

TAKING THE REINS.

Colbert's 2:07½ is the fastest record for a 12-year-old stallion.

Ned Hampton, by Robert Rysdyk, has paced a mile to wagon in 2:22½.

Amboy still holds the trotting record to harness at Holmesburg, with a mile in 2:13½.

In Vienna recently the 2-year-old Ma-sha, by nominee, 2:17¼, out of an Orloff mare, trotted a mile in 2:33 from a standing start.

W. D. Hunt, a member of the Boston Driving club, is driving Richmond, Jr., 2:15, and Woodwitch, 2:29¼, matinee record, to pole.

Mary Ann, 2:12¼, a daughter of Jerome Eddy, 2:16½, owned in Tonawanda, N. Y., will be raced through the Canadian ice circuit.

Thomas W. Lawson has bought 100 acres of land at Scituate, Mass., where he will build a track and have his horses race and trained.

Joe Cromie recently drove the 2-year-old pacer Daybreak, by Refero, 2:24¼, a mile and repeat in 2:24¼ and 2:22¼ at the Lexington track.

J. H. Haws of Johnstown, Pa., has bought the pacer Gladwell from Phil Hertzing of the same place and will campaign him next year.

The yearling filly by Crescens, 2:04, Vida, sister to Grace Hastings, 2:08, has been named Cresolita. She is entered in $46,000 worth of stakes.

Sam T, the great pole horse of Charles T. Chipman of Germantown, Pa., has trotted Cedar park half mile track in 2:16½, to harness, the track record.

Alcyrene, 2:23¼, by Auctioneer, the property of James Morris of the Kensington Driving club, can show a 2:15 clip. She will be a factor on the snow this winter.—Horseman.

Some Queer Tastes.

"We have all sorts of odd customers," said a restaurant proprietor, "who season their food in a most incongruous way. One man, whose choice dessert is peach meringue, must have it fairly covered with catchup before he will eat it. An other regular customer spreads mustard thickly upon his doughnuts and custard pudding. I had a new one yesterday when a young man started to use the sugar shaker on his fried eggs. The sugar being damp, it would not come out readily, and he asked me to fix the shaker for him. Thinking he had made a mistake, I told him that was the sugar and handed him the saltcellar.

"I don't want salt," he said. "I want sugar, and I want you to fix that thing so that it will come out."

"I gave him a sugar bowl, and he dumped several spoonfuls over his fried eggs, which he seemed to enjoy immensely. Some people prefer sugar on lettuce, tomatoes and other vegetables. Others turn up their noses at such a use of the saccharine substance, preferring salt and pepper. There is no accounting for taste in the matter of edibles."—Exchange.

Ups and Downs.

"Really your face is very familiar, sir, but you seem to have the advantage of me in names."

And she looked at the distinguished stranger with a puzzled air.

"I fancied," he said, "that you would know me. My name is Bangs, and four years ago I had the honor to be your coachman."

The face of the lady blazed.

"Sir!" she fairly snarled.

"But a remarkably lucky series of stock investments," he went on, "has enabled me to become your next door neighbor."

The lady's face softened.

"So pleased to renew our acquaintance, Mr. Bangs," she smilingly said.

Looking Backward.

"By George," said the big man with the heavy, dark mustache, who had just got back from Australia, "how time flies. Just think! I used to be the smart kid who tried to scare you out when you came to see my sister. What a little runt I was in those days."

"Yes," wearily replied the one he addressed, "you were a little runt, indeed. If you had only been big and strong like you are now!"

Out of His Line.

Crawfoot—Say, if you air so all fired good at problems, tell me how far off thunder is when you hear the first roll.

Calculator—I can't do that, sir.

Crawfoot—You kain't?

Calculator—No; I'm the lightning calculator.

A Well-Known Beachville Lady Cured of Catarrh in its Worst Form After Years of Suffering.

JAPANESE CATARRH CURE CURES.

There are hundreds of so-called catarrh cures, but those who have tried them all proclaim Japanese Catarrh Cure the only real and permanent cure.

Miss A. Nott, Beachville, Ont., writes:—"I feel so gratified for the invaluable benefit derived from Japanese Catarrh Cure that I would like to make this wonderful medicine known to all who suffer from this most annoying and disagreeable disease. I had catarrh for years. There was almost a constant dripping in my throat, and my breath was very objectionable to others. Nothing I could get gave me any permanent relief until I used Japanese Catarrh Cure. I used in all six boxes, and it worked wonders in my case. I have not now the least symptom of catarrh, and cannot praise this remedy too highly."

Japanese Catarrh Cure is the only permanent and guaranteed cure for catarrh. All druggists sell it, 50 cents, or mailed, postpaid, by The Griffiths & Macpherson Co., Limited, 121 Church St., Toronto.

For sale by John M. Wiley, druggist.

Strategy.

"Rafferty," said Mr. Dolan, as he looked at the big hotel building, "if I hove ty live in a place like that, gimme the top dure. Then, in case any iv the j'ices laves go, the felly on the ground flure hov ty bear the brunt iv it."

"But t'ink iv the drop!" said his neighbor.

"It 'ud be ter'ble. But I'd chance it. I've had exper'ence, an when there's any kind iv a-gettin together I invariably want ty be the man that hits first."—Washington Star.

Common Rumor at Fault.

The persistent correspondent was worming a biography out of the reluctant statesman.

"I suppose it is true, senator, as everybody understands," he said, "that you began life as a poor plowboy?"

"No, sir," growled the statesman. "I began life as a red faced, flat nosed, squawling baby."—Chicago Tribune.

A Blessing in Disguise.

"I suppose you are greatly displeased with my daughter's pianoforte practicing. It must annoy you dreadfully—the fat has such thin walls."

"Well, no, I have no wish to condemn your daughter's practicing. It has been the direct cause of my wife and I taking a great deal of very beneficial outdoor exercise."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Abdominal?

Miss Brown—What's the matter with your husband? Some stomach trouble, isn't it?

Mrs. Malaprop—Oh, worse'n that! The doctor didn't specify. He just said it was some "severe abominable complaint."—Philadelphia Press.
