

JINGLES AND JESTS.

A Meeting.

We sat at the table together;
She cast a glance over at me;
Her face was the face of an angel—
A face I was thankful to see.
I fell 'neath the spell of her beauty,
Praised fortune for letting us meet,
And, blissfully dreaming, I ordered
The things that I wanted to eat.

Her eyes were of velvety softness,
I looked on her face and was
And I felt something sweetly
In the shy, demure manner
Her form was the form of a goddess,
Her face was enchantingly
I was manlier, nobler and pure—
For sitting so close to her there.

The waiter bent over her shoulder;
I listened, expecting to hear
Her ask for a cup of ambrosia;
Her presence made heaven seem near!
I thought of those days on Olympus
When goddesses banqueted there,
She ordered "some buckwheats and sausage,"
And I nearly fell out of my chair.

A Pointer For Papa.

Lovely Daughter—Pa, Mr. Nicefello proposed to me last night, and I referred him to you.

Pa—Well, I really don't know much about the young man, and I'll have to—
Daughter—When he calls to see you about it, you are to receive him kindly—real fatherly, remember—and help him along all you can until he asks for my hand, and then you are to look alarmed and talk about what an angel I am and how many millionaires and dukes and princes I've refused, and then you are to reluctantly consent and give him your blessing.

"Oh, I am, am I? But suppose I don't—then what?"

"I shall marry him just the same."—
Tit-Bits.

Mixwilton's braces are bonny,
And every one extols
The hazards and the bunkers there
And the course of eighteen holes.

'Tis there with Annie Laurie
And caddie every day
I go, and oh, how blissfully
We hoot the hours away (awa!)!

Couldn't Waste It.

"I'm sorry to see you gwine fishin, Ephraim, w'en you ought to be workin."

"Well, I'm sorry, too, pahson, but I couldn't afford to waste this weather."
—Indianapolis News.

A Suspicion Aroused.

"Stop that noise, Jimmy, or we will send you to bed."

"Pa, you don't act like I wuz your real child at all. You act like I wuz jes' somebody else's ole orphan."

Afterwhile.

Afterwhile we'll go loafin
Where th' willers swish an bend,
Where th' blackbirds slog in chorus
All th' summer without end.

Afterwhile we'll go fishin
'Neath th' summer sunset skies
An, returnin, tell our neighbors
Jes' about th' same ole lies.
—Denver Times.

Social Geometry.

Miss Freeman—Why, I thought you knew her! She lives in the same square with you.

Miss Hutton—Perhaps. But she does not move in the same circle.

A Sad Discrepancy.

Soon luckless man will mourn his plight
And fate's oppressions rue
And wish that fish would freely bite
As the mosquitoes do.
—Washington Star.

As to His Feet.

Towne—See that man? Well, sir, he landed in this country with bare feet, and now he's got millions.

Browne—Gee whiz! He's worse than a centipede, isn't he?

Why He Was Unsatisfactory.

"Yes," said the titled Britisher wearily, "I had to let the man go. He wouldn't do at all, you know."

"Why not?"
"Why, the beastly beggar never had any money to lend me when I was laid up."

A Prisoner's Release

A Bright Youth of Eighteen Suffered so Badly from Asthma and Bronchitis that he was Forced to Remain in the House for Months at a Time.

DR. CLARKE'S KOLA COMPOUND CURED.

Mr. L. O. Lemieux, C. P. R. Engineer, 556 Alexander Street, Winnipeg, Man., writes: "My son who is just eighteen years of age has been a terrible sufferer from asthma and bronchitis during eighteen years. He became worse each year in spite of the hundreds of dollars I spent on doctors and many remedies. For several years he has had to remain in the house during the winter months, and for hours at a time treated with poultices and mustard plasters to keep him from choking. Time after time we thought each attack would be his last. About the first of September, 1898, we heard of Clarke's Kola Compound and purchased in all seven bottles. While taking the first four bottles the change was gradually for the better; soon after taking the fifth bottle he could go out any day without any sign of his trouble whatever, and since completing the treatment has been completely cured. This grand medicine certainly has been a blessing to him. During the last year, since being cured, he has developed wonderfully physically and is altogether a changed boy. I give you this letter that it may bring the light of this wonderful medicine to some other sufferer, as I have every reason to thank the gentleman in Vancouver, whose testimonial I read."

Don't take any substitute for Clarke's Kola Compound. All druggists or from The Griffiths & Macpherson Co., Limited, Toronto, Can.
