

Sixth Great January Sale Now Booming.

PROFITS GIVEN AWAY.

PEOPLE who are familiar with the prices of Goods and have seen our big cut in prices, wonder if we are doing business for our health, but such is not the case. We have objects in making these sacrifices.

- 1st.—To promote a big business in the month of January conceded to be the dullest month of the year.
- 2nd.—To clear all Heavy Winter Goods that will not be saleable later in the season, and which, if not sold would have to be carried over until another Winter, something we never do if we have to even make a slight loss to move them.
- 3rd.—To make room for New Spring Goods that will be coming in now and will require accomodation.

Have you visited this big sale or read our big poster yet? If you have not many of your friends have and profited by it. Interest yourself, for it will pay you to come and see what is being done here in the way of price slaughtering. Changes every day. Everything goes, and if what you want is not in view or not on the list, ask for it, and we will produce it. Come early and secure best selections.

GEN. VILJOEN'S BOOK.

Will Record "Romantic and Fabulous Stories" of the Boers.

There has been a good amount of amusement expressed at the many European reports of the alleged capture during the South African war of Lord Roberts, General Buller and others, but it appears from the introduction to a book about to be published by General Ben. Viljoen that British reports have in many cases been equally wrong. During his captivity in St. Helena General Viljoen has been employed in writing reminiscences. He says: "During the later stages of the struggle, when we were isolated from the outside world, we read in newspapers and other printed matter captured from the British so many romantic and fabulous stories about ourselves that we were sometimes in doubt whether people in Europe and elsewhere would really believe us ordinary human beings, and not legendary monsters."

"On three occasions I read circumstantial reports of my death, and once a long and by no means flattering obituary, in which I was compared to Garibaldi, Jack the Ripper, and Aguirre."

"On another occasion I learned from British newspapers of my capture, conviction and execution in Cape Colony for wearing the insignia of the Red Cross. I found that I had been brought before a military court at De Aar and sentenced to be shot, what was worse, the sentence was duly confirmed and carried out. A very lurid picture was drawn of my execution. Bound to a chair near my open grave, I had met my doom with rare stoicism and fortitude. 'At last,' concluded the admirable historian, 'this scoundrel, robber and guerrilla leader, Viljoen, has been safely planted, and will trouble the British army no more.'

"I also learned with mingled feelings of amazement and pride that, having been imprisoned at Mafeking at the commencement of hostilities, General Baden-Powell had kindly exchanged me for Lady Sarah Wilson."

"To be honest, none of the above-mentioned reports were strictly accurate. I can assure the gentle reader that I was never killed in action nor executed at De Aar. I was never in Mafeking or any other prison in my life, nor was I in Cape Colony during the war. I never masqueraded with a Red Cross, nor was I ever exchanged for Lady Sarah Wilson. Her ladyship's friends and admirers would have found me a very poor exchange."

As a matter of fact, an exchange with Lady Sarah Wilson really did take place, her Ladyship having been captured when on one of her daring rides out of Mafeking. The Boer prisoner who was exchanged for her, however, was not General Viljoen, but a much less important Boer of the same name.

BAD BLOOD.

Miss Mary M. Allan, Acton, Ont., says.—
For nearly a year I was troubled with pimples on my face. I tried several remedies but none of them seemed to help me until I got Burdock Blood Bitters. I think it is a great remedy for bad blood, and take pleasure in letting you know that it did me more good than all the other remedies I tried.

HEADACHES.

Mrs. Peter Bondreau, Glen Levit, N.B., says.—It is with pleasure and gratitude that I can testify to the wonderful power of Burdock Blood Bitters. My daughter was ailing for three years with headaches and run down system. I tried several kinds of medicine but to no effect. At last a friend urged me to try B.B.B. for her, and after using two bottles she was like another being. I can never praise it enough. It is a God-send to all.

DYSPEPSIA.

Miss Alberta Murray, Campbellton, N.B., says.—For five years I was troubled with Dyspepsia, and whenever I ate anything I suffered untold agony. My parents got numerous medicines for me but they did me no good. I saw Burdock Blood Bitters advertised and something seemed to say, 'get a bottle.' I did so, and to my surprise before I finished the bottle I found relief. I took all told 3 bottles, and have had no return of the trouble.

CONSTIPATION.

Miss Nellie Huggan, Merigonish, N.S., says.—I was troubled with constipation for a year and tried different medicines, but they did me no good. I then took Burdock Blood Bitters and it cured me so that I have not been troubled since.

Mr. Whorton Barkley, Morrisburg, Ont., says.—I took three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters for constipation and found a complete cure effected.
