

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

The Popular Medicine with the People and the Medical Profession.

Only a true and effective remedy could continue, as Paine's Celery Compound has done, to hold its high place in the estimation of the ablest physicians and of the tens of thousands of busy men and women whose only means of judging is from the actual results in their own homes or among their friends. No remedy was ever so highly recommended, because no other ever achieved so many wonderful victories over disease and death.

For feeding exhausted nerves, building up the strength of the body, giving a healthy and natural appetite, and as a promoter of refreshing sleep, Paine's Celery Compound stands today without an equal in the world.

Mrs. Garland, 675 Crawford Street, Toronto, gives her experience with Paine's Celery Compound as follows:

"Your Paine's Celery Compound has most wonderfully improved my health. Before using it my appetite was poor—almost gone; I was weak and debilitated, and suffered from pains in the head. Paine's Celery Compound does all that is claimed for it. I have recommended it to my friends, and they all speak highly of the results received from it. I wish Paine's Celery Compound the success it so richly deserves."

Click of the Bushmen.

In talking the bushmen give the impression of being in the transition stage, between the click and throat method, of conversing. Imagine the hollow, indistinct utterances such as proceed from a rootless mouth, relieved by numerous clicks, and you know as much of this language as I am able to give you. In 1896 a few of these people, copying the Maize, adopted the village system and cereal cultivation for the first time. The great bulk of them still exist on most primitive lines. They wander about the bush without cover, sleeping where they happen to be when the sun goes down and eating what they find, mainly roots, snakes and berries, as being easily acquired. In wet weather they place a piece of detached bark over their head and leave the rest of the body to look after itself.

Settling the Trouble.

First Lady Passenger—If that window isn't opened this minute, I know I shall die.

Second Ditto—Who opened that window? If it is not shut, I shall die, I'm sure.

Philosophical Gentleman—Conductor, please keep that window open till one of these ladies dies; then shut it and give the other an opportunity to quit this vale of tears.

Although all the old British battleships had elaborately carved figureheads on their bows, modern vessels are not allowed any such sort of decoration by virtue of an order of the admiralty issued some years ago.

Sleeplessness Nervousness Tiredness Weakness Dizziness Restlessness Forgetfulness

These are all caused by the weakened condition of the nervous system.

If you are troubled with any of the above we strongly advise you to give Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a trial as this is what they are indicated for. Read what the following people have to say:

Murray Harbor South, P.E.I., Oct. 4, 1900.
MESSRS. THE T. MILBURN CO., LIMITED,
Toronto, Ont.

"Some time ago I was weak, nervous and run down, and seeing Milburn's Pills advertised I procured two boxes, and after taking them I was cured."

EDWARD J. JORDAN.

Nile, Ont., Dec. 2nd, 1899.

"When I first started taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I was very weak and nervous, and would often wake up with fright, and it would be impossible for me to go to sleep again for some time."

"I also had dizzy spells, and shortness of breath. After using the Pills, I cannot say enough for them as they have done me so much good."

MRS. SAMUEL KERR.

Blanche, N.S., Oct. 9th, 1900.

"I was very nervous and easily excited by the least little thing. I took one box of your Milburn's Pills, and found them just what they are recommended to be for nervousness."

LONGING.

Ah, if you knew how soon and late
My eyes long for a sight of you,
Sometimes in passing by my gate
You'd linger until fall of dew,
If you but knew!

Ah, if you knew how sick and sore
My life flags for the want of you,
Straightway you'd enter at the door
And clasp my hand between your two,
If you but knew!

Ah, if you knew how lost and lone
I watch and weep and wait for you,
You'd press my heart close to your own
Till love had healed me through and through,
If you but knew!

—Mathilde Blind in New York Tribune.

The Kernel.

An amusing episode occurred at a political meeting at Lavendon during the general election. After hearing the speeches of the candidate and his supporters, an aged Conservative from Wolverton mounted the platform and caused some mystery by dramatically holding aloft a walnut, when he proceeded to say: "This is a political walnut. The rough shell represents the Radicals; the next, the thin, bitter skin, is the Liberals, and the kernel represents the good Conservative."

A man in the audience cried out, "Now crack it!"

The Wolverton Tory did so, when, lo and behold, the kernel was rotten! The admixture of laughter and chagrin that followed may be imagined.

Nothing can be good for everything.
Do one thing well brings success.
Doan's Pills do one thing well.
They are for sick kidneys.
They cure backache and all kidney ills.
