

COMING AND GOING.

Ebb and Flow of Travel to and from Frederic-tion.

MANY PEOPLE ON THE MOVE THESE DAYS.

Visitors to the City on Business and Pleasure.

L A Miles, of St. John, is a guest at the Barker.

Coun McManiman of Stanley, is in the city today.

John Sheehan of Fredericton Junction, is in the city today.

John Stewart, of the C P R, Woodstock, registered at the Barker last evening.

Mr and Mrs Sterling Thompson left by boat this morning on a trip to Digby.

Mrs Harry Williamson and her daughter, Bessie, are visiting relatives at Boiestown.

Dr H S Bridges, superintendent of St.
John schools, is here, the guest of his brother, Inspector Bridges.

Miss Nellie Williamson has returned from Lunenburg, N S, where she attended the meeting of the summer school of science.

Miss Maud Strange, of Boston, arrived here by the western train today, enroute to Kingsclear, to visit her parents, Mr and Mrs G A Strange.

Miss Flewelling, daughter of Rev Ernest Flewelling of Nelson, B C, is visiting her uncle, Mr W P Flewelling, at his summer camp on the Kingsclear road.

Miss Fannie Macnutt and her brother, Master Clarence Macnutt, who have been visiting relatives here for the past three weeks, leave tomorrow for their home at Londonderry, N S.

Superintendent Newcombe of the C. P.
R., Woodstock, left Wednesday for a two weeks visit to Great Britain and Ireland, and Mr. Powers, of St. John, is acting superintendent in his absence.

The Rev Joseph Noble of Woodstock celebrated his 86th birthday on Sunday by preaching in the Free Baptist church in that town. He appeared to be as strong and rugged as he was twenty years ago.

Dr George K Grimmer and family reached St Andrews from Scotland on Saturday last. Dr Grimmer, who has been practising in Edinburgh for a number of years, and who has also taken a special course of study in Germany, proposes locating in the United States.—St Andrews Beacon. [Dr Grimmer is a son of the late Geo S Grimmer, Q C, and a graduate of the University of N B.

The Picnic Season.

Ald G J McNally is entertaining a number of his lady and gentlemen friends to a picnic at the "Birches" this afternoon.

Yacht Race.

The fifth yacht race between the yachts of the local squadron, is being sailed this afternoon.

Frank Was Good to Them.

The Chatham World, noting the visit of Chatham baseballists to this city, says: "The Chatham men are indebted to Mr Frank Sadler for many courtesies, including a box of cigars on their departure for home."

Some Exploded Food Fallacies.

Fish as a food of the brain worker must be consigned to the limbo of vanities, though certain forms of fish are the cheapest of all foods, notably the bloaters. Oysters and turtle soup are frauds. It would take 14 oysters to equal the nourishment of one egg and 223 to provide the same amount of nutriment contained in a pound of beef.

Salt fish, especially salt fat fish, is the most valuable food for the poorer classes, and whole races in the south of Europe live on the Newfoundland cod. Canned salmon we see at 18 pence a pound is no more expensive than cod at sixpence. Millions of people live on it, and the North American settler who is not well provided with cash finds it a good substitute and change from flesh meat at times.

Frogs' legs are not of high nutritive value, which need not surprise us.
Turtle soup from the chemist's point of view is not worth a tenth of the price paid for it.—Exchange.

The Victims.

"Some men," said Uncle Eben, "give de reputation of being patient when de troof is dat dey's too indolent to stan-up for whut dey is entitled to."— Washington Star.

Such Stuff as Dreams Are Made Of.

The materials of dreams may be enumerated as memories of waking thougts, sensations, memories of waking thoughts and new sensations received in sleep, whether from without or within. Dr.
Gregory mentions of himself that having on one occasion gone to bed with a bottle of hot water at his feet he dreamed of walking up the crater of Mount Etna and feeling the ground warm under him. He had at an early period of his life visited Mount Vesu-vius and actually felt a strong sensation of warmth in his feet when walking up the side of the crater, and he had more recently read Brydane's description of Mount Etna.

On another occasion, having thrown off the bedclothes in his sleep, he dreamed of spending a winter at Hudson's bay and of suffering distress from the intense frost. He had been reading a few days before a very particular account of the state of the colonies during winter.

What's Your Pet Phrase?

Of course you have a pet phrase or expression; you are one of the few exceptions if you haven't. Very likely the very words with which this article begins—"of course"—are used by you at every turn, but you don't know it.

You have a particular ejaculation which does duty in all circumstances. It may be a variation of "Great Scott!" such as "Great Scotland Yard!" or it may be "Good Grace church street!" which is a variation of "Good gracious!"

You probably end most of your sentences with "you know" or "you see." Then you have a pet word which you bring in wherever you can. Perhaps it is "logical," and the number of times that word and its opposite—"illogical"—appear in your conversation is simply alarming. But you don't see it, you know.

Dress Hats.

Lucy & Co. have just received a case of silk hats of the latest and best style.
There is no need of wearing an old plug when you can purchase a fashionable silk hat at Lucy's, usual low prices. Remember the Mintos are coming.

Substantial goods and low prices is the watchword at the corner of Queen and Regent streets. Lucy & Co. are still on deck and defy all competitions. Their busy store proves that the public know a good thing when they see it. They are still running their cheap sale which will not close till the last day of July inst.
They have ready made clothes and ready made bargains.

Sugar Cured Hams.

Flat bacon; Windsor bacon; dried beef; smoked tongue; fine bo'ogoa; pressed ham and pressed corned beef at
