

THE HOUSE TO-DAY

Crow's Nest Southern Railway will be Built Under Provincial Charter

BILL PASSED ESTABLISHING A MINT FOR CANADA

Bounty to be Given British Columbia Ores.

(Special to Daily Herald.)

Ottawa, May 21.—The House this morning concurred in motion by Davies of Saskatchewan that Crow's Nest Southern Railway will be discharged from the order paper. It was explained that the road would be built under a provincial charter.

The bill to "establish Canadian Branch Royal Mint passed through committee stage.

Fielding spoke favorably on the resolution giving a bounty to British Columbia ores. Such a course he explained was necessary as Americans would only test Canadian ore at exorbitant prices. The resolution was adopted.

LOST IN THE WOODS.

Terrible Experience of an Ontario Woman.

(Special to Daily Herald.)

Bonham, Ont May 21.—Her clothing torn to shreds by dense underbrush, her limbs and feet bruised and bleeding, so weak from want of food that she could not stand and her mind wandering from the terrible experience of two weeks. This is the condition in which a provincial constable yesterday found Mrs Dow, who lost her way in the vicinity of Sand Hill lake two weeks ago.

She had sat on the roadside to rest and fallen asleep when a deep darkness had settled over a country road and she could not find her way home. Thereafter she wandered in the woods, with only water in the streams to drink and herbs to eat.

SEEKING A DIVORCE.

(Special to the Daily Herald.)

Halifax, N. S., May 21.—Judge Graham presided in the divorce case of Flemming vs. Flemming today. J Frank Flemming, fruit dealer, is petitioner, and prays that a divorce be granted him from his wife Sarah. The witnesses this morning were the woman at whose house respondent has been boarding some time, her daughter and the physician who attended respondent. The evidence of the young girl was somewhat racy.

SUNBURY-QUEENS PETITION.

To be Tried at Gagetown October 8th

(Special to Daily Herald.)

St John, May 21.—Chief Justice Tuck today ordered that the Sunbury-Queens election case be set down for trial for the 8th of October at 2 o'clock p m, at Gagetown.

STRIKE SETTLED.

(Special to the Daily Herald.)

Kingston, Ont., May 21.—The strike at the Locomotive works was settled at noon. It is practically a victory for the men.

SITUATION UNCHANGED.

(Special to Daily Herald.)

Montreal, May 21.—The machinists' strike is unchanged today. It is stated that allied trades will join in the struggle shortly.

SOUTH AFRICAN WAR.

Cape Town, May 21.—Eight hundred Boers have crossed the Orange river from the northwest and have reinforced the commandoes in the eastern district.

The latest reliable report locates De Wet near Philippolis, in Orange River Colony, and not far from the Cape line, with 40 horsemen. All the commandoes in the Orange River Colony have instructions to cross the Orange river. Several British patrols have been ambushed.

London, May 21.—Lord Kitchener reports that last week 19 Boers were killed, 14 were wounded, 238 were made prisoners and 71 surrendered and that 212 rifles and 105,000 rounds of ammunition were captured.

Montreal, May 21.—Steamer Anglo-African will leave Montreal tomorrow morning with 750 Canadian horses for the army in South Africa.

Toronto, May 21.—Lieutenant Reginald Temple, late with the Royal Canadians in South Africa, has been appointed an officer in Baden-Powell's police and will leave for South Africa at once.

The W. S. Harkins Company.

Tomorrow night W S Harkins will present our theatre goes with a first class production of that famous play, Madame Sans Gene, with Miss Jessie Bonstelle in the title role. The play is of the Napoleonic period and is a prologue and three acts, showing Miss Bonstelle in her capacity of a washerwoman or blanchisseuse, when Napoleon was a poor lieutenant. Then she saves the life of an Austrian officer. The years pass on and the poor lieutenant is now the great Emperor, the sergeant who loved her is a marshall of France and the little washerwoman a duchess. The leading man of the company is Mr Ernest C King. The ladies of the company are attractive and intelligent and the general support abundantly satisfactory. Madame Sans Gene will be given tomorrow night and no one should miss it.—d.

The Harkins Company.

The members of the Harkins Company which is booked at the Opera house for three nights this week, came over the Canada Eastern from Chatham this afternoon and are domiciled at the Barker and Queen.
