(Special to the Daily Herald.)

Toronto, Feb. 23.—Maritime—Moderate, fair, moderately cold Sunday, easterly winds, fair at first, unsettled.

The Women of Shakspeare.

Arrangements have been made by which Miss Leforgey, a talented elocutionist, and a graduate of the Emerson school of oratory, Boston, will appear before a Fredericton audience and deliver her popular lecture on "The Women of Shakspeare." Particulars later.

Sporting Notes.

The St. Stephen curlers were defeated at Hampton yesterday, 71 to 65. At St. Stephen last night the hockey team of that town defeated the Woodstock players 4 to 1.

In the committee of management series at the rink yesterday, Mallin defeated Barker 9 to 8, and Weimore did up Le-mont 14 to 12.

Big Guns Coming

R. S. Barker, private secretary to His Honor the Lieutenant Governor, has been notified that the customary salute of thirteen guns at the opening of the legislature will be fired by a detachment from the Newcastle Field Battery under Major Maltby. The major, accompanied by two of his officers and eighteen men from the battery, will arrive here by the Canada Eastern on Wednesday, bringing with them two twelve pound field guns, with limbers, etc. The guns will be fired from the bank of the river below Farraline Place.

Died at Frog Lake.

Robert Torrance, an old and highly respected resident died at his home at Frog Lake, parish of Manners Sutton, on Wednesday night. He had been in failing health for some time, but his end was hastened by the prevailing gripe. He was in the 88th year of his age, and was a native of Midlothian, Scotland, and came to N. B. upwards of 40 years ago and made for himself and family a fine farm and comfortable home. His wife died a short time ago. He is survived by two sons, six daughters, and many grand-children and great grandchildren.

On the Aroostook.

John Kilburn, the well known and popular lumberman, returned last evening from a business trip to the Aroostook lumber woods. He reports that the season now drawing to a close, has been very favorable to the lumber industry in that section and a large amount of work has been done. At present there is about two and one-half feet of snow in the woods and the hauling is all that could be desired. Mr. Kilburn will leave next week for the scene of his operations in Quebec province.

Took the Oath.

Squire Anderson of Springfield, was in the city today and took the oath of office as Justice of the Peace before Clerk of the Peace H. B. Rainsford. It is understood that as yet only a small number of the J. P.'s throughout the county have been sworn. As the fee is a mere nominal one it would be better if all would be sworn at once.

A Great Improvement.

Daniel Lucy has made some very attractive improvements in his store, a corps of carpenters and painters having quite transformed the appearance of that busy place. The store has been painted throughout, the counters have been newly grained, and Mr. Lucy with his well selected stock is ready for business as usual.

A. O. H. Concert.

One of the chief attractions at the A. O. H. concert at the Opera House, March 18th, will be the first appearance in this city of Mrs. T. G. Spencer, of St. John, who has been engaged to sing two solos. Mrs. Spencer is considered by musicians to be the leading soprano in the maritime provinces, so the public may look for a special treat.

A Slight Fire.

The alarm this afternoon was from R. A. Estey's mill which caught fire on the roof from the smoke stack. The flames were extinguished without the aid of the firemen.

George P. Triton of St. John, is a guest at the Queen.

THE SOCIAL WORLD.

A Gay Winter in Which the Men Have had Small Part.

EUCHRE PARTIES AND WHIST CLUBS LED IN THE GREAT COMPETITIONS.

New Watering Place Proposed for Next Summer.

(Specially Written for the Herald by the Society Babblers.)

The death of Her Majesty had a de-teriorating effect on society, yet the gay buds and blossoms manage to pull a good deal of enjoyment out of the season.

Since Christmas there have been 4,987 afternoon euchre parties in Fredericton, 1,826 whist parties, 9,834 meetings of regular whist clubs, 16 at homes, 13 shoot parties, 11 dances and 2 card parties at which both sexes were present. These figures represent a fairly active campaign, but the season is not over yet, although leat has intervened.

The value of prizes offered for competition is put down at $31,825.75, enough to erect a statue to the Queen or a monument to the soldiers killed in South Africa.

Mrs. Fitzmaurice Wiggle will give a ladies' euchre party from 3 to 7 p. m., Friday, illuminant gas, sunlight rigidly excluded.

Mrs. Christian Beaumont, president of the Y. P. A., 2nd Baptist church, has issued cards for a Sunday afternoon tea and reception.

The Exclusive whist club will meet Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. Warrimore DeGras, only ladies permitted. Husbands, brothers and sweethearts may visit their clubs, play curling, saw wood or do any old thing so long as they are home at midnight to fill up the furnace.

Mrs. Algernon Tadpole will give a snow shoe tramp to her lady friends on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Tadpole is celebrated for the delightful manner in which she entertains, and the fortunate possessors of invitations to next week's function are promising themselves great enjoyment. Old Mr. Tadpole in the meantime is hustling to get a few extra dollars to pay the bills.

Society is looking up something new for next summer. Camping is getting somewhat ancient, so it is proposed to establish a fashionable watering place at the picturesque Carlow. There is a great demand for building lots in that locality, and several hundred cottages will be in course of erection as soon as the spring opens. The favorite spot is along the banks of the beautiful Barpee mill stream where exquisite facilities for boating are presented.

If present plans materialize, it is proposed that the Duke and Duchess of York shall spend part of their time in New Brunswick at this delightful resort, going up the stream from the main river in their splendid yacht the Ophir.

The Daughters of Colonial Dames met the other day and passed a series of resolutions on the late developments in royal circles. During the meeting a telegram was read from the King, expressing his delight at having been recognized by the association, and accepting their invitation for the next banquet under such celebrated auspices.

The Juvenile Branch of the Daughters of Colonial Dames met recently and selected officers. The membership of this society is limited to those under seven years. At the next meeting little Miss Vera de Shaughnessy will read a carefully prepared paper on "The highest form of development in polite society."

The Baroness de Rothchild-Baring has inaugurated a series of morning functions at which papers are read on financial questions, especially regarding the relations of banking to hard labor.

The Book Club has just concluded a most fascinating discussion on David Harum, the consensus of opinion in eliciting to the conclusion that David was a cheap sort of a man anyhow, too horsey for polite society, and the club voted unanimously to exclude the work from their shelves.

All the gentlemen who have been so religiously excluded from the social gatherings of the present season, met at Brigadier General, the Hon. Kortwright Pettigrew's recently and decided to order a new importation of Club Scotch as a means of drowning the memory of their social ostracism.

Major Constantine-Darlington declares that he has qualified as an efficient guardian of the young, by staying home after-noon and nights this winter and caring for the baby, while Lady Constantine-Darlington attended weekly the seven euchre and whist clubs which are under her patronage.

Mrs. Geoffrey Newlmyaderich quite astounded society recently by the really handsome manner in which she entertained the Thursday afternoon euchre club. The prizes were of solid gold and were valued at thousands of dollars.

The old fashioned At Home given by Mrs. Shoreditch Van Dusenbury quite shocked society, and much adverse comment was heard on the fact that caraway seed cookies were passed around with the ice cream.

munion and sermon at 11. Nashwaak—Afternoon service, litany and vespers, 3.30. St. Marys—Evening service and sermon at 7.—W. Benson Bellis, rector.

MARYSVILLE.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald.) Feb. 23.—There has been a number of enjoyable parties lately, among them being one given by Mr. and Mrs. Reid, who entertained a number of friends one evening this week.

Miss Sewell of Fredericton has been spending the last few days here with Mrs. Murphy.

Mrs. Price is laid up, suffering from an attack of la grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes are receiving the congratulations of their many friends on the arrival of a little daughter at their home.

Mr. Crawford is here visiting friends. This evening, Sergt. Major Cox will lecture in the Hall on his various experiences during the war in South Africa. It is to be hoped there will be a good audience, as it will doubtless be most interesting.

Herbert Smith, who has been for some months past in the States, has returned home, and is heartily welcomed back by his many friends.

Nova Scotia Orators.

(Gallery Glimpses in the London Advertiser) I heard Joseph Howe in his great Detroit speech, near the close of the American civil war, and though I was but a wisp of a youth at the time I remember how his magnificent and impassioned oratory swayed and thrilled his vast audience. I have always been on the opposite side from Sir Charles Tupper, but who can deny the old veteran the made of praise due to great ability and dauntless hope and courage? Mr. Fielding is a brilliant and lovable man whom any province would be proud to possess, and were Nova Scotia willing to give him up, Ontario would adopt him by acclamation. Sir John Thompson was a man of singularly able mind and high purpose, who died all too soon. As for the member for Gnyghor, D. C. Fraser, it was only the other day Sir Mackenzie Bowell incidentally alluded in conversation to a certain platform campaign speech of Mr. Fraser as perhaps the best he had ever made. Those who listened to Mr. Fraser's St. Andrews dinner speech last year at London, an easily corroborate Sir Mackenzie Bowell. It was a magnificent effort.

OFF FOR CHICAGO.

New Brunswick's Representatives to the Sportsmen's Show

With an Exhibit that Will Open the Eyes of Western Sportsmen.

Messrs. W. T. Chestnut, Adam Moore, Henry Braithwaite, Arthur Pringle, G. O. Armstrong, R. P. Allen and W. Harry Allen, who are to represent New Brunswick at the Chicago Sportsmen's Exposition, took their departure for the west by the 4.30 train this afternoon. A number of friends, including several members of the Fredericton Tourist Association, were at the depot and gave them a rousing send off. The party will travel by the Canadian Pacific Railway to Detroit, and thence by the Wabash road to Chicago. Free transportation to Chicago and return has been furnished them by the C. P. R. authorities.

The exposition opens on Wednesday, February 27th, and closes on Tuesday, March 12th.

The New Brunswick exhibit is to be conveyed to Chicago in a combined baggage and express car placed at the disposal of the guides by the C. P. R. The car is an exceptionally large one, but none so large to contain the splendid exhibit being sent forward. All the large game animals and birds of the province are represented in the collection, and there is no reason why New Brunswick should not take a very conspicuous place at the show.

A complete list of the articles comprising the exhibit, the bulk of which was supplied by the Crown Land Department is here appended.

1 mounted moose, 2 bears and 2 cubs, 1 caribou, 2 beavers in case, 1 large map of N. B. 1 box six pictures, 2 seals, 1 box maps of N. B. colored, 2 deer heads, 2 moose horns, 1 caribou horn, 1 deer horn, 1 bob cat, 1 wild goose

4 pair snow shoes, 2 paddles, 1 toboggan, 10 fox skins, 1 lynx skin, 1 mink skin, 1 bear skin, 2 pairs of moccasins, 1 sign, 1 bear trap, 1 cabin, 1 deer head, 1 moose head, 200 feet sawed lumber, blankets, buffalo skins, sable skins, etc. 1 box containing mounted lynx, mink, birds, snipe, partridge, brant, duck, etc.

Jim Paul, the St. Marys Indian hunter and guide and his daughter, also left for Chicago this afternoon, taking along a large collection of Indian bric-a-brac. They have been engaged by the management of the show to make an exhibit.

CONSUMPTION

Do not think for a single moment that consumption will strike you a sudden blow. It does not come that way. It creeps its way along. First you think it is a little cold, nothing but a little hacking cough; then a little loss in weight; then a harder cough; then the fever and the night sweats. Better stop the disease while it is yet creeping. Better cure your cough today.

You can do it with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

The pressure on the chest is lifted, that feeling of suffocation is removed, and you are cured. You can stop that little cold with a 25 cent bottle; harder coughs will need a 50 cent size; if it's on the lungs the one dollar size will be most economical.

"I confidently recommend Ayer's Cherry Pectoral to all my patrons. I am using it now in my own family. Forty years ago I feel sure it saved my life."—S. S. FORD, M.D., Jan. 4, 1888. Fort Madison, Iowa.

Write the Doctor at any time. Address: Dr. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

Stephen Tobin, ex-mayor of Halifax, and ex-M. P., met with a severe accident Thursday afternoon in the office of the Trade Review, Montreal, where he had been employed for a year past, and he is now lying in a critical condition at the Hotel Dieu Hospital. He fell and broke his thigh.

At the Conservative caucus Friday night, at Ottawa, it was decided unanimously to support an increase in seasonal indemnity of members to $1,500; also salary to leader of opposition of $3,500 in addition to his indemnity.
