

TWO WERE KILLED.

Serious Accident on Canadian Pacific Railroad.

A SPECIAL CARRYING MARITIME FARM LABORERS

Jumped the Track Near Winnipeg.

JAMES CRAIG OF ST. MARYS, YORK COUNTY, AMONG THE INJURED.

Winnipeg, Aug. 14.—A serious railway accident occurred three miles east of Ingolf this evening and the following official statement is issued from the C.P.R. office: "Extra for west with harvesters from Maritime Provinces left the track three miles east of Ingolf at 5 o'clock. The cause is said to be a rail breaking under the engine while the train was passing over it. The engine and five coaches were derailed and the following passengers reported killed and injured: John Reed, Newfoundland, head and leg injured.

Martin Almon, Cape Breton, head injured. Jas Craig, York county, N. B., seriously cut on head.

Dan White, Kent county, N. B., dead. Donald McKegan, Cape Breton, dead. Thos Corwin, fireman of engine, leg badly injured.

A wrecking train with three doctors on board left Winnipeg for the scene immediately on receipt of the news. Another wrecking train with two doctors has gone from Rat Portage.

[The James Craig, referred to in the above dispatch, is a resident of St Marys, and formerly lived at Red Rock in the Parish of Stanley. His wife received a telegram from him this morning informing her that his injuries were not of a serious nature.]

CELEBRATION AT ST JOSEPH COLLEGE.

Feast of L'Assomption Draws Several Prominent Men.

(Special to the Daily Herald.)

Memramcook, Aug. 15.—The college grounds are in gay attire today, the occasion being the Acadian celebration of the annual feast of L'Assomption. People are present from all over the province and the grounds are beautifully decorated with flags and banners. The day is certainly one which will be remembered for years by those assembled. Three bands are in attendance, from Shediac, McGinley's Corner and the College. Among the prominent visitors present are Hon. J. I. Tarte, minister of public works, who came down this morning, accompanied by Theriault Monck, M. P. for Jacques Carter. There are also present Hon. H. R. Emmerson, Hon. Wm. Pugsley, Mr. Turgeon, M. P. for Gloucester, Urbain Johnson, M. P. for Kent, O. M. Melanson, M. P. for Westmorland, Senator Forier, Dr. Belliveau, O. G. LeBlanc. This morning high mass was celebrated by Rev. F. X. Cormier, and an eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. Father Gauthier of Charlottetown. This afternoon speeches were delivered by several prominent men.
