

Apes and Men.

A correspondent of the Cleveland Plain Dealer says that Professor Ernst Haeckel, the great German Darwinist, who sailed last September for the Malay archipelago, protests in a letter against a newspaper statement according to which the object of his journey was the continuation of the researches for the fossil ape man, the Pithecanthropus erectus, which Eugene Dubois discovered in 1894. The discovery by Dubois, the learned doctor says, has definitely settled the question of human ancestry in the minds of all unbiased scientists and competent judges. The dreaded descent of man from the ape is now, he says, a matter of fact, and it matters little whether the constructive anatomists were still in want of this or that bone or whether the ontogenists had not yet succeeded in establishing our complete lineage and that they were still in need of the connecting link.

A Lesson From America.

During the Paris exposition an American firm obtained permission to drive an artesian well in the Bois de Vincennes, near Paris. The city of Paris has two artesian wells which required respectively nine and six years to be driven. The American well was sunk to a nearly equal depth, 1,935 feet, last summer in two months. The French were surprised by the rapidity of the work as well as by the homeliness and simplicity of the apparatus. The American company has since offered to donate the well to Paris as an addition to its water supply, and some of the French scientific journals express the hope that "the practical lesson which the new world thus offers gratuitously will not be without its fruit."—Youth's Companion.

Our Most Important Industry.

It may seem like a broad statement, but it is probably a safe one to make, that the railroads form the most stupendous and important industry within the United States. The capitalization of the railways of the United States is $11,000,000,000. Those railways employ more than 875,000 men, and for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1898, they paid to their employees as compensation for services more than $495,000,000. There is an indescribable fascination about the railroad business for nearly all who have once embarked in it. It demands a degree of close application and forgetfulness of self interest which is not demanded or accorded elsewhere.—National Magazine.

TWO MORE WITNESSES.

Mountain of Evidence piled up in favor of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets—Universal Gratitude for this Most Successful Stomach Remedy—Mrs. Arsenault's call her cure Miraculous.

It is surprising to note how many people are commending Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets nowadays. They are winning new friends everywhere. The work goes on continuously.

Throughout the length and breadth of Canada are thousands of people, who after every meal take a Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablet. They are a large proportion of the vast majority, the greater part of the population that suffer from weak stomachs and faulty digestion.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are the greatest tonic for a weak ailing stomach, ever compounded. They are composed of the finest digestants found in nature, peptin among others. They do the stomach's work, and let that tired-out over-worked organ take a holiday.

That's all the stomach wants—a rest. At once it will begin to save its strength and grow strong again. Hundreds of people have been cured of heartburn and pain after eating, by using only one box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Thousands of people have been permanently cured of chronic Dyspepsia of long standing, by three or four boxes, and that after every other means had failed. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets act on the only rational principle in the treatment of Digestion Troubles—Rest for the stomach.

"I consider our cures miraculous," writes Mrs. Coletti Arsenault, of Rousseau Le Blanc, Que. "My daughter Marie and myself suffered miserably with Dyspepsia. We employed all the remedies possible, but they were all useless. Having heard Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets spoken of, we took four boxes between the two of us, and I am happy to say we are cured. I recommend Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets highly to all sufferers from Stomach Trouble."

A Helpful Hint.

"Sir," began the beggar at the restaurant door, "won't you help me to get a square meal?"

"No," snapped the man who had just come out. "But stay. Yes, I will. Here's a tip for you. If you succeed in raising the price of a square meal, don't go in that joint for it, for you won't get it."—Philadelphia Press.

Anyone troubled with boils, pimples, rashes, festering sores, or any chronic or malignant skin disease should use Bor-dock Blood Bitters externally and take internally. It will cure where others fail.

A Toronto Druggist Tried All the Catarrh Remedies Known.

SAYS JAPANESE CATARRH CURE IS THE ONLY PERMANENT CURE.

Mr. John Wylie, the well-known Senior Clerk for Mr. Geo. Marshall, the leading Queen St. East Druggist, Toronto, writes:—"When I say I believe Japanese Catarrh Cure the only cure for catarrh on the market, I think I know just what I am talking about. I have tried every remedy which I thought would do me good, and also several doctors, but only received a little temporary relief. After hearing several of our customers, who had used Japanese Catarrh Cure, speak so highly of it, I tried it. From the very first it gave me much relief, soon the dropping in my throat ceased, and now, after using in all four boxes of Japanese Catarrh Cure, find myself completely cured of this most disagreeable disease, after suffering for years. I have since recommended it to some of our customers, and know of several of them whom it has cured."

Japanese Catarrh Cure permanently cures catarrh and catarrhal deafness. All druggists, 50 cents.

FROM THE TREE TOAD.

Secluded, solitary on some underbough
Or cradled in a leaf mid glimmering light,
Like Puck thou crouchest, haply watching how
The slow toadstool comes bulging, moony white,
Through loosening loam, or how, against the night,
The glowworm gathers silver to endow
The darkness with, or how the dew conspires
To hang at dusk with lamps of chilly fires
Each blade that shrivels now.

Art trumpeter of Dwarfland, does thy horn
Inform the gnomes and goblins of the hour
When they may gambol under haw and thorn,
Straddling each winking bed and twinkling flower
Or bellringer of Elfland, whose tall tower
The liliadendron is, from whence is borne
The elin music of thy bell's deep bass
To summon fairies to their starlit maze,
To summon them or warn?
—Madison Cawein in Atlantic.

SHE IS MY LOVE.

(In the measure of the original Irish Gaelic love song.)

She is my love beyond all thought,
Though she hath wrought my deepest dole;
Yet dearer for the cruel pain
Than one who fain would make me whole.

She is my glittering gem of gems,
Who yet contemns my fortune bright,
Whose cheek but glows with redder scorn
Since mine has worn a stricken white.

She is my sun and moon and star,
Who yet so far and cold doth keep;
She would not even o'er my bier
One tender tear of pity weep.

Into my heart unsought she came,
A wasting flame, a haunting care;
Into my heart of hearts, ah, why?
And left a sigh forever there.
—Alfred Perceval Graves in Spectator.
