

Events of a Day.

The Weather.

Today's forecast of the weather says: Fine, very mild today and Thursday.

Military Promotion.

The following militia order is gazetted: 71st York Regiment, to be lieutenant, Second Lieutenant F. G. Murchie of Milltown.

Steamer Sold.

Capt. Brannen has sold the Steamer May Queen to a company and will retire from steamboating business after a long and successful career.

Will Leave Tonight.

Mr. R. P. Foster, of the Royal Bank, leaves for St. John, by the evening train to take up his new duties. Mr. J. E. Christie will act as manager of the local agency until a successor is appointed to Mr. Foster.

The New Cop.

Police Constable Duff King was sworn in this morning by Police Magistrate Marsh and will go on duty this evening. The new cop is a young man, over six feet in height, of erect carriage and weighs close to 200 pounds.

Government Meeting.

A meeting of the local government is being held this afternoon, with all the members in attendance. The most important matter to come up is the stampage question, and the indications are that it will be finally disposed of.

Officers Elected.

At the annual meeting yesterday afternoon of St. Paul's Church Benevolent society, the following officers were elected for the current year:

President—Miss Macdonald.
Vice Presidents—Mrs. L. W. Johnston.
Mrs. T. G. Loggie.
Sec'y. Treas.—Miss Jeanette Beverly.

A New Instructor.

In the balance of this term at least, Mr. D. W. Hamilton M. A. of Centreville will act as assistant teacher of literature and other branches at the Normal school. Some time ago Mr. Hamilton was appointed Principal of the Macdonald Training school at Kingston. This school will not be opened until next summer but in the meantime the Normal school will receive the benefit of Mr. Hamilton's valuable services.

Supreme Court.

The Tobique Salmon Club vs. John A. McDonald—Mr. F. B. Carvell moves for judgment as in case of a non suit for not proceeding to trial according to notice. A. B. Connell, K. C., contra. Motion refused upon plaintiff giving peremptory undertaking.

The King vs. John Martin—J. B. M. Baxter moves to quash a conviction against the defendant for harboring a seaman. Fred R. Taylor, contra. Still before the court.

Police Court.

The case of the colored woman, Amelia Wright who was arrested at Agatow by Policeman Wright yesterday on the charge of adultery, was before the police court this morning. The woman's husband, John A. Wright, was on hand to prosecute the complaint, but the case was not proceeded with. Col. Marsh strongly advised the couple to go home, settle their differences and sin no more. He adjourned the case until Saturday and released the prisoner on her own recognizance.

A Delightful Drive.

The Misses Matel and Louise Fanjoy of Agatow entertained a number of their young friends to a delightful old fashioned hay rack driving party last Monday evening. A stop was made at a friend's house at Douglass. It was a jolly good natured crowd and fall had a splendid time and indulged heartily in the different games provided. During the evening light refreshments were served. The homeward trip was made sometime before sunrise, all expressing themselves as having had an unusually enjoyable time.

At the Hospital.

Sergt. Major Brewer of the R. C. R., underwent an operation at the Victoria Hospital yesterday for an attack of appendicitis, from which he has been suffering for some time. He was taken ill at Charlottetown some months ago and had an operation there, but the relief which it gave appears to have been only of a temporary nature, and a second operation was found necessary. I was performed by Drs. Bridges and G. J. McNally. At last accounts he was resting easily, and the chances are favorable for his recovery.

Juvenile Templars at Work.

At the regular meeting of Granite Lodge, the juvenile branch of the Good Templars, last evening, the following excellent programme was successfully carried out:

Recitation—Mamie Bolster.
Recitation—Maud Baxter.
Dialogue—Six members.
Organ solo—Clara Baxter.
Recitation—Fred Harvey.
Organ solo—Nellie Green.
Reading—Fred Thomas.
Recitation—Edna Bolster.
Recitation—May Harvey.

The little ones in the dialogue took their different parts splendidly, while the recitations were good, the organ solos were much enjoyed and the whole programme was capital. After the entertainment the officers were installed by members of the order. There were three visitors present from Albion lodge.

Law Exams.

The formal examination for the young men applying for admission as attorney-at-law, was commenced at the parliament building this afternoon and will be concluded some time next week. There are three candidates, viz., Walter Limerick, Fredericton; C. H. Elliott, Andover; and W. H. Harrison, St. John. Three other candidates being graduates of the St. John law school will be admitted without further examination. They are: H. L. Landry, Dorchester; G. P. Smith, Sackville and W. D. Pickett, St. John. The examiners are J. D. Phinney, K. C., George W. Allen, K. C. and J. B. M. Baxter.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The affairs of the Y. M. C. A. are now in such shape as to admit of the opening reception being held on Thursday evening. The rooms have been renovated and made bright and attractive, so that a more thorough and aggressive work can be done this season than ever before. All members and all young men who would like to become members are invited to be present tomorrow night, when a good program will be given, and refreshments served. The association books will be opened, and members received. An invitation is also extended to all members of the ladies auxiliary.

Mr Hamilton's Lecture.

The lecture at the college library last evening by Mr. D. W. Hamilton, M. A. was well attended and proved most instructive and interesting. It was the first of a series of public lectures in the season's course and there was a good audience. Mr. Hamilton's subject was "The New Education" and he dealt with it in a very able manner. At the close there was a discussion in which Dr. Inch, Mr. B. C. Foster, Dr. Creed and several of the students participated. Dr. Harrison presided.

Medals for Bravery.

Ottawa, Nov. 4.—At the meeting of the Humane Society in the city hall yesterday medals were presented to Lieut. Palmer and Miss Amy Ritchie for conspicuous bravery in saving Muriel Barrows from drowning at Brockville in August last. Lieut. Palmer is a son of A. Z. Palmer of this city, and is on furlough from India. Miss Ritchie is the accomplished daughter of the late Sir William Ritchie, and sister to Sheriff Ritchie, of St. John.

A Rumored Surrender.

A well known and prominent up river lumberman, who has enjoyed single blessedness for quite a number of years, is reported to have at last surrendered to cupid. While he denies the mild impeachment, his friends declare that he intends shortly to enter the list and are profuse in their congratulations.

Bridge Contract.

Chief Commissioner LaBilloy has awarded the contract for rebuilding the Porter bridge on the boundary between York and Carleton counties to Coun. W. R. Fawcett of Temperance Vale.

Football Tomorrow

The St. Joseph College football team is to arrive here this evening, to play a match with the U. N. B. The game will take place on the College athletic field tomorrow afternoon.
