

FOR CHILDREN

Nothing, that comes in a bottle, is more important for children than Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil. And "important" means that it keeps them in even health, on the highest plane of physical life.

"Do they live on it then?"

No; they don't touch it, except when they need it.

"When do they need it?"

Whenever they show, in whatever way, the least disturbance of even balance of health. It is not for acute diseases, with some exceptions; it is for a slight falling off from first-rate condition.

It is to be used as a food, whenever their usual food does not quite answer the purpose of food.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.
SCOTT & BOWNE, Toronto, Canada.

Sorry He Asked.

"Tell me, Fritz, hasn't your sister lately been saying something bad about me?"

"Oh, no. Quite the contrary. When papa said you were a jackass, Sister Ella said people ought not to judge any one by their appearance."

On the Nearest Sand Bank.

The summer poet enters, airily. "I have here," he prattles, "a delicious bit entitled 'Gladys and Her Garden Hose.'"

The editor springs to his feet with a savage snarl.

"It is quite out of the ordinary," the poet hastens to add. "It is absolutely devoid of double entendre. Only one kind of hose is meant throughout—namely, 1½ inch, three ply rubber hose."

The editor wrings the poet's hand; not his neck. His emotions will not permit him to speak. Tears fill his eyes until he is scarcely able to write the check for $100.

The Sultan.

Abdul Hamid smiled and blew the blue wreaths of his cigarette ceilingward.

"No," he said, "I am not an advocate of peace. Let there be war and plenty of it."

"Why are you thus minded?" asked the foreign diplomat.

"Why, so long as the powers are on war's edge with each other they won't have time to remember our little indebtedness."

The diplomat quietly tore up his bill and went back to his legation.—Syracuse Herald.

The Deaf Made to Hear.

St Thomas, May 21.—A modern miracle was made known today when Mr Riddle, of this city, announced that he had recovered his hearing. He has been almost entirely deaf, and it borders on the miraculous to find him able to hear everything with great distinctness. As his case his proving of universal interest, we give Mr Riddle's own statement.

"My hearing was always poor, and not long ago I became almost deaf. It was the result of Catarrhal Inflammation, but nothing did me good until I used Catarrh-ozone. It cured my trouble, and I strongly recommend it to the deaf." Fully nine-tenths of the deafness is the result of Catarrh, and can be cured by Catarrh-ozone. The cures of deafness wrought by this remedy in cases of even twenty years standing are really astounding. Among many others, ministers of the gospel testify to the wonderful powers of Catarrh-ozone, and your druggist can tell of some astonishing cases in his own experience. Better give it a trial, if your hearing is impaired. Price $1.00; small size 25 cents, druggists or N. O. Puleon & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S.

Uncomfortable Seat.

Morrell—Every rose has its thorn. For instance, a man may reach the very pinnacle of fame and still be unhappy.

Worrell—That's not surprising. Did you ever sit on a pinnacle?—Philadelphia Press.

The Plain Truth.

"I presume," said the obituary writer, "you wish me to say in conclusion that you would not call her back again?"

"Yes," replied the old man, "might's well be candid."—Atlanta Constitution.

Cool Weather Ahead For Papa.

Mamma—Now go and say good night to your governess, like a good little girl, and give her a kiss.

Little Puss—I'll say good night, but I won't give her a kiss.

Mamma—That's naughty! Why won't you give her a kiss?

Little Puss—Because she slaps people's faces when they try to kiss her.

Mamma—Now, don't talk nonsense, but do as you're told.

Little Puss—Well, mummy, if you don't believe me, ask papa!—Punch.

Supreme Test of Love.

"What do you consider the supreme test of love?" asked the sweet young thing.

"Well," answered the old bachelor, "ideas vary as to that, of course, but any time that you are able to induce a young man to teach you to ride a bicycle I think you may safely take it for granted that he is desperately smitten."—Chicago Post.

Inexhaustible.

"He may be a little tedious at times, but his fund of information is inexhaustible."

"Yes," answered Miss Cayenne, "there's no doubt of it. He takes so much time to tell every little fact that there is no danger of the supply ever giving out."—Washington Star.

May Come Later.

Tess—So he has really married Miss Crabbe?

Jess—Yes, he was hit hard. It was love at first sight with him.

Tess—Too bad he wasn't gifted with second sight.—Philadelphia Press.

Poor Dear!

"Why that serious, anxious look upon your face?" banteringly asked the short haired woman.

"I can't remember where I stuck my gum," replied the man in the pink shirt waist.—Chicago Tribune.

A Bad Shot.

Mr. Rabbit—Yes, I think he must belong to the Society For the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. He is so careful not to hurt us.

Help the Overworked Heart.

—Is the great engine which pumps life through your system hard pressed, overtaxed, groaning under its load because disease has clogged it? Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart is nature's lubricator and cleanser, and daily demonstrates to heart sufferers that it is the safest, surest, and most speedy remedy that medical science knows—67

Denunciation.

"Yes, sir," exclaimed Senator Sorghum, "I heartily and unreservedly condemn all methods in politics which are not frank, honest, open and above board."

"But—"

"I know what you are going to say. I know some of the tricks myself. But if I could manage to denounce them so that the other people would be afraid to use 'em, life would be one grand, sweet perpetual walkover."

Ways and Means.

Tears stood in my wife's great, gray eyes. "I am dying to go to the Paris exposition!" she exclaimed.

"You are very foolish!" said I, striving to be calm. "If you die, you will go to heaven!"

Recuba bit her lip. It was impossible, of course, to gainsay my logic.

A General Term.

"Where did they go for their vacation?"

"To the mountains."

"What mountains?"

"Well, I think they are just in the rear of their Uncle Jim Stebbins' farmhouse down in southern Illinois."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Pat's Capabilities.

Contractor—Pat is the slowest man I ever bossed. He's been an hour taking up a few bricks.

Friend—Give him an hour to that so soon. When he comes out, he'll take up the whole pavement.—Philadelphia Record.

From His Point of View.

Hicks—Do you and your wife ever get into an argument?

Wicks—No; I try to argue with her sometimes, but all she ever does is to make a lot of unfounded assertions in reply.

Not Longer to Be Endured.

He—Those hideous, heathenish, fiendish Chinese!

She—I think so; I'm going right to work this very minute and hunt one of those civilized names for chow-chow.

For cuts, wounds, chilblains, chapped hands, rheumatism, stiff joints, burns, scalds, bites of insects, croup, coughs, colds, Hagar's Yellow Oil will be found an excellent remedy.

Rock Wall Plaster

A convenient Wall Plaster for farmers and others living in localities distant from central markets, where lime, hair, etc., necessary for use in making ordinary mortar cannot be procured without considerable delay. Rock Wall Plaster is put up in bags of 100 lbs each, and is ready for applying to walls by the simple addition of sand and water. Rock Wall Plaster saves time, admits of carpenters immediately following the plasterers, giving the owner his building weeks earlier than with ordinary plaster. Rock Wall Plaster is a substitute for ordinary lime mortar and makes a much superior wall. The most inexperienced plasterer can apply it.
