Opening of Navigation.

The Star Line steamers are all ready for the opening of navigation. The Aberdeen will probably start for Woodstock on Monday and the Victoria for this city on Tuesday, to be followed on Wednesday by the David Weston.

Death at Margerville.

Mrs. Sarah P. Chase, widow of the late Jas. M. Chase, died at Margerville on Friday, after a lengthy illness from liver trouble. She was 67 years of age, and leaves one son, Wilfred Chase with whom she resided. John G. Adams has charge of the funeral arrangements.

Investigating the Case.

Hon. H. A. McKee held an investigation today into the recent suicide of Charles Oakley, who jumped from the Suspension bridge. The deceased was an inmate of the Provincial Lunatic Asylum and the investigation has been ordered by the government in order to ascertain if any blame is attachable to the officials of the institution.

The Militia.

The Canadian Gazette today contains the following appointments:
71st York Regiment—To be captain—Lieut. J. W. Howe, vice J. E. Sanson, promoted.

8th Hussars—To be 2nd lieutenant provisionally (as special case)—Sergeant H. R. Emerson, vice W. H. Campbell, promoted.
Surgeon Major J. E. March is granted the honorary rank of surgeon lieutenant colonel.

Calling a New Pastor.

A special meeting of the Baptist church was held last evening to consider the recommendation of the officers of the church, who were appointed a committee for the purpose of selecting a pastor to succeed Rev. J. D. Freeman. The Rev. John H. MacDonald, B. A., at present principal of Acadia Seminary, Wolfville, N. S., was the party named, which selection, after speeches, was unanimously adopted. The call now awaits the rev. gentleman's acceptance. Mr. MacDonald is a native of Cape Breton, a graduate of Acadia University (1891), and also of Newton Theological Seminary. He has been a pastor at Woodstock, N. B., and Amherst, N. S., and is well known in the Maritime Provinces, and has a good record as a pastor and preacher.

COMPLIMENTARY ADDRESS.

Presented to Rev. J. D. Freeman by His Church and Congregation.

At a meeting of the Baptist congregation last evening, the following farewell address was read by H. C. Creed, and presented to Rev. J. D. Freeman, who is to leave for St. John next week to assume the pastorate of the Germain street Baptist church:
Rev. J. D. Freeman, M. A.

Dear pastor:—As in consequence of your acceptance of another pastoral charge, your labors in this city are about drawing to a close, we the members of your church and congregation desire to express our hearty appreciation of the work you have done among us during the six and a half years in which we have had the privilege of enjoying your ministrations.

Your preaching has always been strong, vigorous and stimulating, combining as it does richness of thought, beauty of diction, and clearness of insight into divine truth.

The present improved condition of our Sunday school is largely under divine blessing the result of your energy and zeal.

Your active interest in the work of the young people and your sympathy with the beginners in the Christian life, have resulted in strengthening for service those who must become ere long the leaders and burden bearers in church work.

In your sick and sorrowing have always found one ready to tender the comfort and consolation of the Christian faith.

To Mrs. Freeman we desire you to convey an expression of our sincere regard for her cheerful Christian spirit, and her uniform readiness to assist to the extent of her power in every undertaking for the benefit of the church.

And now as you are about to leave us to take up work in another part of the Lord's vineyard to which you have been called, we would assure you of our deep interest in your future welfare, and that this church to which you have so faithfully ministered will pray that the blessing of the Lord may ever attend you and the members of your family.

On behalf of the Frederick Baptist Church, Richard H. Phillips, clerk.

On behalf of the officers of the church, A. F. Randolph, senior deacon.

On behalf of the members, F. W. Land Porter.

On behalf of the congregation, G. F. Coy.

Frederick, N. B., April 12th, 1901.

The rev. gentleman, who seemed to be deeply touched, replied to the address in feeling terms.

Sold His Farm.

Edgar Slipp, had sold his fine farm at Long's Creek, parish of Kingsclear to Jacob Lawrence of Dumfries. It is understood that the purchase price was in the neighborhood of $4,000. Mr. Slipp is undecided as to his future course, but it is possible that he may remove to the city and engage in business.

Mrs. J. F. Fraser, who has been visiting Mrs. F. I. Morrison, returned to her home in St. John last night.

IT WILL GO NOW.

Frederick Assured of an Exhibition for This Autumn.

LIBERAL GOVERNMENT AND CITY GRANTS ASSURED.

Municipal Council Will be Approached for Assistance

At an informal meeting of the agricultural society at the Queen hotel this afternoon, John A. Campbell, M. P., president, in the chair, it was decided to proceed with arrangements for holding an exhibition in thirteenth this autumn.

The president announced to the meeting the assurance that he had received from the government that $2,500, and perhaps $3,000 could be counted on from the provincial treasury, and the information was received with great satisfaction. This with the $1500 already secured from the city council will give the society a good start.

A meeting of the directors will be held next Saturday, when the date for the exhibition will be fixed, and a committee appointed to seek a grant from the Municipal Council which is to meet in special session on the 23rd.

The directors will also interview the City Council and endeavor to secure the $4,000 which the civic treasury received as insurance on the old exhibition building.

The society propose putting up a new building in front of those now existing, and expect to make the show a big success.

THE LATE GEORGE HATT

Large Attendance at the Funeral This Afternoon.

The remains of the late George Hatt were laid to rest in the family lot in the Rural cemetery this afternoon. The funeral took place at 3.45 o'clock and was attended by a large number of citizens, including relatives and old friends of the deceased. An impressive funeral service, conducted by Rev. G. M. Campbell, assisted by Rev. Messrs. Teasdale and Colter, was held at the residence of Dr. B. H. Torrens, after which the cortege was formed and proceeded by way of Queen street to the rural cemetery, where interment was made.

The deceased gentleman was for many years prominently identified with the Frederick Fire Department and as a mark of respect to his memory six officers of that organization in uniform acted as pallbearers. They were Chief Lipsitt, Assistant Chief Ratter and Captain's N. J. Smith, M. Moore, W. M. Clarke, and George Haviland.

The list of chief mourners was made up as follows:

David Hatt, C. H. Hatt, Dr. Colter, F. S. Williams, C. A. Sampson, F. P. Hatt, C. H. Weddall, G. W. Torrens, G. W. Torrens, J. T. G. Hatt, Jas. Danlap, Harry Pollock, Dow Vandine, H. B. Clarke, A. D. Thomas, Henry Chestnut.

The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker George W. Adams.

Had a Hard Time.

The people living along the western side of the river between Long's Creek and Meductic have had no mail for a week on account of several bridges in that section having been washed away. George Simms, who drives the mail between Frederick and Meductic for the contractor E. Fretter, was at Prince William on his way to Frederick, when the Long's and Kelly's Creek bridge went out on Saturday last. Finding himself cut off he abandoned the team and hauled the mail a distance of nine miles on a handcart. He managed to get across what was left of the bridge, and reaching his home at Central Kingsclear, borrowed a team and came to the city yesterday. He has been delivering the mail at the Kingsclear post office during the week, and yesterday left here with the mails for points further up.

SUPREME COURT.

Judgment Reserved in the York Election Case.

Argument in the case of McLeod, petitioner, and Gibson, respondent, was concluded before the Supreme Court this morning, and judgment was reserved. Mr. Crockett for the petitioner concluded his argument at 3.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon and was followed by A. J. Gregory for the petitioner. The latter had the floor when the court adjourned at six o'clock, and also for a time this forenoon. During the course of his argument he was frequently interrupted by members of the bench and the proceedings became at times rather spirited. Mr. Gregory's contention was that the court should set aside the order nisi for a substitute service granted by Justice Gregory, and remove the petition from the files of the court, on the ground that the respondent had not been served with a copy of the petition before the expiration of the time allowed for such service. It is likely that the court will render judgment the latter part of next week.

Gillies vs. Cooling—John Montgomery and W. B. Wallace, K. C., moves to enter a verdict for the defendant or for a new trial or an arrest of judgment. W. A. Mot, contra not called. Rule refused.

Jack vs. Bonnell—W. B. Wallace, K. C., moves for a non-suit or to enter a verdict for defendant or for a new trial. Still before the court.

SOME THINGS WE KNOW.

Timely Observations on Topics Local and Otherwise.

That this is a bad season for widows and orphans.

That the bicycle man after a long winter's rest persists now in coming to the front.

That there will be no more Sunday parties at Camp Comfort.

That some of the Aldermen are having their beavers made over for the Minto show.

That the municipal council will not be compelled to advertise for applicants for the secretary's trusteeship.

That the promoters of the election petition would prefer cash to the merely moral support of an up town editor.

That the Tory party in York are looking for a new financier.

That honesty is at a premium among the lawyers.

That the census enumerator who asked the maiden lady of Queen's ward for the date of her birth was unceremoniously hustled into the street.

That Frederickton's export trade is developing along new lines, known especially to the law.

That since the presentation at the Parliament Buildings, Premier Tweedie knows how to draw to a pair.

That the carlers have not yet succeeded in expelling all the Beesing smoke from their lungs.

That some of the Tartars are practising at drives.

That the walking stick has gone too.

That things will not be so hot in the Klondike.

That there is more than one claimant for the premiership of the city council, but the late leader is confident of success.

That the tax bills will be heavier this year than ever before.

That they just let him slipp in in King's ward.

That where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise.

That brother bill refuses to be comforted.

That Frederickton's foreign colony will meet to celebrate the Queen's birthday, and drink the health of the bench and bar.

That eight per cent with a deposit receipt for security, not only beats the bank, but the man who takes the risk.

That the man who forged the Robesay lists has joined the party that struck Billy Patterson.

That there are other places besides home when the furnace fires are flooded out.

That last summer's bicycle skirt will be found at "Bazzell's famous dye-house."

That the new board of aldermen is travelling on its good looks.

That a sewerage would be a bad thing for the Doctors.

That the Tartars would still be in the game if they had about $300 for a starter.

That the grand stand girls will have to get along this season without Jack McLean.

That if the Camp Comfort logs could talk what a lot of interesting things the dwellers along Devil's Back and Long Reach would hear.

That the Tartars left field has beaten his sword into a sieve.

That a great crowd of people will rejoice when that Klondike nugget develops.

That the people of Margerville are wearing diving suits.

That one of the wonders of the century will be Oromocto's new sidewalk.

That the roadmaster and his men have been in a great scrape on Queen street.

That the "man behind the gun" is the legislator who shoots off his mouth.

FELL TO HIS DEATH.

Horrible Fate that Overtook

ASSISTANT SUPT. MCKENZIE OF THE DOMINION IRON AND STEEL CO.

Dropped a Distance of Thirty Feet and Fractured His Skull.

(Special to Daily Herald.)

Sidney, N. S., April 13.—J. McKenzie, assistant superintendent of the ore pier at the Dominion Iron and Steel company's works, met a horrible death this morning by falling over a trestle at the pier, a distance of about thirty feet.

No one saw the unfortunate man fall, but those who were working near heard a cry and instantly ran in the direction from which the sounds arose.

McKenzie was found in water near the shore with blood oozing from a large gash in the side of his head, and life was extinct.

It is supposed that McKenzie slipped on the ice with which the pier was covered this morning, and being clothed in oilskins was unable to save himself.

The doctor pronounced that death was due to fracture of the skull.

The deceased was a native of Carleton, Pictou Co.

FAGGED

"All tired out. Can't hardly take another step. Don't seem to have any ambition. Can't do half my regular work. I'm weak, nervous, depressed, discouraged." Is that your story? If so, you tell it well, for it's the story of impure blood. There's only one remedy that will make you change this story. 'Tis the remedy your grandfather used—

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

It's the oldest Sarsaparilla; the one that made the word "Sarsaparilla" famous wherever people are sick and want to be cured. Millions more bottles of it have been sold than of any other sarsaparilla. What a record! 50 years of cures! It can't be said of any other sarsaparilla.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

Take Ayer's Pills with Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"Five years ago I had a great many bunches come out on my head and a breaking out all over my body, so I could not rest at night. I tried a great many remedies, but they did me no good. Then I thought of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Before I had taken half a bottle all the bunches were gone and I felt like a new man. It is the best blood-purifying remedy there is." M. A.
