

FED ON MILK.

Could Eat Absolutely Nothing—Kept Body and Soul Together with Milk—Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have worked a Wonderful Change.

Many a sufferer from Dyspepsia cannot eat the food of ordinary healthy mortals. Certain meats certain dishes of various kinds must not be taken. "It disagrees with me," explains the victim when pressed to take some, oftentimes, quite ordinary and wholesome article of diet. "I never touch it." Pains and penalty follow if this rule is disregarded.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets liberate such people from slavery, the tyranny of ailing digestion. This is their usual everyday work all over the world, and may almost be taken as a matter of course, it happens so often.

But the case of Joseph J. Arbour, of Perce, Que., is greater than this. For six months Mr. Arbour could not eat a scrap of solid food. His stomach had absolutely broken down. He was literally starving. Life was kept in his body only by feeding him milk.

This man was not only saved from slavery by Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. He was saved from death by slow starvation. There is no doubt about it. Reduced to a glass of milk a day, and digesting even that with more and more difficulty as time went on, Mr. Arbour positively could not have kept body and soul together had it not been for Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Today Mr. Arbour's stomach can digest anything in the way of food he likes to eat. He used seven boxes of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. They digested the food while the stomach rested; he was able to eat solid nourishment; he grew strong and his stomach finally regained its power of perfect digestion.

"I cannot recommend Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets too highly."

In cases where Dyspepsia is accompanied by Constipation, the small brown tablets included in every box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will be found of inestimable service. They act on the liver firmly but gently, stimulating that organ to do its duty, and securing a prompt, easy movement of the bowels.

An End to the Argument.

"Have I not been a considerate wife?" she asked reproachfully.

"Considerate!" he exclaimed bitterly. "In what way?"

"Has there ever been a night when you were out late that I haven't left the gas burning for you?" she demanded.

"And you call that being considerate?" he said sarcastically. "Of course you have, but who pays the bills?"—Albany Telegram.

Dehorned Them.

"I understand there has been quite an agitation against the practice of dehorning in your vicinity," said the editor of the county paper to Mr. Meddewgrass.

"Well, not exactly," replied that gentleman. "You see, the trouble was started by a feller that come down there and sued the village for the price of their instruments. The boys wouldn't pay the judgment, an, by ginger, he dehorned 'em an dedrummed 'em, too, an now the town ain't got no melody to speak of!"—Baltimore American.

Her Question.

A Sunday school superintendent, who happened to be a dry goods merchant and who was teaching a class of very little tots, asked, when he had finished explaining the lesson:

"Now, has any one a question to ask?"

A very small girl raised her hand.

"What is it, Martha?" asked the superintendent.

"Why, Mr. Brooks, how much are those little red parasols in your window?" said Martha.—Current Literature.

Hay Fever can be Cured by Japanese
Catarrh Cure.

IT KILLS THE GERM WHICH IS THE CAUSE OF THIS MOST PREVALENT COMPLAINT.

Hay fever has been the cause of much scientific study and research by many of the most prominent physicians throughout the world. Many of them differ as to its real cause, but the majority agree that the cause is due to the little germs contained in pollen grains, principally hay pollen, but many other flowers and plants contribute largely to its cause. Japanese Catarrh Cure has been found the only complete cure for hay fever. It contains an organic compound of Iodine, which is a thoroughly harmless antiseptic, and destroys the hay fever germs completely. It soothes, heals and gives almost immediate relief. You will find it pleasant to use. We will be pleased to send you a trial quantity free. Enclose 5 cent stamp for postage, to The Gelfinths & Macpherson Co., Limited, 121 Church St., Toronto. Sold by all druggists, 50 cents, or mailed direct.

For sale by John M. Wiley, druggist.

SAID BY THE LITTLE ONES.

Some Bright Things Cried From the Talk of Youngsters.

A little fellow of 5 was quite sick and his mother said, "Here, Willie, take this powder the doctor left for you."

"Powder," exclaimed the small invalid, "why, mamma, I'm not a gun!"

Neighbor—I saw the doctor at your door this morning. Is any one sick?

Nellie (aged 5)—Yes'm. Papa's got the exclamationary rheumatism.

Neighbor—Oh, no. You mean inflammatory rheumatism.

Nellie—Well, anyway, he just hollers all the time.

There are organists and organists. The organist of the church was a guest of little Margie's father, and at dinner she said to him, "Do you play an organ?"

"Yes, my dear," was the reply.

"Then," gravely inquired the little miss, "where's your monkey?"

Johnny—Tommy Smith's mother makes him go to Sunday school every Sunday.

Johnny's Mamma—Why do you say she makes him go?

Johnny—'Cause he goes.

Little Edith had been very sick, but was convalescent. Waking up suddenly and finding a strange lady at her bedside she asked, "Are you the doctor?"

"No, dear," replied the lady, "I'm your trained nurse."

"Oh," exclaimed Edith, pointing to a cage hanging near the window, "trained nurse, let me introduce you to my trained canary!"

Clarence, aged 5, had been severely chastised by his parents for disobedience, and the next day, without saying a word to any one, he called at the office of the family legal adviser, who happened to be a particular friend of the little fellow's.

"Well, Clarence," said the man of the law, after shaking hands, "what can I do for you?"

"Please, Mr. Brown," replied Clarence gravely, "I want to get a divorce from our family."—Chicago News.

Floored.

The orator was speaking in fervent tones. He was absorbing the atmosphere and turning it loose weighted with golden thoughts.

"What man is there who has not felt a thrill of pride in flaunting the glad some fact to the whole world that the American woman is the gentlest and most divine creature that ever delighted the waste places of the masculine heart?"

"Me," came a voice from the audience.

"My wife's just moving into a new flat."

For a moment the orator was stunned.

Then he slunk back, for he realized he had been floored.—Denver Times.
