forming a celebration of unusual interest to the scholar, the historian and ethnographer. Such an exhibition will also be of great significance, not only to Hungary, but to Europe. It will indicate, among other things, the growing sense of nationality in this great Magyar State, and the entrance upon a new era in which education and civilization, humanity and progress will represent the goals and a new order of events.—Interior Chicago.

A Great Mistake.

She—The play was excellent except for one thing.

He—And what was that?

She—The time extends over three months, and it shouldn't be more than a week.

He—I don't see why.

She—Why! Because the same servant stays through it all.—King.

New to Her.

He—I saw our old neighbor, Mr. Skinner, today.

She—Did you? What is he doing now?

He—He's interested in one of these wildcat mining companies.

She—The ideal I never knew you had to mine for wildcats.—Philadelphia Press.

Whose Hair

Your own, or a wig. If you want to keep your own hair into old age use Dr. White's Electric Comb. It cures dandruff and hair falling when everything else fails, yet costs no more than any ordinary comb. Sold on a written guarantee. Ladies size 60c, gents size 40c, fine 35c (stamps). D. N. Rose, Gen Mgr, Decatur, Ill.

Whitewashed.

An amusing joke was once played on a post commandant in Cuba who, like all other post commandants, was not popular. He had two fads. He believed in whitewash and plenty of it, asserting it to be the most effective preventive of tropical diseases ever discovered, and he was equally attached to a pet flamingo who resented being kept in captivity and showed his resentment by nipping at every soldier who passed his way. On the part of the soldier there was nothing to do but swear under his breath and wait for revenge.

On a certain Monday morning an order was issued from headquarters that all articles pertaining to camp which were not sheltered from the weather should be whitewashed. The post commandant's wrath can be imagined when he next gazed on his pet flamingo, who had suddenly become as white as the driven snow. To the sorrow of the soldiers the bird survived the operation.

Opportunities.

If you want to succeed in the world, you must make your own opportunities as you go on. The man who waits for some seventh wave to toss him on dry land will find that the seventh wave is a long time coming. You can commit no greater folly than to sit by the roadside until some one comes along and invites you to ride with him to wealth or influence.

Government Institutions Endorse Japanese Catarrh Cure as the Only Permanent Cure for Catarrh.

CURED EVERY CASE WHERE THE REMEDY WAS TRIED.

Catarrh is one of the diseases which should not be experimented with, every day's neglect allows it to spread deeper and deeper until loss of taste, smell and hearing are the inevitable result, then finally consumption sets in, for which there is no cure. Thousands who have suffered for years from catarrh proclaim Japanese Catarrh Cure the only permanent cure. It will cure you.

Mr. A. E. Wilson, Principal, Government Indian Home, Litchorn, Manitoba, writes: "Some time ago we purchased three boxes of Japanese Catarrh Cure, and must say it gave wonderful results in every case tried. It certainly is an article of unequalled merit."

Japanese Catarrh Cure is not a powder. It is a pleasant, healing, penetrating, volatile compound. It is easy to use, requires no instrument of any kind, it reaches every catarrhal diseased portion of the mucous membrane, and permanently cures catarrh, whenever caused. Sample box free. Enclose 5-cent stamp. Address, The Griffiths & Macpherson Co., Limited, 121 Church St., Toronto. Sold by all druggists, 50 cents.

WHEN OUT OF A JOB.

All nature is sick from the heels to her hair,
She is all out of kilter and out of repair,
When a feller is out of a job.
Hain't no juice in the earth or no salt in the sea,
Hain't no ginger in life in this land of the free,
And the universe ain't what it's cracked up to be
When a feller is out of a job.

What's the good of blue skies and a blossomin' tree,
When your boy has large patches on both of his knees
And a feller is out of a job.
Them patches, I say, look so big to your eye
That they shut out the landscape and cover the sky,
That the sun can't shine through them the best it can try,
When a feller is out of a job.

When a man has no part in the work of the earth,
He feels the whole blunderin' mistake of his birth,
When a feller is out of a job.
He feels he has no share in the whole of the plan,
That he's got the mitten from nature's own han',
That he's a rejected and left over man,
When a feller is out of a job.

Are you nervous or sleepless?
Have you faint and dizzy spells?
Are you short of breath?
Is your system run down?
If so, use Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Horrible! Horrible!

Sue—Yes, I've had to give him up. Of course it's nice to have money, but one wants something more than that, don't you know?

Alice—Dear me! Isn't he refined?
Sue—Mercy! Awfully vulgar. We were at the play the other night, and right there before everybody he hissed the villain!

A Rankling Insinuation.

Mrs. Dove—My husband always kisses me when he leaves the house in the morning.

Miss Spiter—Funny how good natured some men are when they are getting away from home for a whole day.—Boston Transcript.

Why Did Willie Lose His Job?

Willie (answering his employer's wife over the phone)—De boss says he ain't here.

The Limit.

Buster—I am having awful luck. I am now down to my last dollar.
Ded broke—Pshaw, that's nothing! Wait till you are down to the last dollar of your last friend.—Life.
