On the Track.

A freight car that ran off the track at Morrison's Mills while being shunted by the inward western train at noon yesterday, gave the C. P. R., people a lot of trouble. It was necessary to call a wrecking train from McAdam to clear the track which was accomplished last night. The passengers, mail, etc., of the St John train due at 7.30 last night, however had to transfer to the Marysville suburban.

THE DEATH ROLL.

Resper Busy Gathering His Sheaves.

James Wetmore.

News reached the city last night of the death of James Wetmore, which sad event occurred at his home at Blackville Wednesday. Deceased had been ill for several weeks, but later had shown evidence of convalescing. He was the third son of the late Stephen Wetmore, of St. John, a brother of Mrs Geo N. Babbitt of this city, and was 62 years old. Some years ago he was connected with the Canada Eastern Railway, but latterly he has been employed by the Gibson Company at their Blackville Mills as foreman and general manager. Mrs. Wetmore, who was formerly Miss Sarah Drake, died about seven years ago, and six children survive their parents. Mr. Wetmore was a gentleman of high character and very much respected by those who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. The remains arrived here by the Canada eastern train this afternoon and will be taken to St. John this evening for interment, Undertaker J. H. G. Adams having charge of the arrangements.

A daughter of the deceased is dangerously ill of brain fever, at Blackville.

Miss Louise Knorr.

Our correspondent at Mill Settlement, Sunbury County, writes: "The death occurred on the 7th inst. of Louise, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knorr. Deceased was sixteen years of age and had been suffering from consumption a few months. She was a bright young girl and her early death has cast a gloom over the entire community. The interment took place on the 10th at the Church of England burying ground at Hoyt. Rev. Horace Diblee preached an impressive sermon on the occasion from the words, 'To what purpose is this waste?'"

Mrs. Bridget McNichol.

Our Patersville, Queen's, correspondent writes: "I am sorry to record the death of Mrs. Bridget McNichol, who died very suddenly on the 6th inst. without any known cause. She was in the 63rd year of her age and was of a very respectable family, and a good neighbor of honest and upright character and highly respected by all her friends and neighbors. She leaves a husband and a large circle of friends and relatives to mourn."

A FREDERICTON BOY

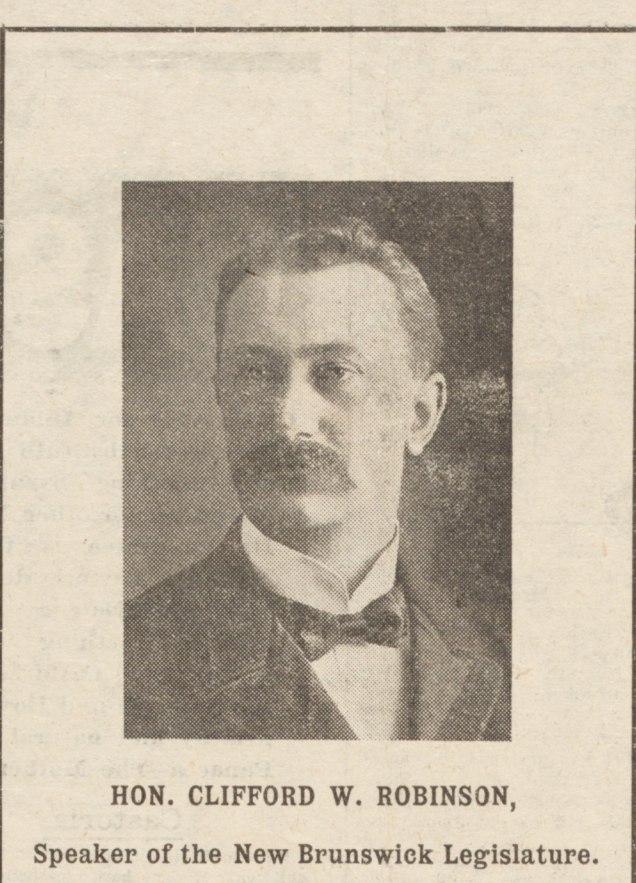

Is the Efficient Secretary of the Edmonton N.W.T. Exhibition Association.

The following from the Edmonton, N. W. T. Post, refers to a Fredericton boy, Mr. A. G. Harrison son of the Chancellor of the University, and a graduate of that institution:

"The Exhibition Association have begun work this season in a commendable way. They have appointed a secretary who is able, active and resourceful, and who is, above all, a resident of the town. Mr. A. G. Harrison can be depended upon to bring business methods and efficient knowledge to bear on his work, and as much depends upon the secretary, he being in effect the manager, we may look for some return this summer for the money expended. The holding of a summer fair was decided at a meeting of the directors on Wednesday night, and the date was fixed for July 1st, 2nd and 3rd. The directors have already begun steps through the Secretary to ensure the success of the enterprise. The association possesses as fine a park as there is in the Dominion, containing in all 43 acres, on the banks of the Saskatchewan in the centre of the townsite. As the financial position of the association is strong, it will be enabled to present a prize list and attractions superior to anything yet offered in the west."

Warrants were issued last night, for the arrest of Sam Noble and Ettinger.

At midnight the coroner's jury on the death of Emack, failed to agree and were discharged. The jury of the coroner's men said it was self-defence for the Lantz boys to fire. One said, "No." A new jury will be empaneled.

HON. CLIFFORD W. ROBINSON,
Speaker of the New Brunswick Legislature.

Is a son of the late W. J. Robinson of Moncton, and was born in that city 36 years ago. He entered public life as an alderman of Moncton and after serving a term was elected Mayor by acclamation. He was returned to the legislature in the by-election of 1896, was re-elected in 1899, and chosen speaker of the Assembly unanimously at the beginning of the present session. He is a Liberal in politics and in religion a Methodist.

half, and a few minutes later Allen shot a pretty one on a pass from Smith. The visitors then started in with a rush and kept the disc pretty well in Fredericton's district, and five minutes before the end of the game Howard shot it through. The popularity of the St. John boys was shown by the tremendous cheering which greeted their first and only goal. The game ended: Fredericton, 4; St. John 1. Ralph Clark refereed satisfactorily.

The 71st regiment band was present, and before and after the match a large crowd of skaters occupied the ice.

SHUBENACADIE TRAGEDY.

Sensational Evidence Offered at the Preliminary Examination

Shubenacadie, N. S. March 14.—Some sensational evidence was elicited at the inquest yesterday, over the body of Wm. Emack, the victim of Sunday's shooting. Albert Singer swore he came into town Sunday morning in company with Ettinger and Emack and on the way back, they cut clubs.

Ettinger told him he had a revolver and intended beating the Lantz boys so badly that they would require the services of a doctor. If they did not meet the Lantz boys coming from church, Ettinger said they would waylay them in the night, and he wanted Singer to help.

The plan laid out by Ettinger was that Singer was to go up to the Lantz boys' home and tell them his horse had fallen through the bridge, and ask them to come down and help him get it out. Ettinger and Emack were to lay in wait, fall upon the Lantz's and beat them almost to death. They then intended taking the team, and drive to Truro and there take the train for the United States.

Warrants were issued last night, for the arrest of Sam Noble and Ettinger.

At midnight the coroner's jury on the death of Emack, failed to agree and were discharged. The jury of the coroner's men said it was self-defence for the Lantz boys to fire. One said, "No." A new jury will be empaneled.

The Legislature.

Only routine business was transacted in the legislature yesterday, Premier Tweedie and Attorney-General Pugsley having been delayed in their return from Chatham by the railway blockad.

In the House this afternoon Hon. Mr. Barchill enquired whether or not the government intended to continue the grant to the Natural History Society of Chatham. Hon. Mr. Tweedie replied that the government did not intend making the grant and explained at some length why he thought the society's attitude toward the Surveyor General's department did not entitle it to the grant. Mr. Hazen and Hon. Mr. Dunn also spoke on the subject.

Consentance the Coward. Murderers uncaught suffer awful agonies of fear when alone with their consciences, but when apprehended, tried, convicted, sentenced and incarcerated they become callous to fear. Jailers tell me this is the general rule. There is an acquitted murderer in this city, once a leading politician, who has not been able to sleep alone in a dark room these 29 years. A light must be kept burning and an attendant is constantly on guard. A wall street broker, who has "done" every one of his most faithful friends, dares not go to bed in the dark. He keeps a light burning in his room and one in the hall, leaving the door open. In the small hours of the morning he awakens his family with pitiful cries. The city man who is not afraid of the dark alleys, who will brave thugs and stable gangs at any hour of the night, is in a panic when alone in a forest.

Pulpit and Pew.

In his "Lighter Moments" the late Bishop Walsham How tells of a lady, a great admirer of a certain preacher, who took Bishop Magee with her to hear him and asked him afterward what he thought of the sermon. "It was very long," the bishop said. "Yes," said the lady, "but there was a salient in the pulpit." "And a martyr in the pew," rejoined the bishop.
