HOUSE IN SUPPLY.

Discussion on School Text Books.

FREE LAND GRANTS RECEIVED CONSIDERATION.

The Government's Immigration Policy.

When the legislature was in supply Wednesday evening, and the item of $1,000 for school houses was under consideration, Mr. Hazen said that he would like an explanation from the government why certain text books had been changed. He knew that an article in one gave great offence to a certain religious denomination. The new geography is very unsatisfactory. The Educational Review, in a recent article, condemns it and claims it is written from an American standpoint; and then our school books are printed outside of the province. The board of education has the books printed in Ontario, giving employment to Ontario men when our own people should have the benefit of this work. The school books come down to St. John with the name of C. Flood & Sons printed upon them and that firm supplies them to the trade and no doubt makes a big middleman's profit. Messrs J. & A. McMillan, of St. John, have made the offer to modernize and thoroughly revise the old geography and have all the work done in the province (except that of making the plates for the maps) and to supply the new book at a less price than the people are paying for the present geography. If changes in text books are necessary, the government should see that the work of producing them is given to its own people.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley said that before any changes are made in the text books that matter is thoroughly gone into by a competent committee, which includes the chief superintendent of education. School books cannot be published in this province.

Hon. Mr. Tweedie said that the Educational Review is not considered as the organ of the teachers of the province, and more than that he had information that the article referred to was published and paid for by a rival concern. He believed that the great majority of teachers are in favor of the change made.

Mr. O'Brien (Northumberland) said that it came to his knowledge last summer that an article in one of the new text books was very offensive to a certain denomination. The article was "Macenlay's Battle of Naseby." He had called the attention of the government to it, and they had assured him that the books containing it would be recalled. In a store, lately, where school books are sold, he saw one with the offensive article still in it.

Hon. Mr. Tweedie replied that as soon as the attention of the government had been called to the offensive article, instructions were issued to call in all the books and for the publishers to supply new books with that article out. He supposed this had been done.

Hon. Mr. Hill said that the Educational Review was not an organ of the school teachers. He would venture to say not one-fifth of the teachers in the province read the Review.

On the item $2,000 for free grant act, Mr. Johnston said the sum was not sufficient.

Mr. Lawson pointed out that there was no available land belonging to the crown for settlement in Victoria. The young men of the New Denmark settlement could not obtain farms and some of them had to leave the province. The government ought to obtain a release of some of the land of the New Brunswick Railway Company for free grants.

Hon. Mr. Tweedie said this matter had engaged the earnest attention of the government. This land had been alienated by a former government, who gave 10,000 acres a mile to build the New Brunswick railway. One section of the act granting these lands required the company to make regulations under the approval of the government for their settlement. The attorney general had called the attention of the president of the company to this, but as yet no reply had been received.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley said that one difficulty that would confront the settler was the matter of price. It was questionable how far the government could compel the company to fix a low price for the land. The representative for Victoria, in the dominion parliament, had taken much interest in this matter, and had presented a view of it which was worthy of attention. He thought that the dominion government might make an appropriation for the purpose of enabling the province to buy back a part of these lands. The railway from Gibson to Edmundston, 100 miles in length, had been built by this provincial land grant without the aid of the dominion government, which had given subsidies to similar roads. He thought that this matter might be one for the equitable consideration of the Canadian government.

Hon. Mr. Tweedie said with regard to the sum put down for free grants, which the hon. member for Kent considered too small, it had not been the custom to give a larger grant than the years past. It was considered that the labor act would meet all the requirements. The difficulty in Kent and Northumberland was to get proper settlement lands. There is now an order for a survey at Black river, on the Richibucto road. The new settlers have the benefit of the by-road money, and he did not know of bona fide settlers who had been refused assistance. There are many who apply for 100 acres of land simply to cut the timber off it and then abandon it. The surveyor general endeavored to guard against this by sending a man to look at the land applied for.

On the item of $8,000 for immigration, Mr. Hazen asked if the same policy would be pursued this year as last.

Hon. Mr. Dunn said the policy for a certain time will be the same. Mr. Hickman went over the province with an assistant, talked with the owners of farms, and took options from them. He had farms describing the farms. He took views also and he wrote descriptions of his travels, and had the book which contained it printed for distribution on the other side. He had slides made so that he could exhibit his views and illustrate his lectures. Hickman found that the immigration agents of the C.P.R. and of the dominion government never spoke of New Brunswick, but only of the west. There are now some 300 immigrants in England who will be here in about a month. They are of a good class, people of capital possessing from $4,000 to $5,000 each. Persons wishing to sell their farms have been invited to send descriptions of them, and are doing so. Those immigrants who have come out already have all been placed. One person who was here the other day had a capital of £1,000, and was at work in the Sussex dairy school. The cost of this immigration business looks large, but we will be better able to tell later whether the work should be continued or not.

Mr. Hazen—What salary is Mr. Hickman paid?

Hon. Mr. Dunn—$1,000 a year and reasonable expenses.

On the item of $40,000 for the lunatic asylum, Hon. Mr. Tweedie said that the sum of $30,000 had not been found sufficient, as the fund had been increased. There are now 534 patients in the asylum. The municipalities pay $1.25 a week for the patients that they send. This tax on the municipalities had been complained of, but it was a wise one, as some of them had been sending people to the asylum who were not fit subjects, such as old people of weak minds, who should be in the almshouse. On the item of $21,543.76 for asylum over-expenditure, Hon. Mr. Tweedie explained that this would give the asylum a clean sheet up to the 21st of October last.

The item Imperial Institute, $500, was explained by Hon. Mr. Tweedie, who said that all the other provinces made an exhibit at the Imperial Institute at London. The agent general and Lord Strathcona had urged New Brunswick to do the same, and the government thought it was in the interest of the province to make an exhibit. We are in a better position now to do this than ever before, because of the purchase recently made of the collection of birds and animals. Many of these are duplicates of specimens already in the crown land department, and a large number of these will be sent to the Imperial Institute. The sum of $500 was asked for the expense of sending over the exhibit and paying a curator. In future only $250 will be asked. It would say with reference to the collection purchased from Mr. Bortman that it is considered one of the finest on the continent, and was collected by Mr. Bortman during a period of fifty years. It was purchased by the crown and department for $3,500, which is less than one-half its value.

Mr. Hazen suggested that the government might well consider the advisability of putting up a building especially for the care of the valuable collection of birds and animals belonging to the crown land department.

Hon. Mr. Tweedie agreed with Mr. Hazen that the matter was well worth considering.

OSLER AND THE BUDGET.

A Name Against an Eloquent Reality.

WHY WAS MR. OSLER SELECTED TO REPLY TO MR. FIELDING.

The Men Overlooked.

A TORY NEWSPAPER'S OPINION

The Ottawa correspondent of the Toronto Telegram writes:—

"Edmund B. Osler was assigned the duty of making the Opposition's reply to Hon. W. S. Fielding's budget speech. He did just what was to be expected of him—made a few sensible remarks on the tariff and its ramifications, but failed utterly to make an argument approaching the traditions of the House. E. B. Osler has great talents as a financier; he is capable of making a practical analysis of any commercial question; but from a political or debating standpoint there is no reason why twenty other members of the Opposition should not have been preferred for today's important exactions before the junior member for West Toronto. True, E. B. Osler has seen only five years of Parliamentary life, but the plea of inexperience does not justify his selection for the duty of replying to the Minister of Finance. Five, yes, ten more years on the Parliamentary experience of E. B. Osler will not make him other than he is—a severely practical man, lacking in fluency and every other important factor in oratory, and cold as a Labrador iceberg."

"It was known last night that E. B. Osler would sit beside the leader of the Opposition—a very sudden promotion. When the House met this afternoon. Yet preparation for the spectacle did not relieve the untidiness of things. Reminiscences would have freedom of range—reminders of the days when big men in debate led on the Conservative party when tariff was the battlefield. E. B. Osler's exaltation promises neither strength nor unity to the Conservative party. Clearly less fitted for the duty than Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, approaching in no way the Parliamentary ability of E. F. Clarke, outclassed by W. F. Maclean, Sir Hibbert Tupper, W. H. Bennett and others, what was there to defend the selection of the member for West Toronto to reply to the budget speech?"

"By all the laws of seniority, Wallace, Maclean, Sir Hibbert Tupper and Bennett deserved consideration. They could only be fairly sidetracked when exposed to manifestly superior ability. Sir Hibbert Tupper is not to be looked upon as criticizing Osler's elevation. Good authority declares that Sir Hibbert Tupper, Samuel Barker, W. R. Brock, Geo. Taylor and Geo. Enlas Foster were head beetlers in the effort to induce R. L. Borden to bring E. B. Osler to the front today. This combination would rather see the budget speech go unanswered than give some one outside the gang a chance to bring himself into public credit and distinction. This may have been the method of Osler's boomers, but the theory is not universally accepted on Parliament Hill. Was E. B. Osler led into a position far beyond his ability to expose to broad daylight the sad delicacy of his Majesty's loyal Opposition? Does Osler's conspicuous failure give Geo. Enlas Foster new claims on a seat in the House? These suggestions are offered, not as an explanation of R. L. Borden's strange generosity, but as illustrating a belief which commands considerable credence. Certain it is that E. B. Osler was not advanced from a back bench to discharge a most important duty on his ability alone. What other considerations entered into the promotion are the exclusive property of R. L. Borden, Sir Hibbert Tupper, S. Barker and the rest of the gang? Inference is the only refuge of the Opposition's esteemed friend, the public."

"Six transit gloria mundi," quoth Jabel Robinson, the rugged independent of West Egin, as he saw Sir Richard Cartwright following the remarks of E. B. Osler take a note or two and then lean back, his broad slouch hat concealing all save his grizzled whiskers.

The sturdy old knight, the hero of many a hard fought battle of the budget, was not excited to grim strife by the challenge of E. B. Osler. When Osler concluded Sir Richard never stirred from beneath his ample headpiece. His head pillowed upon the back of his chair, he sat as if taking the rest which long and victorious service merited. The lion master of the jungle was not to be bothered by the snaps of the terrier. There and then the tariff debate would have been at an end, but James Clancy, agast for a moment at the inactivity of the other side of the House, stood up to carry on the fight, and others will sustain him. E. B. Osler and James Clancy foremost in the attack on the budget speech! The sight was not a living testimonial to the 'grand front' which the Conservative party in caucus discovered to be one of its shining assets.

E. B. Osler replying to W. S. Fielding was nothing more than a name replied to an eloquent reality.

"That Mr. Osler's name rather than his debating ability gave him the task of replying to the Minister of Finance is frankly admitted by many Conservatives. James Clancy is not without ability by any means, but five years ago the Conservative party, adorned with the ability of Sir Charles Tupper, Foster, Montague, Ives and Caron, could hardly have foreseen the day when the member for Borewell would take second place in attacking a budget speech. There can be no great debates during this Parliament, for the two forces necessary to debating achievement do not exist. To-day's performance was convincing substantiation of this truth, that will be emphasized the more as large issues are confronted and ingloriously met."

A Few Words With the People of Fredericton About Waterproofs.

You do not buy a waterproof for the fun of it, but you want that garment to protect you from rain, therefore ask a guarantee—no matter where you buy it—to be strictly waterproof, to look like one is not enough. And bear always in mind, no matter how cheap a dealer offers you one, that the manufacturers can sell 30 or 40 per cent cheaper. Do not believe when one offers you a gold dollar for 50 cents that one is going to do it. He will give you one that looks like a gold dollar, and it is not always the cheapness of the thing that gives satisfaction. It is your money's worth that does it, and above all when you get that which you expected to get, that makes you satisfied. I guarantee every waterproof to be strictly so. I offer every garment to your measure and style, you like best, I keep every coat in repair for two years, free of charge, and if you belong to Fredericton, and are unable to pay all cash I will give you credit.

Talking about cheap coats, if you believe in a cheap waterproof, come and I will sell you one for two dollars and guarantee it to be as good as you get for four dollars of your ready made jobbers. And above all remember that I manufacture those coats right here in Fredericton and you are welcome to come and get a good look before you buy one.

If they give you pleasure and you have them as an adornment don't apply Putnam's Painless Corn and Wart Extractor for in twenty-four hours they would be entirely removed and their beauty destroyed. Now this is known to nearly everybody, including your druggist; ask him if it is not so.

Backache MEANS Kidney Ache

And it all comes from the same cause—sick kidneys—and sick kidneys mean Kidney Disease, Urinary Troubles, Diabetes, and Bright's Disease. If you are wise you will always heed the first backache and procure Doan's Pills and save yourself further trouble.

Here are a few letters endorsing the virtues of Doan's Pills:

LUNenburg, N.S., Sept. 26th, 1900.
From Mr. E. M. SWITZER: It affords me great pleasure to write you of the good Doan's Pills have done my father. He has been ailing for many years, and I consider it Providential that he ever got a box of your pills. Altogether he has used five boxes and is completely cured, and wishes to recommend them to all who suffer from kidney trouble.

AURORA, ONT., Nov. 23rd, 1900.
From Mr. SILAS MILLAR: Some months ago, previous to procuring a box of Doan's Pills, I was badly troubled with backache, and the one box completely banished all pain from my back, and I take great pleasure in recommending them to others.

STANBRIDGE EAST, QUE., Feb. 8th, 1901.
From Mr. C. HALL, ex-Mayor: I have been troubled with my back and kidneys off and on for some time, and not long ago I was taken with such a backache that I could not straighten up and could hardly lift a one pound weight. I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and was astonished at their effect, for in a very short time I was completely cured, and do not hesitate to recommend them to those who suffer from lame back or kidney troubles.

MIAMI, MAN., Nov. 14th, 1896.
From Mr. ALEX. FISHER: Some time ago I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills determining to give them a trial for lame back and kidney complaint which had become so bad I could hardly endure it. After using the box of pills I was cured and cannot refrain from recommending them to all persons troubled with kidney disorder.

KAMLOOPS, B.C., Sept. 26th, 1900.
From Mr. MATTHEW DRYSDALE: Some time ago I was troubled with an aching pain in my back, and tired feeling after the slightest exertion. My urine was also discolored. I procured a box of Doan's Pills and after taking them my backache has disappeared and my urine has returned to its normal color. Altogether the Pills were a perfect cure. I consider them a wonderful preparation.

SPRING, 1901

Began on March 21st.
The Spring Season in the Dry Goods, Clothing and Millinery Trade begins on March 21st. This day is past, so we might as well talk spring. We've had winter long enough.
