A Test.

Hewitt—How can I find out whether a girl loves me or not?
Jewett—Send her a letter and a present by the same mail; get some member of her family to watch her and see which she opens first—the package or the letter. If she opens the letter first, she loves you.
—Brooklyn Life.

Parental Sorrow.

"Don't you know it will hurt me almost as much as it does you if I have to punish you," said the father.
"Yes," answered the precocious boy. "I am sure of it. My recollection is that you said you would not take me to the circus if I was not good."—Washington Star.

Tart.

A quarrel recently occurred between two maiden ladies. Said the younger one: "I wonder if I shall lose my looks, too, when I get your age."
The Elder One—You will be lucky if you do.—London Tit-Bits.

No company that we have ever heard of has ever come to this city with such favorable comments as "A Wise Woman." They have the unanimous endorsement of the press, and this you may rest assured will be your only chance to see this superior company, as they make but few stops going from New York to San Francisco. We have no doubt of their success here.
