

JINGLES AND JESTS.

Ingratitude.

She hung before me from a strap
When I awoke from out a nap
And saw her there;
She gave me a reproachful gaze
From 'neath a wild and perfumed mass
Of golden hair.

I quickly stumbled to my feet
And offered her the vacant seat,
With bow and smile;
She thanked me with a little blush;
It made my circulation rush;
I raised my tile.

The car was very full that day;
Upon a strap I had to sway
Before the maid,
And as we rushed about a curve
So very close I had to swerve
I felt afraid.

And then this vision of delight,
So sweet, so radiant and bright,
Drew close her wrap
And left a space beside her free
For—no, you're wrong; 'twas not for me—
Another chap!

One on Lodge.

"What do you think I saw when I was coming up in the car this morning?" asked Senator Wolcott of Senator Lodge.

"I don't know—what?" inquired the scholar from Massachusetts, curiously.
"Everything I looked at," chuckled Senator Wolcott.

Senator Lodge silently dived into his vest pocket and handed the Colorado man a cigar.—Washington Special in New York World.

Unhampered.

Hernly—I suppose you have to give much time and work to going through standard books for data in writing your historic novel.

Earnly—Not me. I just make the history as I go along, and then it won't disturb my plot. Realism belongs to the stage, not history.

With Impunity.

"Observe," said the fowl roosting on the frozen limb, "how I disregard the fundamental rules of health. I keep my head warm and my feet cool, and yet I never take cold."

So saying, she tucked her head under her wing and went to sleep.

At a Boston Musicales.

Mrs. Beacon-Streets (during Miss Skreeche's vocal solo)—Do you enjoy Howells, Mr. Porkham?

Mr. Porkham (from Chicago)—You bet
I don't! And if there's another verse to that song I'm going to get out.

A Duet.

"Are your brother and his wife musical?"

"Well, he seems to fiddle his time away, and she certainly is quite a harper."

New York's Police Chief.

Does it make him very weary
When the people say Devery?

Is his smile broad and merry
When some others cry Devery?

Does he tumble in a rev'ry
When New Yorkers talk of Dev-ry?

Can we praise him or denounce him
When we cannot all pronounce him?

The Plot That Failed.

"Arabella doesn't look at all happy."
"No; she married a man younger than herself under the impression that he would be more manageable than an older one."

Pride.

Simmons—Say, can't you afford a better lodging than the attic?

Timmins—Didn't I always tell you I would allow no one to walk over me?

Hit the Mark.

Though it has been quite clearly shown
That woman cannot throw a stone,
It came as straight as a string could be—
The kiss my sweetheart threw at me.

Sometimes.

"Tommy, how do you explain that part of the verse which says, 'As a fool dieth?'
How does a fool die?"

"He dyes 'his whiskers, ma'am."

Right in Their Line.

First Mermaid—What luck we are in!

Second Mermaid—What is it, dear?

First Mermaid—A ship loaded with rainy day skirts has just sunk.

ASTHMA

Can be Cured

And is being Permanently Cured Daily
by Clarke's Kola Compound

Why do you continue to suffer from this ribble, torturing disease, now, honestly, why you? You know it is tearing down your tem and making your life miserable. There only one way out of your difficulty. Take Clarke's Kola Compound. It has cured ousands of others and will cure you.

Mr. R. N. Hume, C.P.R. engineer, Western Division, Kamloops, B.C. writes:—"For more than twelve years I have been troubled more or less with asthma, and during the last two years the attacks became so severe and frequent that I had to lay off work for weeks at a time. Many nights I could not sleep lying down at all. Nothing I could get gave me more than a little temporary relief until the C.P.R. doctor prescribed Clarke's Kola Compound for me in Dec. '97. I took in all three bottles which helped me from the start, and since completing the third bottle have been completely cured. I have not had a single attack of asthma now for nearly three years, and express a pleasure in recommending anything so worthy as Clarke's Kola Compound. I know a lady in our town even worse than I was, whom it has cured."

Clarke's Kola Compound is sold by Chemists everywhere. $2.00 per bottle or three for $5.00. Book on Asthma mailed free by the G. & M. Co., Limited, 121 Church Street, Toronto, Canada.

The count declared, with graceful tact,
She was the sweetest thing on earth.
He loved her very much; in fact,
About a million dollars' worth.

"That was a rousing good football game, wasn't it?"
"Yes. Didn't Biggs handle his kicks beautifully?"

Innuendo.

Hair Dyes for Colored Folks.

Nothing so much surprises Negroes from the South visiting New York as the elaboration with which colored women in the cities dress their hair. The stage has made people that have not been south familiar with the way Negroes dress their hair down there—little twisted and pomaded pigtailed brought in a bunch over the brow. There is some character about it when properly managed, but city women will have none of it.

There are half a dozen establishments
on the west side where colored women get their hair dressed. The largest of them is run by a Hebrew, a blood relation of the late Mother Mandelbaum.

"Colored women," she said yesterday,
"use more false hair than do white women. The 'kinkler' the real hair, the straighter will be the switch chosen.
These people do not like to spend much money, so we have to manufacture goods especially for them. Switches, psyche knots, buns and curls sell for 15 cents each. If they could be manufactured to sell for less there would be a demand for them."

"A colored woman who has once had her hair bleached or dyed—and many a one has tried it—becomes a slave. She has to apply the dye daily in order to keep up with the new growth of black hair. A colored woman's hair will be simply spoiled by the application. The wool readily takes a red dye."

When a minister comes to a church he's "called."

But we dare not print nor say
The awfully terrible things he's called
When they want him to go away.

Flattery.

The mischief of flattery is not that it persuades any man that he is what he is not, but that it suppresses the influence of honest ambition by raising an opinion that honor may be gained without the merit of toil.

A St. Louis woman was asked how she managed her husband. "Feed him well and trust to luck," was the answer.
