

MARYSVILLE NEWS.

An Interesting Budget from the Thriving Nashwaak Town.

July 5.—Master Hazen McLanahan, of Fredericton, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. George Ward.

Mrs. George Tapley and Miss Annie Brown, returned on Wednesday from Stanley, where they had been spending a few days.

Lorne Rowley is home from Dorchester for the summer vacation.

Miss May Caine and Miss Queenie Smith, who went as delegates to the Baptist association, arrived home from Grand Lake Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Bessie Brown and Miss Laura Lee are home from a pleasant visit to friends in Stanley.

Yesterday quite a number went to Houlton on the excursion, some of whom are not returning until this evening.

Mr and Mrs Lawson Cosman of St. John, are visiting relatives here.

Mr and Mrs Outy Sharp, who have been visiting Mrs J B Cudlip for some weeks, have gone to St John.

Miss Annie Morrison, has been spending a few days in Fredericton with his sister Mrs McLean.

Miss Marilla Bowman, intends leaving shortly for Montana.

The strawberry festival on the base ball hill Wednesday evening was attended by a large number of people, and passed off very successfully. The affair was the first of the season and was given under the auspices of the Ladies Benevolent Association of the Orange Lodge.

The usual games were provided, and all well patronized. Ice cream, cake and berries which were in abundance met with a ready sale. Music was furnished during the evening by the drum and fife band. The receipts amounted to a very substantial sum.

The Misses Minnie and Alta Adams of Fredericton are visiting their aunt, Mrs Joseph Robinson.

Mrs Estey of Durham, who came down yesterday with her two children to visit friends returned this afternoon.

Wednesday afternoon the funeral took place of Annie, the beloved daughter of Mr and Mrs James Arnold, which was attended by a large number of sorrowing relatives as well as friends. The services at the house and Free Baptist church were conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. Rideout, who spoke of the lovable character of the deceased. The remains were interred in the burying ground of the church. Four young men, Messrs F Robinson, H Brown, B Lack, and Pickard acted as pall bearers.

Mr and Mrs Woodman of Milltown, who were married on Wednesday, have arrived here. A reception took place at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs Harriet Allen, last evening, which was largely attended. The young couple have the best wishes of a host of friends.

The residence of Mr and Mrs Woodman, Milltown, was the scene of a very pretty wedding last Wednesday afternoon when their son Harry was married to Grace, third daughter of Mrs Harriet Allen, of this place, in the presence of friends and relatives by the Rev Mr Saerwood, the ceremony taking place at 3.30. The bride was charmingly attired in a blue cloth dress with white silk trimmings, a white hat, and carried a lovely bouquet of white and pink roses. She was attended by her friend Miss Myrtle Fitzpatrick, who also wore blue and carried white and pink roses. The groom was ably supported by his brother Stillman Woodman. After the ceremony the bridal party and guests sat down to a daintily served tea, after which the happy pair drove to the station and took the train, arriving here in the evening. About fifty invitations had been issued for the reception which was given last evening at the residence of the bride's mother. Quite a number were present and during the evening a sumptuous supper was served.

The happy pair were the recipients of many presents from here and at Milltown, which are very handsome as well as useful. The following were received at Milltown:

Parents of the groom, bed room set, bed spread and shams.

Mr and Mrs Leeman, table cloth and a dozen napkins.

Mr and Mrs Joseph Wheeler, fancy sofa

Miss Grace Bows, fruit dish

Miss M Fitzpatrick, porridge set

Stillman Woodman, brother of the groom, parlour lamp

Miss Nina Leeman, towels

Chick Woodman, towels

Miss Bessie Wheeler, rose jar

Arno Woodman, fancy vase

Mr and Mrs M Bows, fancy pitcher

Bessie and Herbie, water bottle

Mr and Mrs Joe Robinson and Miss Grace, table cloth

Miss Tess Murphy, fruit dish.

Mrs Barker, fancy pitcher.

Those received from friends here:

Bride's mother, fancy rocker and quilt.

Mrs George Chase, pickle fork.

Fred Robinson, butter knife, sugar spoon.

Misses Pearl and Stella Sterns, silver butter cooler.

H Allen, Edward Holmes, Annie Gilman, Jennie Allen and Lotie White, silver scollop dish.

Mrs Joseph Robinson, berry spoon.

Mr and Mrs Brad Pond, towels.

Mr and Mrs George Beecher, towels.

Mrs Thomas and Miss Julia Wheeler, table cover

Frank Robinson, pickle dish

Mr and Mrs William Wister, silver and glass marmalade jar

Mrs Irennie Smith, china butter cooler

Bordean Allen, parlour lamp

Elbridge Walker and Clair Downing, silver cake basket.

Mr and Mrs S F Richardson, pie fork and sugar spoon

Miss Maud McGinnis, vinegar cruet

Miss Alice Jamison, fancy vase

Miss Lizzie and Maggie Perry, silver napkin ring.

Mrs John Foss, 1/2 doz table napkins

Mrs William Foss, 1/2 doz table napkins

Jerry Saunders, towels

Miss Mayme Robinson, sugar spoon and butter knife.

Miss Cassie and Essie Grieve, bed spread.

Mr and Mrs George Holmes, chamber set

Bradford Smith and one of his sons started to drive to St Stephen on Wednesday, and expect to be away a week

Last evening Mamie, the beloved wife of Richard Gregory, passed peacefully away after a short illness from consumption.

Besides her sorrowing husband, she leaves three young children.

Her mother and father (Mr and Mrs James Arnold) were recently as Monday last, called upon to lose an affectionate and loving daughter. An event so doubly sad has cast a gloom over the community at large.

Forest Fire.

Chatham, N. B. July 5.—Terrific forest fires are raging on the north side of the river. The fire was started near Oak Point by some wayfarer boiling a kettle on the roadside. A barn belonging to J. Bonie, Oak Point, was burned Wednesday evening, and fears are entertained for the safety of other buildings.

The River.

The water in the river is falling quite rapidly and in a few days will be down to the ordinary summer level. Nothing of importance beyond what was published yesterday has been heard from the lumber drives on the upper St John.

GREAT FLOW OF OIL.
(Special to the Daily Herald.)

Moncton, July 5.—The Transcript says that the oil discovery at St. Joseph is improving. Oil is flowing so that torpeding is unnecessary. A steam pump has been attached to the well and pumping commenced at noon yesterday. The yield now is from 8 to 10 barrels per day. Twenty eight feet of oil sands were struck and tanks are being built to store oil.

ROBBERS IDENTIFIED.
(Special to Daily Herald)

Havre, Montana, July 5.—Train robbers who held up the great Northern flyer Wednesday afternoon, near Wagner, have been recognized as the famous Currey outlaws. "Kid" Currey, leader. They were seen 7 miles south of Malta by a cow puncher, who met Sheriff Griffith and posse eight miles beyond. The robbers were making good time.

BOERS CAPTURED.
(Special to the Daily Herald.)

London, July 5.—A report from Kitchener says, "Grenfell on July 1 at Howell captured 93 Boers and a lot of supplies belonging to Byers' commando."

ENGLISHMEN WON.
(Special to Daily Herald.)

Henley, July 5.—The Leander rowing club this morning defeated the University of Pennsylvania crew in the final heat for the grand challenge cup.

SUDDEN DEATH AT MONCTON.
(Special to Daily Herald.)

Moncton, July 5.—Mrs Benj Purdy, aged 65, woke up last night complaining of suffocating, and in 30 minutes she died of heart failure.
