

Barrymore and Modjeska.

Maurice Barrymore earned a reputation as a wit and really deserved it. His style could be less successfully transferred to the stage, as his efforts at comic writing showed, but in its spontaneous phases its effect always told. One of the stories told was about his experiences with Mme. Modjeska, with whom he acted for several years. He had been as careless as he often was on the stage, and Mme. Modjeska, with all the conscientiousness of a great artist, protested that he had no right to take his calling so lightly and that if he did not owe it to his reputation to do his best he at least owed it to her, because she had done so much in his behalf and had put him before the public in a dignified and serious line of parts.

"Why, madam," he said, "it is not you who brought me before the public and made me known. People had heard of me all over the United States when they thought that Modjeska was only the name of a tooth wash."

Regretful Reminiscence.

Aunt Rachel—Mandy, what's the trouble between you and Mr. Hankinson? I haven't seen him here for several evenings.

Miss Mandy—He seemed to be getting a little too confidential the other night, auntie, and I told him to take his arm away.

Aunt Rachel—Well, he did, didn't he? Miss Mandy—Yes, he took it clear out of the house, and he hasn't been back with it since.—Chicago Tribune

CATARRAH HEADACHE.—That dull, wretched pain in the head just over the eyes is one of the surest signs that the seeds of catarrh have been sown, and it's your warning to administer the quickest and surest treatment to prevent the setting of this dreaded malady. Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder will stop all pain in ten minutes, and cure.—5. Sold by W. H. Carten.

Making Him Sweat.

Hardware Dealer—What was old Krankie kicking about?

Clerk—He wanted ten pounds of nails; said he'd pay for them and take them home himself. Wouldn't trust us to deliver them, he said.

Hardware Dealer—Surly old codger. I hope he'll sweat for it.

Clerk—Oh, I took care of that. I threw in an extra ten pounds, and I never knew it.

Look at Your Coat Collar.

Covered with dandruff, as usual. That means a diseased scalp. Dr. White's Electric Comb will soon cure that. The only patented comb in the world. Every one who has used it is wild with delight. Only 40c and 60c each. D. N. Ross, Gen Mgr, Decatur, Ill.

Anyone troubled with boils, pimples, rashes, festering sores, or any chronic or malignant skin disease should use Burdock Blood Bitters externally and take internally. It will cure where others fail.

Table Signaling.

Uncle Henry—Well, if my niece didn't go and get pointed shoes after all!

Uncle Dick—You seem greatly concerned about her footwear.

Uncle Henry—Yes, and you'd be, too, if she prodded you with her toe every time you ate with your knife in company.—Chicago News

Unfortunately Well.

Husband—I see that they're advertising bargains in patent medicines at Kutt & Price's drug store.

Wife—Isn't that too aggravating? There isn't a thing the matter with any of us!

Hearing Restored After Physicians in Toronto and Winnipeg Failed.

JAPANESE CATARRH CURE CURED.

Neglected catarrh is the cause of deafness in nine out of every ten cases. When you hear a little buzzing, roaring sound occasionally in your ears you can be sure partial deafness will follow sooner or later, unless Japanese Catarrh Cure is used.

Mr. D. N. Spencer, 11 Coolmine Ave., Toronto, writes:—"I have been troubled with catarrh and deafness for a number of years, finally I could not converse with any person at a distance. I spent much money on advertised remedies, and doctored (while there three years ago), but my hearing became no better. About a year ago I procured a sample of Japanese Catarrh Cure. I afterwards followed up this treatment as directed, and shortly I found my hearing completely returned and my catarrh does not trouble me now in the least. I can conscientiously recommend it to any person troubled with catarrh or catarrhal deafness. Japanese Catarrh Cure is a volatile, healing made, pleasant to use, and permanently cures catarrh wherever located. Sold by all druggists; or mailed, price, 50 cents, by The Griffiths Macpherson Co., Limited, 121 Church St., Toronto.

An Interesting Link.

One curious incident in the siege of Badajos may be related. The day after the assault two Spanish ladies, the younger a beautiful girl of 14, appealed for help to two officers of the rifles, who were passing through one of the streets of the town. Their dresses were torn, their ears, from which rings had been roughly snatched, were bleeding, and to escape outrage or death they cast themselves on the protection of the first British officers they met. One of the officers was Captain Harry Smith of the rifles. Two years later he married the girl he had saved in a scene so wild. Captain Harry Smith in after years served at the Cape as Sir Harry, and this Spanish girl, as Lady Smith, gave her name to the historic town which Sir George White defended with such stubborn valor.

They Were Attentive.

A clergyman preaching in a country church for the first time was delighted to find the congregation very attentive and told the verger so after the service.

The verger replied, "Lor' bless you, sir, we was all looking for you to disappear!"

"Why, what do you mean?" said the clergyman.

"Well, sir, you see, the pulpit is rotten and hasn't been preached in this ten year or more."

Some Odd Mistakes.

An urban chemist advertised in his shop window: "Artificial eyes. Open all night." Away down south in front of the postoffice in an inland town may have been seen this legend, "Post here letters too late for the next mail." In a picture of the departure of the pilgrims from Delfthaven the artist placed a large steamer in the distance leaving the harbor under full steam.
