WELCOME.

List of Ladies and Gentlemen
Who Make up the Party.

WILL BE ENTERTAINED AT THE
B. AND B. CLUB HOUSE
THIS EVENING.

The Canadian Press excursionists, who have been making a tour of the Maritime Provinces, arrived in the city by the David Weston, this afternoon. They were met at the Star Line wharf by His Worship Mayor Crockett, members of the local press, President Edgcombe of the Board of Trade, President Chestnut of the Tourist Association, and a large number of other citizens who gave them a hearty welcome.

The visitors were escorted to carriages in waiting immediately upon disembarking and taken for a drive about the city. After visiting the principal points of interest, including old Government house, Wilnot Park and the Cathedral, the visitors were driven to the Canada Eastern station where they boarded a special train for Marysville. They will return to Fredericton at six o'clock, and will take up their abode for the night at the Queen hotel, Barker House and Windsor Hall.

The weather conditions today were all that could be desired and it, is needless to say the visitors thoroughly enjoyed their sail on the beautiful river.

This evening they will be shown through the Parliament buildings and will afterwards be entertained at the bicycle and boating club house. The band of the 71st regiment is to give a concert on the grand stand in front of the Parliament buildings, and Hanlon's orchestra has been engaged to play at the club house. The members of the B and B club will have canoes in readiness to accommodate visitors who would like a moonlight paddle on the river.

The excursionists will take their departure for home by special train on the Canada Eastern railway tomorrow morning.
